HISTORY OF THE OBLINGER–OPLINGER–UPLINGER FAMILY

INTRODUCTION

In 1914 the first reunion of this family was held at Edgemont Park in Lehigh Township, Northampton County, Pa. This was attended by about four hundred members of the family and friends; chiefly from Northampton and adjacent counties. A group picture of this reunion is extant.

Mr. Reuben R. Oplinger was elected the first president of the family association; and Elwood E. Oplinger and William H. Rinckenbach were elected historians. Later, Mr. John D. Watkins became an additional historian and collected much information prior to his death in 1956. Progress in accumulating historical data was relatively slow until about 1935, when legalistic methods were adopted. The wide dispersal and loss of contact with some branches of the family, as well as changes in the spelling of the name and the lack of interest in some branches, had made completion of the task almost impossible. Since then progress has been relatively rapid, lost branches were discovered in western Pennsylvania and the Midwest. Considerable assistance has been received from individuals representing geographically remote branches of the family.

Over the years interest has increased to such an extent that there are now four annual reunions in Northampton, Luzerne and Jefferson Counties, Pennsylvania and at Wadsworth, Ohio. Elwood E. Oplinger has served as president of the parent reunion for thirty three years. Under his leadership, the four reunion organizations in 1961 and 1963 cooperated to place memorial Stones in the graveyards adjacent to the Klein Brethren Meeting House near Harleysville, Montgomery County, Pa. and the Indianland Church (St. Paul's) at Cherryville, Northampton County, Pa. These mark the resting places of and honor the progenitor, Claus Oblinger his son Nicholas and grandsons Isaac, Samuel and Nicholas.

With the accomplishment of these projects, it seems appropriate that there be added another to mark the fiftieth anniversary of the first family reunion the appearance of this genealogical history of the family.

At the present time, despite the large amount of work that has been done, it is not practicable to prepare a really complete family history. A biography of each listed member of the family also would be impracticable because of the unavailability of many of these and the volume of the final product.

There therefore has been prepared a more compact history.

This has been accomplished by individual consideration with appropriate references, of only the members of the first five generations. Appended tables show the known descendants of each of the members of the fifth generation. In general, there are included only the children or females of each generation. These data are believed to be sufficient to satisfy the interests of most readers and still be of value to genealogists. There is thus made available to family members the early and more difficultly procurable information. as well as the data for trac a line of descent.

Many individuals have participated in the preparation of this history by furnishing information concerning their immediate families. Such cooperation must be noted gratefully if not individually. In addition, others have accumulated and contributed large amounts of information concerning whole branches of the family, and merit special recognition. Outstanding among those to whom special thanks are due are the following:

John D. Watkins
Mrs. Wm. A. Lennemann
Richard E. Oblinger
Delbert L. Uplinger
Mrs. Phyllis Winkelman, Nebraska State Historical Society

Mrs. Roy Uplinger
Elwood E. Oplinger
Charles. Glenn Uplinger
Mrs. John R. Hoffman

This is not the tale of a family marked by numerous outstanding citizens or by adventurers. Rather, it is the story of a rural family which, through the generations, has made routine contributions to the maintenance of the community and, by producing more than it consumed, has added to the accumulation of wealth that marks the progress of civilization. Occupying language-islands in the west-bound steam of settlement, many of the first four generations did not acquire English, and the family as a whole is so distinctively Pennsylvania German as to be representative of this group of Americans which has contributed so much to the independence and progress of our country.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Claus (Nicholas) Oblinger arrived at Philadelphia in 1724, accompanied by his wife, two sons and three daughters. He died in 1730. Records show the later arrivals at Philadelphia of two other immigrants of the same name. On Nov. 10, 1756 one Hans Opplinger arrived ^{af1} on the "Chance". On Sept. 8, 1792 there arrived ^{af2} on the "Columbia" one John Oblinger, his wife Barbara and their children Christian, Barbara, John, Carl and Jacob. except that Barbara Oblinger was a communicant of the First Reformed Church in Philadelphia in 1797, no data have been found concerning the descendants of Hans Opplinger or John Oblinger. This history therefore is confined to Claus Oblinger and his descendants.

The two sons of Claus Oblinger migrated to Northampton and Lancaster Counties, Pa. From thence branches of the family have settled in western Pennsylvania and various States of the Midwest, and individuals have moved as far west as the Pacific coast.

FIRST GENERATION

I. Claus Oblinger

The tombstone of Anna, youngest child of Claus (Nicholas) Oblinger, bears an inscription which states that she was born in 1724 in Schwarzena, Germany. This was Schwarzenau in the County of Wittgenstein, Hasse, about twenty miles northwest of Marburg. The inscription on this tombstone was the key that unlocked the early history of the Oblinger family.

Schwarzenau was merely a millsite until about 1700, when the Graf Von Wittgenstein invited Protestants to find refuge there. In a few years it grew to a village of about sixty houses and became a focal point for those of the Dunkard (German Baptist) faith. The village tax records for 1713 do not include the name of Claus Oblinger; but those for 1718 indicate that he may have been there. The wine tax list for 1719 includes the name of Nicolaus Oberleger. The tax records for 1722 show that he was a "Fourier", probably a collector of the wine tax.

From whence Claus Oblinger came to Schwarzenau has not been proved, but it is highly probable that he came from the small city of Ohringen in Baden, east northeast of Heilbron, or its vicinity. Johan Michael Lindenmuth (b.1737) in his biography states that his grandfather Johan Wolfe of Ohringen married one Anna Maria Oeblinger, who evidently was born about 1690. She may well have been a sister of Claus Oblinger. It is also probable that his forebears came from the County of Uberlingen and that the name Oblinger is a variant of Uberlinger. Kreis Uberlingen is a part of southwestern Baden bordering on the Uberlinger Sea, an arm or bay of the Bodensee (Lake of Constance).

The coat of arms of the Uberlinger family had been registered ^{af3} at Konstanz (Constance) in 1547. it's description is:

The fess nebule is divided completely by a beval to the right and is red and blue with a white background. The crest is the white clad torso of a white greyhound which has a flowing cowl. This, divided by a beval to the left, has an indented fess nebule' of red over blue. Mantle of white.¹

In 1547 the defeat of the Protestants at Muhlberg in Prussian Saxony resulted in the city of Konstanz being isolated as a Protestant stronghold. Meersburg, in Kreis Uberlingen, in 1527 had become the residence of the Catholic bishop of Konstanz, and that region became predominantly Catholic. Families dissenting from that faith probably had to recant or flee; and it is probable that members of the Uberlinger family left their homeland and found refuge in Protestant portions of Germany. It was during the next 150 years that the name probably was transformed from Uberlinger to Oberlinger and later to Oblinger a not uncommon result of the illiteracy of those times. Actually, the 1719 tax list for Schwarzenau gives the name as Claus Oberleger, and it is possible that the transition to Oblinger occurred when the progenitor and his family came to Pennsylvania.

In 1719 twenty families of Dunkards led by Peter Becker, who had been a minister at Schwarzenau, came to Pennsylvania ^{¶4}. He is buried a few feet from Claus Oblinger. Evidently Claus Oblinger emigrated between 1724 and 1727, since his daughter Anna was born in Schwarzenau in 1724 and in 1727 the name Nichols Oblinger is on a petition ^{¶5} for the opening of the Morris Road. It now appears very certain that he arrived on the unnamed ship which came to Philadelphia on Sunday, Oct. 1, 1724 with the printer Christopher Sauer on board. ^{¶6} A letter from Sauer dated Dec. 1, 1724 describes the voyage and refers to the fellow passengers from Schwarzenau. Evidently the voyage required ten weeks, including three weeks in England and was an unusually easy one although not free from hardship and misadventure.

It is probable that after its arrival the Oblinger family spent some time at Germantown, where Peter Becker was minister Of the Dunkard congregation. Evidently Claus Oblinger was moderately prosperous, like many of the earliest Pennsylvania German settlers who migrated for religious reasons. In 1729 he purchased ^{¶7}182 acres Of land in what are now Lower Salford and Franconia Twps., Montgomery County, Pa.

In 1730 he was stricken with a mortal illness and on August 3rd made a will which was probated ^{¶8} on Oct. 3, 1730. From general considerations it is concluded that he then was about forty-five years of age. He was buried on his farm at a place that later became the graveyard alongside the Klein Brethren Meeting House ^{¶9} near Harleysville. It was not until 1962 that there was found a small field stone bearing the roughly chiseled and almost obliterated initials "C O". In 1963 a granite memorial to Claus Oblinger and his family was placed alongside the original headstone.

The description of the coat of arms of the Uberlinger family is incorrect. there are only two colors in the crest. These color's are Bavarian blue and Argent, or White. For whatever reason the original author used the colors red, blue and white cannot be determined.

The above information concerning the presence of only two colors (blue and white) has been verified by messers. Gordon W. J. Oplinger, Jr..(Vice Pres.) in 1982 and Donald S. Oplinger (President) in 1984 who saw and photographed the crest while visiting the Rosegarden Museum in Konstanz (Constance) on the Bodensee (Lake Constance). And in the Meersberg Castle located near the town of Uberlingen in southwest Baden, Germany.

The will of Claus Oblinger is in rather garbled German and is signed with a mark. A translation of the will is:

I, the hereunder written, acknowledge before witnesses on the here under written date hereof, that this is my last will and testament, that after my departure or decease all and singular my goods that may be found with the land and cattle, to wit; All what is there shall thus be ordered and parted. Firstly, all debts shall be paid, and then of the residue, my wife shall have the third part, or one third of all that is left and then remainder thereof shall be parted among my five children that are yet in being, in this manner and form that one shall have so much as the other or divide the same equally, but not before my youngest child is fifteen years old, which is now six years old. Further, it is my will, counsel and desire that Henry Funk, Christian Allebach and Conrad Reiff shall be guardians or executors over my wife, children and all the goods which I left behind, and it is my prayer and desire that they shall take so much care of the same as they possibly can. And if they find it good and beneficial to sell my plantation if my wife and children cannot manage the same until the time that they should divide.

It will be noted that the names of the widow and children are not given. However, it is known ^{ref 9} that the widow's name was Elizabeth and the children were Nicholas, Christian, Catharina, Maria and Anna. The executors on Dec. 9, 1739 sold the farm to George Stump; and all the sons, daughters, heirs and legatees signed the release and grant. ^{ref 7}

From the fact that neither of his sons were appointed an executor of the will, it would appear that both of these were minors. Since his youngest child, Anna, was but Six years of age, we may picture Claus Oblinger as a man cut off in the prime of life after only six years in a new land. However, for the times in which they lived, his survivors were left in some degree of comfort and could remain under one roof.

SECOND GENERATION

2. Nicholas Oblinger

Nicholas Oblinger, elder Son ^{ref 79} of Claus Oblinger (1) evidently was born about 1712, since he apparently was a minor in 1730 and in 1734 was old enough to receive a warrant for sixty acres of land. ^{ref 111} This was in Salford Twp. and was granted to Nicholas Uplinger and Peter Sneider, but in 1735 a surveyed portion of 34-1/2 acres was patent to Nicholas Uplinger alone.

In April, 1743 Nicholas Uplinger, a resident of Philadelphia County, was naturalized at Philadelphia but took no oath. ^{ref 12} It will be noted that it was not until 1727 that newly arrived German immigrants were required to take an oath of allegiance upon arrival. Since Nicholas Oblinger did not take an oath when naturalized, it is concluded that he remained in the Dunkard faith.

Probably about 1737 he married Elizabeth, daughter of Christian Meyer (ca.1680-1751)} who mentioned this daughter and the name of her husband in his will. ¹⁴¹³ In 1745 Nicholas Oblinger purchased tracts of 101 and 53 acres in what is now Harleysville, Pa.; but on Apr. 3, 1751 he sold these ¹⁴¹⁷ to Adolph Pennepacker. The occasion for this sale evidently was the determination to move to less settled regions. His brother Christian had already moved to Lancaster County; and the desire to pioneer grew upon Nicholas.

Apparently no time was lost in setting forth, for there was warranted to Nicholas Uplinger 25 acres of land in Bucks County, that was surveyed ¹⁴¹⁴ on June 12, 1751. This was located at Lehigh Gap in what is now Lower Towamensing Twp., Carbon County, Pa. Twenty miles north of Bethlehem then the frontier and with no white settlement beyond Lehigh Gap except the Moravian missions of Gnadenhutten and Meniolagomeka, it was indeed a howling wilderness into which Nicholas Oblinger plunged.

We can easily picture the trek of Nicholas Oblinger, his wife, five children and probably his youngest sister Anna. The children probably rode on an ox drawn cart loaded with furniture and tools, while the father, mother and Anna trudged alongside. As far as Bethlehem there was what then was considered a good road. From there on the road to Gnadenhutten, laid out in 1746, is known historically to have been bad, which means were ruts through the hilly and swampy country.

Arriving at their new home, the family located on the Aquashicola Creek but a short distance from where this flows into the Lehigh River. Here, in the shadow of the "Teufels Kanzel", Nicholas Oblinger erected a log house and began to hew a farm from the virgin forest. According to a family tradition he erected a barn, other outbuildings and a stockade surrounding the homestead.

In 1752 Northampton County was erected from Bucks County; and in October of that year Nicholas Opplinger was appointed ¹⁴¹⁵ constable of Towamensing Twp. by the county court. This could not have been an onerous position, as there were only a few isolated settlers and the Moravian missions on the north side of the Blue Mountain. Most of the Lenni Lenapi (Delaware) Indians had left the region since the walking Purchase of 1737; and those remaining were at peace with the white man.

Several years passed in peace and quiet. Then, in 1755, the tides of the French and Indian War washed upon this lonely outpost in the mountains. On Nov. 24, 1755 Indians perpetrated the Gnadenhutten massacre; and during 1756 and 1757 a reign of terror, marked by killings, scalping and abductions, held sway along the Blue Mountain. Throughout this period Nicholas Oblinger, so far as we know, lived undisturbed at Lehigh Gap. This can be attributed in part to the stockade and in part to the fact that the settler, according to family legend, induced a friendly old Indian to live with the family. Another deterrent to attack was the presence, half a mile away, of a block house erected by the settlers in 1755 and called Fort Lehigh. Benjamin Franklin was commissioned a colonel of militia and assigned the task of erecting a fort (Fort Allen) at the site of the destroyed Gnadenhutten. As related in his Autobiography, at the end of a day's march in January, 1756 during which from Bethlehem "there was no habitations on the road to shelter us, we arrived near night at the house of a German where, in his barn, we all huddled together." In his personal letter to Governor Morris on Jan. 25, 1756 and report ¹⁴¹⁶ of the same date, Franklin said:

"We reached, however, that night to Uplinger's where we got into good Quarters.

The next day we marched cautiously through the Gap of the Mountain, a very dangerous pass, and to Uplinger's, but 21 miles from Bethlehem, the roads being bad and the Wagons moving slowly".

During the subsequent construction of Fort Allen at what now is Weissport, settlers were employed by the Province to haul supplies to the fort, and it is recorded ^{ref 16} that on Feb. 20, 1756 Nicholas Oblinger presented a bill for nine days work and three wagons in connection with such haulage. For the time for three trips, it appears probable that he had a wagon and oxen.

It will be noted that Franklin referred to the home of Nicholas Oblinger as a house. Later James Young made an inspection of the frontier forts, and his Journal ^{ref 17} under June 26, 1756 has the entry:

"At 6 PM came to Leahy Gap where I found a Sergeant and 8 men Stationed at a farm house with a small staccade round it".

From these facts it appears that the home of Nicholas Oblinger was just that not an inn. In the novel "The Wild Rose of Bethlehem". by "Little Hunahback" ^{ref 18}, "Oplinger" in 1754 is pictured as the keeper of an inn at Lehigh Gap complete with kitchen, barroom etc. However, consideration of the few travelers through Lehigh Gap in those days it would indicate a lack of need for an inn. Occasional passersby's were welcome to stay at any home and pay for their shelter with news and tales of the regions from whence they came.

After the end of the French and Indian War, more settlers made homes in Towamensing Twp. and apparently Nicholas Oblinger became infected with the current fever of land speculation. On July 10, 1761 he purchased ^{ref 19} tracts of 270 and 63 acres on the Aquashicola Creek for 200 pounds. For some unknown reason, on Nov. 21, 1761 Nicholas Oblinger and wife Elizabeth gave a mortgage ^{ref 20} on their lands to secure a debt of 900 pounds to one Paul Balliet. He signed his name, while his wife signed with a mark. No explanation has been found for such a large debt on the part of a small farmer in a remote section of the country; and it is surmised that he may have borrowed the money to buy stock in a land company.

The Towamensing Twp. tax ^{ref 21} list for 1762 shows 33 families and two single men. Nich's Oblinger "at the gap" was listed.

In 1763 Pontiac's War raged, many settlers had to flee from their homes and a number of whites in Northampton County were massacred. Among the privates in the frontier rangers was Samuel, aged 21, son of Nicholas Oblinger (2). Curiously enough, a massacre took place at Nicholas Oblinger's place during these disturbances; but it was a massacre of Indians by white men. In August, 1763 Moravian Indian named Zachary, his wife and child and a Moravian Indian woman named Zappora were en route from Bethlehem to their mountain village of Wechquetank. They stopped overnight at Lehigh Gap presumably at Nicholas Oblinger's home, where Capt. Wetterholt and a company of Soldiers were staying. The Indians slept in the hayloft of the barn, but in the middle of the night the soldiers attacked them. Zappora was thrown to the threshing floor and killed. Zachary and his family escaped outdoors, but were caught and killed despite the fact that the mother begged on her knees for their lives. This probably was one of the causes of the subsequent massacres by Indians in nearby townships later in the year. Soldiers were still quartered at Nicholas Oblinger's place on Oct. 3, 1763, Just prior to the nearby massacres. ^{ref 21a}

The Towamensing Twp. tax list for 1767 lists only 25 families, including that of Nicholas Oblinger. Also listed, as single men, were his sons Isaac and Samuel. The name of Nicholas Oblinger is followed by "oopolliad", which may mean "or Balliet". the decrease in population is attributed to the fleeing of settlers.

The unrest of the Indian wars may have been the downfall of Nicholas Oblinger, for on Mar. 25, 1768 the sheriff of Northampton County deeded ^{ref22} the lands of Nicholas Oblinger to Paul Balliet for a debt judgment of 900 pounds. After this, little record can be found of Nicholas Oblinger. He may have become a squatter on unpatented land or found a home with of his children. Later he evidently moved to adjacent Lehigh Twp., where his sons settled between 1772 and 1776. In 1775 he signed "nihlas Oblinger" on a note for 18 shillings and 4 pence due Michel Bossert of Lehigh Twp., and on July 22, 1776 he witnessed as "nichlaus oblinger" a note signed by his son Isaac. The original notes are still in the possession of the family. Whether it was he or his son Nicholas (10) who on Aug. 18, 1777 took the oath of allegiance to Pennsylvania cannot be determined.

No record has been found of the dates of death of Nicholas Oblinger and his wife Elizabeth. It is probable that they died in Lehigh Twp. and were buried at the Indianland (St. Paul's) Church, Cherryville. No tombstones mark their graves, and no record of an estate of either has been found. It is a foregone conclusion that they had to endure the hardships of indigent age.

Nicholas and Elizabeth Oblinger had the three sons and two daughters shown on the Genealogy Charts. All probably were born before the migration to Lehigh Gap.

In 1961 the family association placed in the Indianland graveyard a granite memorial to Nicholas Oblinger, his wife Elizabeth and their sons Isaac, Samuel and Nicholas. This is beside the tombstone of the son Isaac (8).

3. Christian Oblinger

Christian, son ^{ref29} of Claus Oblinger (1), probably was born about 1714 and therefore before the father sojourned in Schwarzenau.

There is no record of the activities of Christian Oblinger in Salford Twp. after the death of his father. On Jan. 30, 1747/8 he bought ^{ref24} 180 acres of land in Warwick Twp, Lancaster County, Pa. and evidently migrated there at that time. In 1759 he was a free holder and was taxed on 100 acres in Warwick Twp. ^{ref25} it was not until 1761 that Christian Uplinger of Warwick Twp. was naturalized, ^{ref26} but the record does not show whether he took an oath. In 1765 his land was resurveyed and patented ^{ref27} to him. He was taxed in Warwick Twp. in 1771, 1772, 1773, 1779 and 1782, the name being given as Oblinger and Oblenger. ^{ref28}

Christian Oblinger was past the age for military service during the Revolutionary War; and no record of his taking an oath of allegiance to Pennsylvania has been found. As his son John (15) served, religious restraints probably prevented his taking the oath.

Christian Oblinger was not listed as the head of a family in Warwick Twp. by the Census of 1790. His son, John was so listed, ^{ref29} and there are shown two males over evidently by this time Christian Oblinger had bowed to the infirmities of age and turned over his home and affairs to his son John.

Probably about 1750 Christian Oblinger had married Barbara ??, who evidently was born about 1730. They had the son and three daughters shown by Table I.

Christian Oblinger made a will dated Dec. 8, 1798 that was entered for probate ^{ref.30} on Dec. 27, 1798. It is in German and signed with a mark. It mentions his wife and four children. The name of his wife is not given; but mention is made of his only son John, a daughter Anna Maria married to Peter Feather, an eldest daughter Susanna married to George Feather, and a daughter Barbara married to Nicholas Zeller.

The widow of Christian Oblinger survived him for several years. On Nov. 11, 1801 the court ordered ^{ref.31} a payment of 400 pounds to her attorney. She died intestate and letters of administration for the estate of Barbara Oblinger were granted in 1803. A search of the graveyards in Warwick Twp. has not revealed the graves of Christian and Barbara Oblinger; nor does a Lancaster County Historical Society index of graves in the County include them.

The details of the will of Christian Oblinger indicate that he was an unusually prosperous farmer for his time.

4. Catharina Oblinger Heffelfinger

Catharina, daughter of Claus and Elizabeth Oblinger, was probably born about 1716 and by 1739 had married Heinrich Heffelfinger. He was a farmer in Vincent Twp., Chester County, Pa. who died in 1791. He left a will, ^{ref.32} written in English and Signed with a mark. This mentions his wife Catharina and children John (eldest son), Jacob, Barbara Du Bois, Catharine Andrews, Elizabeth Lanberry, Hannah and the youngest daughter Anna.

Catharina Oblinger Heffelfinger made a will dated Apr. 7, 1796 and probated ^{ref.33} on June 28, 1798. Also in English and signed with a mark, it mentions her daughter Anna, married to Jacob Shoe, and makes a bequest to their son Henry Shoe.

John, Son of Heinrich and Catharina Heffelfinger, evidently was the John Heffelfinger of West Vincent Twp., Chester County who died in 1833. Jacob Heffelfinger of Vincent Twp. died in 1818, leaving a will ^{ref.34} which mentions a wife Elizabeth and a son John.

The graves of Heinrich and Catharina Heffelfinger have not been found.

5. Maria Oblinger Krupp

Maria, daughter ^{ref.35} of Claus and Elizabeth Oblinger, probably was born about 1720 and by 1739 had married ^{ref.37} Jacob Krupp. He was a farmer of Lower Salford Twp., Montgomery County who had arrived at Philadelphia on the "Allen" on Sept. 15, 1729. Jacob Krupp died leaving a will which was probated ^{ref.35} on Jan. 13, 1786. His wife died in 1802. Their children were:

Jacob	1743-1829; m. Anna Johnson, 2/3/1747-12/31/1826
Abraham
Isaac
Andrew	-12/31/1817; m. Elizabeth Swartz, -10/20/1843,
Samuel	1799
Cathrina
Maria
Susanna

Elizabeth

Sarah

Information about Some of the descendants of these are available, ^{ref 8} The graves of Jacob and Maria Krupp have not been located.

6. Anna Oblinger Kuntz

Anna, youngest daughter ^{ref 20} of Claus and Elizabeth Oblinger, was born in Schwarzanau in 1724 and was only six years old when her father died.

Evidently in 1751 she accompanied her brother Nicholas (2) when he moved to Lehigh Gap or joined him there at a later date. A spinster until at least 56 years of age, She married Bernhard Kuntz (12/3/1723 - 7/14/1807) of Lehigh Twp. some time after the death of his first wife, Anna Catharina Eberhard (1723-1780). He and his two wives are buried at the Indianland (St. Paul's) Church near Cherryville. The inscription on the tombstone of Anna Kuntz is:

"Hier liegt in der Hoffnung einer seeligen Auffertchung die verstorbene Anna Kuntzin. Sie war eine gebohrene Oblinerin die Bernhard Kuntz seine zweite Ehefrau. Sie war gebohren zu schwarzena in Deutschland. Sie war gebohren in Jahr unsers Herrn 1724 und ist gestonben den 28 ten November 1804 un ihr gantzes Alter war 80 Jahr".

It is through the information on this tombstone that we learn the point of origin of the family in Germany and approximate the date of its arrival in Pennsylvania.

Bernhard and Anna Oblinger Kuntz, of course, had no children. We can picture Anna Oblinger Kuntz as something unusual in her day and place a spinster spending most of her life caring for nephews and nieces and late in life becoming the helpmate of a widower with a large family.

THIRD GENERATION

7. Elizabeth Oblinger Schneider

The records ^{ref 35} of the Tohickon Union Church in Bedminster Twp., Bucks County show that on Nov. 7, 1755 an Elizabeth Oblinger was married to Nicholas Schneider. As Christian Oblinger (3) had no daughter named Elizabeth, she must have been the daughter of Nicholas Oblinger (2) and evidently was born about 1737.

The records of the Zion Reformed Church of Allentown, Pa. show that there was baptized Johan Peter Schneider, born on Oct. 26, 1764, a son of Nicholas Schneider and wife Elizabeth. The sponsors were Juliana Schneider and Caterina Oblingerin. Evidently the latter was a sister of the mother and an aunt of the child.

In 1752 a Nichlas Schneider was a resident ^{ref 37} of Lehigh Twp., adjacent to the Towamensing Twp., Northampton County in which Nicholas Oblinger (2) lived. In 1757 two Nicholas Schneiders were listed ^{ref 38} as residents of Lehigh Twp., as was the case ^{ref 21} in 1762. A Nicholas Shnyder was still resident there ^{ref 29} in 1790.

Nothing further has been learned concerning Elizabeth Oblinger Schneider, her husband or their family.

8. Isaac Oblinger

Family legend took the "three brothers" pattern that three brothers named Nicholas, Samuel and Isaac came to America. Actually, they were the sons of Nicholas Oblinger (2) and were born in America.

No record has been found of the birth of Isaac Oblinger, but his tombstone shows that he was born in 1741. He therefore must have been born in Lower Salford Twp., Montgomery County and at the age of ten years accompanied his father to Lehigh Gap.

The first record of Isaac Oblinger is in 1767, when he and his brother Samuel (9) were listed ^{ref21} as single residents of Towamensing Twp. and their father as a landholder. In 1772 he was not listed, ^{ref39} but in 1773 Isaac Oblinger was listed as a married man a resident in Lehigh Twp., adjacent to Towamensing Twp. He remained a resident of Lehigh Twp. for the rest of his life, as shown by numerous tax lists and the census returns for 1790, 1800 and 1810.

During the Revolutionary War Isaac Oblinger served as a private in the Northampton County militia between 1778 and 1783. ^{ref41} On Aug. 30, 1777 he and his brother Samuel took oath of allegiance to the State of Pennsylvania. ^{ref42}

In 1785 Isaac Oblinger received a warrant ^{ref43} for 60 acres of land in Northampton County. This was located near Danielsville, Lehigh Twp., and on it he erected a two-story log house that was still standing in 1950 but has since collapsed.

As shown by the tax lists for 1773 and 1776, by 1773 Isaac Oblinger had married, but his brothers were still single. The maiden name of his wife has not been discovered, but it is known that her first name was Susanna. They had the three sons and two daughters as shown by Table I.

Miscellaneous papers in the possession of the family historians permit some conclusions as to the career and personality of Isaac Oblinger. Evidently he did not marry until past thirty years of age and did not acquire land until forty-four years of age. At a time when early marriages were the rule and land was relatively cheap, these facts would indicate a life of hardship. The papers referred to include notes, legal notices etc.

One shows that in 1770 his uncle Christian (3) paid part of a note which Isaac had given in 1767. Others show the borrowing of small sums up to 1800. Other papers indicate that Isaac was of a quarrelsome nature, as he had legal bickerings with his brother Nicholas, the widow or his brother Samuel and various neighbors. Living in a locality where subsistence farming was the general pattern and cash was hard to come by, it is evident that the hardships of making a living made Isaac Oblinger bellicose in money matters. All of the papers referred to are in German and signed by Isaac with a mark. In his day English was practically unknown in the region where he lived and there were no schools where the "three R s" could be learned.

Isaac Oblinger died in 1813 and was buried at the Indianland (St. Paul's) Church near Cherryville. A brown sandstone tombstone marks his grave. The inscription, in German, states that he was born in 1741 and died in 1813. This has been reset, recut and marked to indicate that he took part in the Revolutionary War.

Isaac Oblinger left a will ^{ref44} made on Oct. 3, 1813 and probated on May 5, 1814. It mentions his sons John and Daniel and appoints his wife Susanna as executor. The existence of other children is implied, but they are not identified. The will is in English and signed with a mark.

Just when his widow Susanne died is not known, but it probably was about 1831. One of the papers referred to above is a document given on Dec. 29, 1830 to her son Johannes(17). In English and signed with a mark, it recites that she was the widow and heir of Isaac Oblinger, had made an agreement in 1815 or 1816 whereby the son John was to have possession and use of the property in exchange for her maintenance for the rest of her life, and that she had been entirely satisfied with the treatment received.

No tombstone for Susanna Oblinger has been found; but it is almost certain that she was buried near her husband. The Indianland records were lost many years ago, and courthouse records throw no light on her identity or dates of birth and death.

9. Samuel Oblinger

The first record ^{¶45} of Samuel, son of Nicholas Oblinger (2), was in 1763 when he was a Private in Capt. John Wetherholt's company of rangers on the frontier during Pontiac's War. The record shows that at that time he was 21 years of age, had been born in Pennsylvania, was five feet and four inches tall and had brown hair and brown eyes. He therefore was born in 1742. In 1767 Samuel Oblinger was listed ^{¶21} as a single resident of Towamensing Twp., Northampton County; and he was still single when taxed ^{¶340} in 1772 and 1773 in adjacent Lehigh Twp. In 1775 he was a married resident of Lehigh Twp.

Samuel Oblinger took an active part in the Revolution. He is listed ^{¶46} as a private of the Continental Line, a ranger on the frontier, ^{¶47} and a private in the County militia. ^{¶48} On Aug. 30, 1777 he took oath of allegiance ^{¶23} to the State of Pennsylvania. Among the papers still in existence is a Revolutionary War pass, dated Nov. , 1777, to Samuel Uplinger stating that he had served two months and could go from the camp at Whitmarsh to Towamensing Twp.

In 1779 Samuel Oplinger was taxed on 50 acres in Lehigh Twp., and in 1785 he was taxed again. However, he had died in 1784 and his widow Elizabeth was appointed administratrix of his estate. ^{¶49} She was taxed there in later years as Widow Oblinger and was listed as the head of a of a family in the census returns for 1790 and 1800 .

The exact date of the death of Samuel Oblinger is not known. His grave and that of his wife have not been found, but it is almost certain that they were buried at the Indianland Church near Cherryville. His wife was buried ^{¶50} on Fan. 19, 1829, aged 79 years,10 months and 14 days. Her maiden name has not been discovered. As disclosed by deeds, Samuel and Anna Elizabeth Oblinger had the two sons and four daughters shown by Table I.

Like his brother Isaac (8), Samuel Oblinger did not marry until Past thirty years of age and was only a small landholder. His war record indicates that he was of an adventurous disposition, but no family legends or records throw any light on his personality. The cause of his death, when aged only forty two is unknown.

10. Nicholas Oblinger

This Nicholas Oblinger evidently was the third Son of Nicholas Oblinger (2) and wife Elizabeth Meyer. It might be expected that he would be the eldest son, since he was named for his father and grandfather, but circumstantial evidence is against this. He is first mentioned in tax lists later than his brothers, married later than either of them and outlived both,

The first mention of Nicholas Oblinger (10) is in 1776, when he is listed ^{ref51} as a single resident of Lehigh Twp., Northampton County. He evidently married about 1777, as he had a daughter Maria born in 1778. It is said that his wife was Salome Dreisbach. If So, she must have been a daughter or Adam Dreisbach (1722-1803). Nicholas Oblinger lived there in 1785, 1786 and 1788 ^{ref52} and was listed as the head of a family in 1790 and 1800. He probably was a tenant farmer, since no record has been found of his owning land.

During the Revolutionary War Nicholas Oblinger (10) took an active part as a private. He is listed ^{ref66} as a soldier of the Continental Line, a ranger on the frontier ^{ref47} and a militiaman. ^{ref54} In 1776 he was a private in the Flying Camp of 10,000 men. ^{ref23} On Aug. 18, 1777 either he or his father took oath of allegiance ^{ref23} to the State of Pennsylvania. His militia service in 1778, 1781, 1782 and 1783 also has been recorded. ^{ref56} Part or his service as a ranger on the frontier ^{ref57} in 1782 was as a substitute for another man.

Evidently life after the war was not too easy for Nicholas Oblinger (10). Papers in the possession of the family shows that he could not write and gave notes for small sums of money. In 1797 his brother Isaac (8) received a Judgment for less than two pounds against him and action was taken to levy on his goods for this.

Nicholas Oblinger (10) died in 1814, it being recorded that on May 14, 1814 Nicolaus Oblinger was buried at the Indianland Church. No tombstone marks his grave. It is not known when his wife died or where she was buried. He left no will or estate.

The papers referred to previously show that in 1797 Nicholas Oblinger (10) had a daughter Maria, wife of Conrad Bussard (Bossert). Census records indicate that he had sons and a daughter. No records of their births have been found; and the sons shown on the Genealogy Charts are all that can be identified on the basis that they were not offspring of Isaac Oblinger (8) or Samuel Oblinger (9).

11. Catharina Oblinger

According to the records of the Zion Reformed Church at Allentown, Pa., a Catarina Oblingerin was one of the sponsors at the baptism of Johann Peter Schneider, born on Oct. 26, 1764, son of Nicholas Schneider and wife Elizabeth. The mother of the child was Elizabeth Oblinger (7), it is evident that the sponsor was her unmarried sister, probably born about 1745.

Nothing further has been learned of Catharina Oblinger (11).

12. Susanna Oblinger Feder

The will ^{ref30} of Christian Oblinger(5) states that his eldest daughter was married to George Feather. Court proceedings ^{ref39} show that the name was Susanna. George and Susanna Oblinger Feder may have been the parents of the granddaughter Elizabeth Feder mentioned in the will of Christian Oblinger (3). George Feder was a captain of the company of Revolutionary War troops in which his brother-in-law John Oblinger (15) was a lieutenant.

13. Anna Maria Oblinger Feder

The will ^{ref30} of Christian Oblinger (3) mentions a daughter Maria married to Peter Feather and that they had a son. Records show that on June 7, 1781 Rev. John Waldschmidt married Anna Maria, daughter of Christian Oblinger, and Peter Feder, son of Peter Feder.

14.. Barbara Oblinger Zeller

In his will ^{ref 30} Christian Oblinger (3) mentions a daughter Barbara, married to Nicholas Zeller. Nothing further has been learned of her.

15. John Oblinger

In his will ^{ref 30} Christian Oblinger (3) mentions an only son John and made him a special bequest of 1000 pounds as well as a share in the residuary estate.

In his pension application of Sent. 15, 1832 (National Archives File No. W2235 Rev.(Penna.); Ohio 19726, Book E, Vol. 8, p. 19) John Oblinger stated that he was born within nine miles of Lancaster. Pa. Evidently this was in Warwick Twp. Although his father's will is in German, it refers to his only son as John instead of Johannes, as he undoubtedly had been baptized. The pension application is signed "John Oblinger", and his tombstone bears this name and gives the date of his birth as June 12, 1756.

Early in the fall of 1776 John Oblinger enlisted in the Revolutionary Army for three years and was commissioned a lieutenant in the company of his brother-in-law George Feder in Col. Elden's regiment. He took part in the march across New Jersey, the retreat back to the Delaware and the battles of Trenton and Princeton. Later, in the action at Chestnut Hill, Pa., he was wounded slightly and carried from the field. He was in the camp at Valley Forge during the winter of 1777-1778, where he became so ill that he was invalided. With the approach of spring his father came to take him home. Because of continued illness, his leave of absence was extended to the end of his enlistment. For this service he received a pension ^{ref 63} which records show to have been $63.33 per year. In 1782 and 1783 he was a private in the Lancaster County militia, ^{ref 62} being taxed in Warwick Twp. in 1782.

This is the most extensive Revolutionary War record of any member of the family. His cousins Isaac (8), Samuel (9) and Nicholas (10) did not live long enough to apply for pensions and so left the records of the details of their services.

After the death of his father, John Oblinger may have become involved in land speculation as indicated by grants of land to him, for he later became insolvent. ^{ref 64} By 1807 he or some of his family had moved to Montgomery County, Ohio, where his daughter Hannah (32) was married on Dec. 9, 1807. Eventually he and all his family moved there.

John Oblinger married Eleanor ?? while living in Lancaster County, Pa. and they had the five sons and two daughters shown by Table I. The maiden name of his wife has not been learned, but she apparently was of English descent. The dates of her birth and death are unknown and her grave has not been found. On Apr. 27, 1824 he married Susanna Carroll or Carl, who was born in 1785 or 1786 according to a pension application and a reference in the Dayton, Ohio public library. By her he had; a son Joshua (38), said to have been born in 1826.

In 1841 John Oblinger was living with his son Amos (31) in Miami County, Ohio. He died at West Milton on Dec. 2, 1846 and was buried in the Highland Cemetery at that place. His grave is marked as that of a Revolutionary soldier. He had a farm about one mile southwest of where he was buried, and is said to have been an early schoolteacher in Montgomery County, Ohio.

In 1853 his widow Susanna applied for a widow's pension and gave power of attorney to her son Joshua to collect this. In 1855 she was a resident of Dayton, Ohio evidently living with the son Joshua and applied for bounty land to which she was entitled as the widow of a veteran. Nothing further has been learned of her and her grave has not been found.

In addition to the sons and daughters shown by Table I, it is probable that John and Eleanora Oblinger were the parents of a son Jacob Uplinger who is shown by Table XXXVIII.

This Jacob Uplinger had a son Joseph whose biography in the "Biographical souvenir, Illustrated" (F. A. Battery & Co.; Chicago; 1890) states that his father Jacob at the age of five years was brought from Germany by his parents, who settled in Lancaster County, Pa. Jacob was married in Virginia to Anna M., daughter of Jacob and Barbara Risler, natives of Pennsylvania. About 1850 he settled in Indiana and died there about 1836, leaving five children. His widow evidently later married ?? Sanders. She is buried at Republican City, Nebraska.

Nothing has been learned of four of their children. The son Joseph was born on July 3, 1836 near Covington, Indiana, where in 1857 he married a widow, Elizabeth J. Rickett, a daughter of Isaac Sloan. In 1861 he enlisted in Company K, 43rd Indiana Infantry and served for three years in the Civil War without being wounded in the many battles. His grave is marked as that of a veteran.

In 1874 Joseph Uplinger settled in Kansas; but in 1877 his wife died and in 1878 he moved near Republican City, Nebraska. Here, on July 3, 1878 he married a widow, Amanda Craig, a daughter of John White and wife Margaret Kemp. He became a prosperous pioneer farmer and was buried at Republican City. A tombstone gives the dates of birth and death of himself, his wife Elizabeth, his mother Anna M. Sanders and his daughter Eva. .

Joseph Uplinger had the known descendants shown on the Genealogy Charts. His son Joseph Manson settled in Yuma County, Arizona. His son John moved to Sacramento, California. his son Samuel moved to Buffalo, Missouri, where the son David H. lives presently. His daughter Margaret lives presently at Republican City, Nebraska.

FOURTH GENERATION

16. Jacob Uplinger

This eldest son of Isaac Oblinger (8) was the first of the western Pennsylvania branch of the family that spells the name as Uplinger.

No record has been found of the birth of Jacob, and he is not mentioned in his father's will. However, Isaac Oblinger had a daughter Maria who married Jacob Beer (Bear) ¹⁷⁶⁵ and moved to Armstrong County, Pa. Still extant is a letter dated Apr. 23, 1810 from Jacob and Mary Beer to Isaac Oblinger in which it is suggested that his son Jacob might like to move to Armstrong County.

As shown by a receipt in the family collection, in 1802 Jacob Uplinger paid G. Palmer for surveying a tract of land in Lehigh Twp., Northampton County; and Jacob Oblinger was warranted ¹⁷⁶⁶ 128 acres in Northampton County, surveyed on Sept. 4, 1804. From a deposition in the family archives, he built and occupied a house on the land in March of that year. However, in April the land was resurveyed against a warrant held by one William Dieter. A lawsuit resulted and Dieter gained possession of the land.

It was for this reason that Jacob Uplinger was likely to consider moving to another section. However, he apparently remained in Lehigh Twp. until about 1820. The census record for 1810 lists Jacob Oblinger as having a wife and a son and a daughter under ten years of age. There is a note of hand from his brother Johannes (17) dated Sept. 18, 1818; and in 1819 he received a payment in the of George Leibenguth ^{ref67} of Lehigh Twp. But on May 20, 1820 Jacob Beer evidently on a visit to Lehigh Twp., gave a receipt to Johannes Oblinger (17) for $1.50 which he promised to pay over to Jacob Opplinger.

Jacob Uplinger had settled in Wayne Twp., Armstrong County, Pa. near the village of Rural Valley. From letters to Johannes Oblinger dated 1836 and signed by his sons John and Daniel, it appears that Jacob Uplinger still considered himself the rightful owner of the land mentioned above. The sons signed their name as "Uplinger", and apparently the change in spelling took place at their new home. Meanwhile, some of the family remaining in Lehigh Twp. had begun to spell the name "Oplinger", as a letter dated Nov. 20, 1839 from Daniel Oplinger (49) is addressed to Jacob Oplinger at Rural Valley. In it Daniel tells of the claim to the land o! a Mr. Beltz and the impracticality of selling it for Jacob.

This is the last written record of Jacob Uplinger that is available. He and his wife Barbara Reeder are buried in the church graveyard at Rural Valley. Their tombstones show that he died aged 78 years on Mar. 12, 1851, while she was born on Mar. 29, 1780 and died on Sept. 2, 1870. According to a descendant, her maiden name was Reeder; and evidently she was a native of Northampton County if not Lehigh Twp. No will of Jacob Uplinger was probated in Armstrong County, nor is there any record of the administration of an estate.

According to verbal information given by descendants, Jacob and Barbara Uplinger had the ten children shown by Table II.

Johannes, born on Dec. 29, 1777 as shown by his tombstone, was the second son of Isaac Oblinger (8) and wife Susanna. He and his brother Daniel (18) are mentioned by name in their father's will. ^{ref44} He was born and lived all his life in Lehigh Twp., Northampton Co.

Evidently Johannes Oblinger lived with his parents until he was 34 years of age. On May 26, 1852 he and Anna (Nancy) Huhler were married ^{ref38} in Lehigh Twp., and he probably set up his own home at that time. During the War of 1812 he was a private ^{ref68} in the Northampton County militia.

Like the rest of his verwandschaften in Lehigh Twp., Johannes Oblinger was a farmer, but he evidently prospered more than most of the others. His mother Susanna having inherited all of his father's real property, in 1815 or 1816 he made an agreement with his mother for the use of the property in exchange for her maintenance. According to an unrecorded deed, on Feb. 6, 1816 he bought for 100 pounds the share in the residuary estate of his father belonging to his sister Magdalena (20), wife of John Anthony.

According to his tombstone, Johannes and Anna Oblinger had three children; but only two lived to maturity. Dying on June 27, 1851, he was buried at the Indianland Church. His tombstone gives the name of his wife as Anna Huhler. He left a will ^{ref69} giving all his personal property to his wife Nancy, all real property to his son Daniel (49) and $600 to his granddaughter Selina Roethline, daughter of Benjamin Roethline. The will was signed with a mark.

The widow of Johanes Oblinger survived him nearly thirty years and was buried at the Salem Evangelical Church near Danielsville. Her tombstone shows that she was born on Nov. 1, 1790, died on Mar. 31, 1881 and that her maiden name was Nancy Huhler.

18. Daniel Oblinger

This son of Isaac Oblinger (18) is mentioned by name in his father's will.^{ref44} Born on Dec. 29, 1790, as shown by his tombstone, he spent his entire life in Lehigh Twp., where he was a farmer.

Like his brother Johanes, Daniel Oblinger was a private in the Northampton County Militia during the war of 1812.

Evidently he had married Susanna Walb in 1810, as his tombstone inscription states that he had lived in marriage with her for forty years when he died. She was the daughter of Jacob Walb (1762-1854) and wife Rosina Schaffer of Lehigh Twp. They had twelve children, of which nine reached maturity shown on the Genealogy Charts. Daniel Oblinger died on Jan. 26, 1851 and was buried at the Indianland (St. Paul's) Church.;" He left a will,^{ref71} signed with a mark, which appointed his son Samuel as executor and bequeathed the home and money to his wife Susanna, Their children were not mentioned by name.

Susanna, his widow, survived him and was buried beside him. Her tombstone shows that she was born a Walb on Apr. 15, 1793, was married to Daniel Oblinger for forty years, had eight sons and four daughters and died on Apr. 5, 1865. She left no will and the son Samuel was appointed administrator^{ref72} of her estate. The distribution papers filed by the administrator give the names of the children as Samuel, James, Elias, Paul, Thomas, Joseph, Catharine, Charles and Julia. The son Charles was dead, Catharine had married ?? Snyder and Julia had married ?? Roethline.

19. Maria Oblinger Beer

That Isaac Oblinger(8) had a daughter Maria who married Jacob Beer (Bear) is shown by a letter from her to her father and mother dated Apr. 23, 1810 and proceedings in the settlement of the estate of Isaac Oblinger.

By 1810 Jacob and Maria Beer had settled in Kittaning Armstrong County, Pa., where the name was altered to Bear. They had the following children:

Jacob Bear,
Elizabeth Bear,	m. Peter Rarich,
Susanna Bear,	m. David Wampler,
Mary Bear,	m. John Boyer, Sr.,

Nothing further has been learned concerning this daughter of Isaac Oblinger.

20. Magdalena Oblinger Anthony Schaffer

That Isaac Oblinger (8) had a daughter Magdalena who married John Anthony is shown by an unrecorded agreement in the family collection of papers. Dated Feb. 6, 1816, it covers the purchase by her brother Johanes (18) of the interest of Magdalena, wife of John Anthony, in the estate of Isaac Oblinger. John and Magdalena are stated to be residents of Lehigh Twp., Northampton County.

Magdalena Oblinger was buried at Christ ("Little Moore") Church in Moore Twp., adjacent to Lehigh Twp. Her tombstone shows that she was born on June 6, 1783, lived in marriage with John Anthony for 33 years and had nine children, lived in marriage with Jacob Schaffer for seven years and died on May 11, 1869.

No information has been obtained concerning the birth or death of John Anthony or the names of the children of John and Magdalena Anthony. Jacob Schaffer was buried beside his two wives. He was born on Oct. 20, 1765 and died on Apr. 20, 1841 or 1847.

Samuel Oblinger (9) had a son Nicholas, as shown by an indenture which ^{ref73} gives the names of his heirs. Nicholas must have been born about 1774. he died on May ?, 1822, when letters of administration for his estate were granted ^{ref74} to Conrad Neihart. His occupation was given as a weaver and residence as Lehigh Twp. His widow Salome signed a release of administration. She apparently was born on Mar. 24, 1780 and was a sister of Conrad Neuhard (1783-1853), who is buried at the Indianland Church. The grave of Nicholas Oblinger has not been found, but he probably was buried at the same place.

In 1804 Nicholas Oblinger bought land in Lehigh Twp., and by 1811 had married Salome ??, as shown by a deed ^{ref75} of sale. They had a daughter Catharina born ^{ref76} on Apr. 21, 1818.

In 1824 Peter Braun was appointed guardian of the five children (Anna Maria, Abelona, Daniel, Catharina and Susanna), all minors under the age of 14 years. However, in 1836 only the four daughters were mentioned ^{ref78} by the guardian; and apparently the son Daniel had died as a child. By this time the widow Salome had married John Moyer. By 1837 the daughter Maria had married John Thomas, and the daughter Abelona took over the real property of her father, for the valuation placed on it. ^{ref79} Nothing further has been learned concerning the daughters of Nicholas Oblinger (21), and his grave has not been found.

22. John Henry Oblinger

Samuel Oblinger (9) had a son Henry ^{ref80} who lived in Lehigh Twp. until 1803 or later. He moved to Luzerne County, where he settled near St. Johns, in Butler Twp. He was warranted 400 acres of land in Luzerne County Surveyed ^{ref81} on May 26, 1831. He was a private in the 157th Regiment of Pennsylvania militia ^{ref82} during the war of 1812, and his grave is marked as that of a veteran of that war.

Dying on Mar. 5, 1852, he was buried at St. Johns. His tombstone gives his name as John Henry Oblinger and shows that he was born on Feb. 2, 1775. Evidently he was baptized Johan Heinrich, the Johan being his "Lieblingsnamen". His wife Elizabeth ?? was buried beside him. She died on Dec. 19, 1843 at the age of 67.

John Henry Oblinger left no will, and his son Daniel was granted letters of administration ^{ref83} for his estate. In 1855 the real property of Henry Oblinger was deeded by the administrator to another son, John.

Henry and Elizabeth Oblinger had the eight children shown by Table III.

23. Elizabeth Oblinger Benner

Samuel Oblinger (9) had a daughter Elizabeth who in 1803 was single and signed an unrecorded agreement with her brother Nicholas. A letter to her mother in 1806 shows that she and her sister Catharina then were living in Philadelphia. In 1810 Elizabeth Oblinger was listed^{ref 80} as an unmarried heir of Samuel Oblinger. A later deed, in 1830, shows that she had married a Jacob Benner.

Jacob and Elizabeth Benner are buried at the Indianland Church near Cherryville. Their tombstones show that he was born on Feb. 15, 1776 and died on Nov. 10, 1857, while she was born on Oct. 14, 1777 and died on Feb. 24, 1873.

24. Magdalena Oblinger Tennis

Magdalena Tennis in 1803 Signed, with a mark, an unrecorded agreement with her brother Nicholas (21). This was witnessed by a William Tennis. in 1810 she was listed as one of the heirs of Samuel Oblinger (19), and in 1813 her mother Elizabeth deeded^{ref 85} to her, as Magdalena Dannes, a tract of land in Lehigh Twp., Northampton County. Another deed^{ref 73} shows that her husband was John Tennis, who signed as such an unrecorded deed whereby they sold the land Magdalena had bought from her mother.

No further record has been found of John and Magdalena Tennis; and it is believed that they moved to other parts.

25. Susanna Oblinger Standen

Susanna Oblinger in 1803 signed, with a mark, an agreement with her brother Nicholas, and in 1810 she was listed^{ref 60} as Susanna Oblinger, one of the daughters of Samuel Oblinger (9).

By 1830 she had married ?? Standen and become a widow, as her husband was not a party to an indenture dated Apr. 1, 1830. No grave of Susanna Oblinger Standen has been found; and it is probable that she remarried or moved to some other part of the country.

26. Catharina Oblinger Lloyd

In 1803 Catharina Oblinger, signed, with a mark, an agreement with her brother Nicholas (21), and in 1810 She was listed^{ref 60} as such as one of the daughters of Samuel Oblinger (9). From a letter dated 1806, from her sister Elizabeth (23) to their mother, it appears that the two Sisters were living in Philadelphia at that time. In 1830 she was the wife of one Thomas Lloyd,^{ref 73} but their place of residence was not given. The graves of Thomas and Catharina Lloyd have not been found, and it is probable that she married while living in Philadelphia and lived there afterward.

27. Mary Oblinger Bussard

That Nicholas Oblinger (10) had a daughter Mary who married Conrad Bossert of Lehigh Twp., is shown by a document in the family collection Of papers. In English and dated Mar. 3, 1797, it states that Nicklous Oplinger lends "his daughter Marey, the wife of Conrad Boset" certain articles. The document was prepared by one Enoch Beer, a local Justice of the peace, who signed it. Evidently Mary Oblinger and Conrad Bossert had been married recently and her father was loaning them items to use in their housekeeping.

Later Conrad and Mary Bossert moved to Westmoreland County, Pa. and Settled near Adamsburg. They are buried at the Brush Creek Reformed Lutheran Church near Adamsburg. Their tombstones show that Mary, wife of Conrad Busard, died on Sept. 13, 1872; aged 94 years and four months. Conrad Bussard was born on Dec. 25, 1774 and died on Jan. 31, 1851. They had the following children:

Conrad Bossert, Jr.,		m. Katharine Shumaker,
Daniel Bussard,		m. Elizabeth Long,
Jacob Buzzard,	1/1/1801-1/10/1873,	m. Rachel ??,3/8/1804-1/17/1889,
Peter Bussard,
George Bussard,
Salome Bussard	-1895,	m. John Kammerer -1899,

28. Peter Oblinger

No documentary evidence has been found that Peter Oblinger was a son of Nicholas Oblinger (10), but he was not a son of either Isaac (8) or Samuel (9??) and could not have been a grandson of either. He must, therefore, have been a son of Nicholas (10).

The first mention of Peter Oblinger is found in the record, of his confirmation on May 4, 1805. The Census of 1810 lists him as a married resident of Lehigh Twp., Northampton County, Pa., aged 17 to 26, with a wife aged 17 to 26, but no children are listed. It is concluded that he was born about 1787.

Peter Oblinger was a private in the Northampton County militia during the War of 1812 and saw active service.¹⁹⁶⁷ About this time he must have moved to adjacent Moore Twp., for there it is recorded the baptism of Rachel, born on July 8, 1816, daughter of Peter and Elizabeth Oplinger.¹⁹⁸⁸ The maiden name of the wife of Peter Oblinger was Elizabeth Lynn.

The date of death of Peter Oblinger is unknown, but probably was between 1840 and 1866. No record of an estate has been found. He was buried at Christ (Little Moore) Church in Moore Twp. His grave is marked by a rough stone only with the initials "P.O.". This is marked with the flag of a veteran. His wife Elizabeth died¹⁹⁸⁹ on Mar. 3, 1866, aged 78 years. She was buried at the same place, but no tombstone has been found. Verbal-information from descendants shows that they had the children listed in Table IV.

It is probable that Peter Oblinger was a tenant farmer. No record has been found of his having owned land in Northampton County.

29. George Oplinger

Like Peter Oblinger (28), George Oplinger must have been a son of Nicholas Oblinger (10). This is substantiated by a family legend that George Oplinger had a sister, Mrs. Bussard, who lived near Pittsburgh, Pa. as we have seen, Nicholas Oblinger (10) had a daughter Mary (27) who married Conrad Bossert and moved to Westmoreland County, Pa.

The tombstone of George Oplinger shows that he was born on Mar. 10, 1791, and therefore in Lehigh Twp., Northampton County. The first record of George Oplinger is of his being soldier in the War of 1812. He was a soldier in the Mexican War; and is said to have joined, in 1862, the six weeks militia in the Civil War, although past 70 years of age. His pension number was SC-973,367.

In 1814 George Oplinger married, at South Bethlehem, one Frederica Rice, daughter of Herman Rice of Lehigh Twp. She died about 1823, and in 1825 George Oplinger moved to Plains Twp., Luzerne County, Pa. With his five children he settled where Parsons, Pa. now is located. In June, 1825 he married Lavina Rhodes, by whom he had nine more children. After her death he married Lavina Derr, but had no more children.

A cooper by trade as well as a farmer, George Oplinger died on May 11, 1868 at the home of his son Benjamin Franklin (92). He was buried in the old City Cemetery at Wilkes-Barre, Pa. and his body later was removed to the present City Cemetery. Nothing has been learned of the dates of birth and death of his wives.

The children of George Oplinger are shown by Tables IV.

30. Francis Oblinger

Like Peter Oblinger (28) and George Oplinger (29), Francis Oblinger must have been a son of Nicholas Oblinger (10). He could have been a son of Jacob Uplinger (16); but since Francis Oblinger was born about 1804, and the Census of 1810 shows that Jacob Uplinger then had only one son (John, b.1800), it is rather certain that Nicholas Oblinger (10) was the father of Francis.

Francis Oblinger was a resident of Lower Mt. Bethel Twp., Northampton County when he, his wife Catharina and son John died in the cholera epidemic of 1854. They are buried at the Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church at Martins Creek. Their tombstones show that Francis Oblinger died on July 27, 1854, aged about 50 years; while his wife was born on June 18, 1803 and died on Aug. 4, 1854. Their son John was born on May 28, 1837 and died on July 29, 1854. The maiden name of Catharina, wife of Francis, has not been learned.

Francis Oblinger left no will, and letters of administration ¹⁸⁵⁰ were granted to William Burt. A power of attorney signed by children of Francis Oblinger included Grantum, Mary, Juliann, Caroline, Eliza and Sarah, wife of William Burt. There was also a son Peter. ¹⁸⁵¹ The daughters Caroline and Eliza were minors, and in 1856 William Burt was appointed ¹⁸⁵¹ their guardian. Table IV shows these children of Francis and Catharina Oblinger.

31. Amos Oblinger

Amos, son of John Oblinger (15) and wife Eleanora, evidently was born in Warwick Twp., Lancaster County, Pa. Like, or with, his father he moved to Ohio and lived in or near Germantown, Montgomery County. Here he married Elizabeth Mason on Nov. 2, 1809. She was born in Kentucky in 1792, the daughter of Christopher Mason.

Later Amos Oblinger moved to Union, Miami County, Ohio. He died in June, 1861 and was buried at West Milton, Ohio. Although the census of 1850 shows that he then was living in Montgomery County and indicates that he was born about 1782, his tombstone states that he died at the age of 76. He therefore was born in 1784 or 1785.

Amos and Elizabeth Oblinger are said to have had the children shown by Table V.

32. Hannah Oblinger Wotten

Book A or the Marriage Records of Montgomery County, Ohio shows; that on Dec.9, 1807 there were married Hannah Oblinger and Samuel Wotten. The daughter of John Oblinger

In 1827 Joseph T. Moore, a well-known artist, painted portraits of Christian Oblinger and his wife. That of his wife has been lost. That of Christian Oblinger is signed and there is the inscription "C. Oblinger at age 35". As this portrait antedated photography, it is the oldest known picture of a member of the family. It is indicated that Christian Oblinger was well-to-do, as such portraits were expensive. Found in 1928, the portrait has since been in the possession of Mrs. William A. Lennemann of Orleans, Nebraska, a descendant of John Oblinger (15).

The name of Christian Oblinger's wife has not been learned. He died at Dayton, Ohio in 1837 at the age of 45 and is buried in the Woodland Cemetery. Christian Oblinger is known to have had a son William (115). See Table XXXII. Christian may have been the father of the Flavius Josephus Oblinger considered along with William (115).

34. John Oblinger Sr.

This Son of John Oblinger (15) and wife Eleanora was born on Apr. 15, 1794 according to his tombstone, evidently in Lancaster Co.,

According to county records he was a laborer. His wife was born on July 16, 1804 and died on May 18, 1881. She was buried at the same place. Their known children are shown by Table V.

On Nov. 10, 1828 Gabriel Oblinger married Sarah Haines, who was born in Center County, Pa. on Sept. 25, 1810. She died on Sept. 24, 1871. Gabriel Oblinger died on July 6, 1879. They are buried at Germantown, Ohio. They had the children shown on the Genealogy Charts.

An excellent photograph of Gabriel Oblinger is extant. This evidently was taken when he was well past middle age.

37. Susanna Oblinger

Nothing has been learned of this daughter of John Oblinger(15) and wife Eleanora.

38. Joshua Oblinger

It is said that Joshua, son of John Oblinger (15) and wife Susanna Carroll or Carl, was born in 1826. In 1853 he was a resident of Dayton, Ohio, as shown by a power of attorney given to him by his mother.
