

ASH WEDNESDAY

“For dust you are, and to dust you shall return.”

Gen 3:19

Today, hold a small amount of dust, soil, or even just open your empty hands.

Remember:
You are dust.
Formed, not random.
Held, not forgotten.

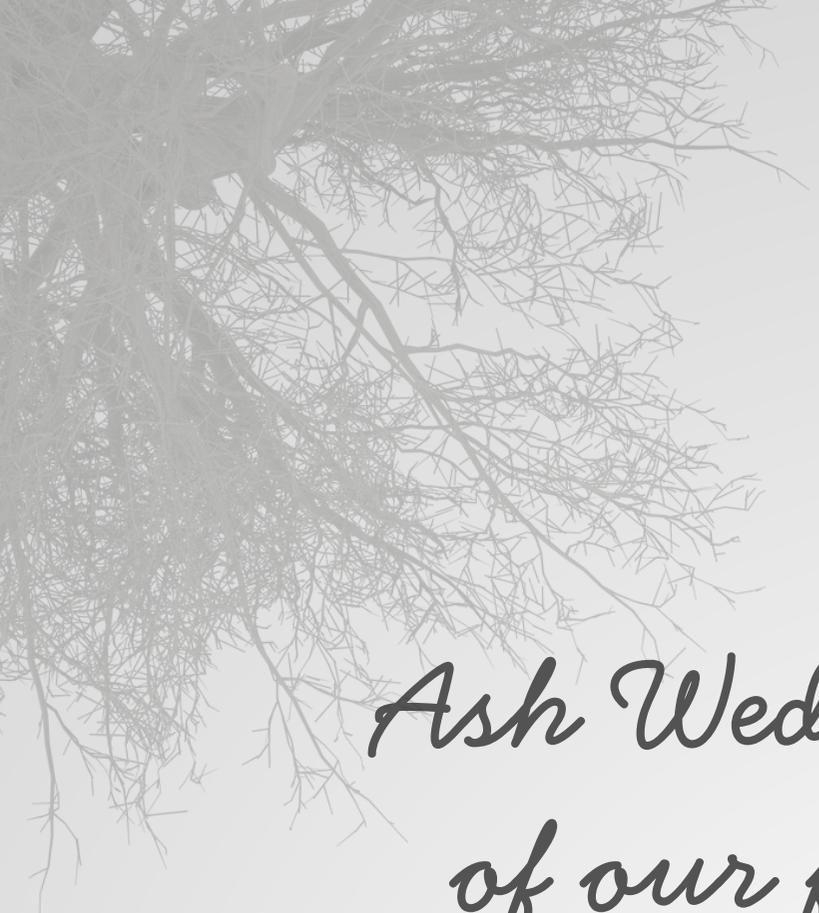

*In Genesis, God bends
down and forms humanity
from the dust of the ground
— and breathes life into it.*

Dust becomes beloved.

*Dust becomes image-
bearer.*

Dust becomes alive with divine breath

Ash Wednesday reminds us
of our fragility — but it also reminds us of God's nearness.

The same God who formed
dust still reshapes hearts.
Still restores what feels dry.
Still brings beauty from what seems insignificant.

Remember you are dust-

But it's amazing what God can do with dust.
