Be sure to meet every relative attending. Introduce each other. SMILE, keep smiling — and shake hands. If you will not enjoy this reunion we are sure it will be your own fault. We are trying our best to make it the very best gathering—but YOU must help us — and we know you will. THANKS.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh, say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?

And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,

Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet
wave

O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;

Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land

Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation.

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,

And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"

And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave

O'er the land of the free, and the home of
the brave.

BLEST BE THE TIE THAT BINDS

Blest be the tie that binds

Our hearts in Christian love;

The fellowship of kindred minds

Is like to that above.

We share our mutual woes;

Our mutual burdens bear;

And often for each other flows,

A sympathizing tear.

When we asunder part,

It gives us inward pain;

But we shall still be joined in heart,

And hope to meet again.
