After breakfast we enjoy a guided tour of the many wonders of this city that sprung forth from the desert. Free time in the afternoon for lunch and personal discoveries. Gather this evening for our welcome dinner and get better acquainted. Sleep like a sultan in your luxurious accommodations. B, D

Day 4— Friday Nov 5—Free Day in Dubai

Well rested and ready? Let's enjoy a day to choose your way—see the famous indoor ski run, or the Burj Khalifa—at 2,722 ft it's the world's tallest! Some may want to see the amazing Miracle Garden—at 780,000 sq ft. it the world's largest natural flower garden featuring over 50 million flowers and 250 million plants! In the afternoon, how about a visit to the gold and spice souks (markets) in the old quarter of the city? Enjoy the day on your own, or join your tour manager to explore these sights. B

Day 5—Saturday Nov 6—Dubai to Cairo

This morning we make our way to the Dubai Airport for our direct flight to Cairo. On arrival transfer to our hotel and settle in. Enjoy an afternoon orientation walk with our local host and Egyptologist. In the evening consider joining the optional evening sound and lights show at the Great Pyramids. B, In flight meals.

Day 6—Sunday Nov 7—Fly to Luxor, Temples of Karnak & Luxor, Nile Cruise Embarkation

This morning, depart Cairo by flight to Luxor, the astonishing site of the ancient city of Thebes. Take a sightseeing tour of the East Bank and visit the magnificent Temples of Karnak, dating back over 3,000 years. Walk along the avenue of the Sphinxes and marvel at the Hypostyle Hall with its 134 massive sandstone columns. Next, visit a papyrus gallery and view an extensive collection of beautiful artwork on papyrus and enjoy a demonstration on how papyrus is made. Afterward, head to Luxor Temple to admire the colossal statues of the great pharaoh Ramses II before embarking on the M/S Nile Premium (or similar) river ship for an unforgettable cruise experience. B,L,Captain's Welcome Dinner.

Day 7—Monday Nov 8— Valley of the Kings, Esna

View the magnificence of the Luxor West Bank on this morning's tour that includes the Valley of the Kings, Valley of the Queens & Temple of Hatshepsut along with Colossi of Memnon. Begin with a visit to the UNESCO listed Valley of the Kings, the necropolis of Thebes and admire the tombs of ancient Egypt's rulers. Continue to the stunning Valley of the Queens, a burial site for the wives of the Pharaohs. Next, head to the Temple of Hatshepsut, a colonnaded structure surrounded by cliffs and learn about the life of Queen Hatshepsut, Egypt's first female ruler. Conclude the tour at the Colossi of Memnon: two massive stone statues of the Pharaoh Amenhotep III. Next, stop to visit an alabaster factory. View a demonstration of grinding alabaster the old fashion way. Browse the extensive collection of alabaster pieces. This evening, enjoy dinner on board while the ship sails down the Nile towards Edfu via the Esna lock. B,L,D

Day 8—Tuesday Nov 9—Temples of Edfu & Kom Ombo

This morning, take a tour to the stunning Temple of Horus in Edfu, considered one of the best preserved of all the Egyptian temples. It was built during the Ptolemaic times and was completed over a 180-year period. The temple is dedicated to the falcon god Horus, the son of Isis and Osiris. Its extravagant design and sheer size is an indication of the country's prosperity at the time. After lunch on board, tour the imposing Greco-Roman Temple of Kom Ombo, that is dedicated to Horus, the Sky God, and Sobek, the Crocodile God. B,L,D

Day 9—Wednesday Nov 10—Aswan High Dam, Abu Simbel

Today, we have a special excursion to visit a true manmade wonder—the amazing stone sculptures carved into rock at Abu Simbel. The twin temples were originally carved out of the mountainside in the 13th century BC, during the 19th dynasty reign of the Pharaoh Ramesses II. They serve as a lasting monument to the king and his queen Nefertari, and commemorate his victory at the Battle of Kadesh. The complex was relocated in its entirety in 1968 on an artificial hill made from a domed structure, high above the Aswan High Dam reservoir. The relocation of the temples was necessary or they would have been submerged during the creation of Lake Nasser, the massive artificial water reservoir formed after the building of the Aswan High Dam on the Nile River. B,L,D

DAY 10– Thursday Nov 11—Aswan High Dam, Disembarkation, Return flight to Cairo

This morning visit the spectacular Aswan High Dam, an engineering miracle when originally constructed in the 1960s. The dam brought an end to the Nile's devastating floods. Continue to Philae Temple dedicated to the goddess Isis and marvel at the temple's beautiful island location. Conclude the tour with a visit to a granite quarry holding the largest known unfinished ancient obelisk. Later, disembark our cruise ship, transfer to the airport for our flight to Cairo. Settle in and enjoy a relaxing evening. B

DAY 11– Friday Nov 12—The Pyramids of Giza & The Sphinx, Egyptian Museum

Awaken in this city of ancient wonders. Begin your discovery of the Pyramids of Giza, built during the 3rd and 4th dynasties of the Old Kingdom. Enjoy an up-close view of the Great Pyramid, built for the Pharaoh Khufu, the oldest surviving structure, named one of the “seven ancient wonders of the world.” After seeing the Pyramids of Khafre and Menkaure, head to the magnificent Sphinx that guards the Giza plateau, amazingly carved out of one huge piece of limestone. This afternoon tour the Egyptian Museum, a neoclassical building located on Tahrir Square. The museum houses the world's largest collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts with more than 120,000 items on display. Continue to the famous Khan el Khalili Bazaar where you will find copper, brass-ware, leather, perfumes and antiques. B

DAY 12 - Saturday Nov 13—Free day in Cairo—Farewell Cairo Dinner Cruise

One last full day to enjoy as you wish. More time for the Cairo Museum, shopping in the old markets? The choice is yours! In the evening we gather together to enjoy a festive sunset dinner cruise in Cairo. After our cruise we transfer to the airport for a late evening flight departure back home, arriving home on Nov14.

Meals: B, Farewell Dinner Cruise
