Business Items

1. Group welcomed Larry Assenheimer and his 2020 White GT Convertible to the group.
2. Chaplain Updates – Linda reports that Dion Munoz is home and doing better. Jim Ott also on the mend.
3. Board vacancies – Kevin Horton has informed the board he will not return as President effective 2023. Karen Buckhout has accepted the board created position of Membership Chair.
4. Surprise Ford updates – Andy and Cruise Director Gary Foster announce WWMandF sponsored Sunday March 19th, 2023 “Detroit Muscle Car Show”. Gary will be the Director of the Show and will put together a committee to plan and run the show. Gary explains the show requires a lot of planning including but not exclusively – vendors, flyers, logos for the show and tshirts. Your participation is needed – watch for an email for volunteers from Gary.

Sanderson Ford was approached about hosting a show but declined.

5. Group reviews Events Calendar and provides updates. Gary will post details about Black Rock Coffee meetups and coordinating our cruise to Wickenburg Sunday Dec 4th 9-1 for the Toyz 4 Tots event. An unwrapped toy is the registration fee and raffles run every 15 minutes.
6. Other scheduled events
 - a. Club get together is scheduled for Sunday November 20th at PF Changs. Check facebook and contact Shelley if you are attending.
 - b. Christmas party updates – Kevin contributed a Mustang Pint Gift Set and Carol Munoz made 6 Wild West Mustang pillows for the raffle. Jim Dew will provide a couple of buckets full of Sergio's automotive cleaning and polishing supplies. Party is Saturday, Dec 10th at Mimi's Café near Arrowhead and includes a White Elephant gift exchange. There are 5 seats left for the party.

- c. Christmas Party Charity Activity – Military Assistance Mission (MAM) family. Karen reports our family has a 12 year Air Force Veteran father and 2 young children. Currently we have a $100 gift card for the family; Karen is suggesting a gift card for the mother. Donations can be sent or given to Karen, Shelley or Linda. Gary suggests if a drive by might be fun for the family; Karen will pursue if possible or not.
