A holographic unwinding of trauma buried in the emotional body and held in the Heels, Pelvis, Diaphragm, Jaw & Sphenoid. They hold the same posture: torsien, rotation reflecting each other. Releasing will allow the earth plane to adjust where it is the most needed. Good for moving forward and shifting how we walk through our world without fear.

Learn how to create rapport, through NLP (Neural Linguistic Programming), Reflective Listening, Body /Voice Reading, and Pacing. Use these tools during inventory in the beginning of your sessions which will inform you as to what to do on the table. Includes scanning; seeing how much you can hear, see and feel the landscape of the client and how that dovetails into the client's story or directly opposes it. Body Language – How do you read what's going on when the client's story and their body language is not congruent? Fascinating informative work!

UPDATE from Lisa: It's been a very topsy turvy time for everyone I know, including me!
I will be in LA, Marina office and Studio City office until I leave Nov 4-17 for Ohio and Michigan where I'll be teaching classes and doing workshops! I am looking forward to discovering the Ann Arbor area and meeting folks I've only seen online for many years!

Call if you want to come in for a session. I'm in a different area of the Mariners Village complex while they renovate the building on Old Harbor Lane.

This is the time, pre and post election, where it is vitally important to stay in our highest vibration and not get drawn into the lower rungs of life: Retaliation, Revenge, Reaction. Instead, Respond, Activate, and Stay Grounded so you can move and shift as needed. This allows you to become flexible when change is underfoot – which it is! Be Prepared!
I am doing Zoom sessions which includes energy work. It is powerful and does shift the body, mind and heart in important ways. I am sending love and support to so many of you who are losing family members and friends during this time. My heart is with you…

If you need support, please reach out for a session and we will find time~

Hope to hear from you soon!
