Short Bio

Always Aspiring Always Inspiring

I am 16 years old. I started learning music just before I was 4. I have been playing the Harp since I was 6 years old. I currently play songs on several instruments: the Piano, the Harp, the Flute, the Guitar the Tenor Steel Pan. Thanks to the Washington Jazz Arts Institute, I have performed on many prestigious venues from the Strathmore Mansion to the Kennedy Center. I am a home-school student and music is a major part of my lesson plan. My remaining curriculum consists of attending the dual enrollment program at Prince Georges Community College, studying Ballet at the Washington Ballet, Kumon Math and an online home-school program to include Language Arts, Civics, Science and History. I expect to receive my high school diploma and my Associates degree in May 2027.

I play Golf (personal best 76 on 18) I have represented the District of Columbia in the U.S. Kids Golf World Championships. I have represented the District of Columbia as the Middle School Chess champion and All Girls State champion in 2022 and 2023 at the annual National Tournament of Champions. June 2019, I earned my junior Black Belt in Martial Arts. My other activities include Swimming and High School Sailing. I am the recipient of the District of Columbia Mayor's Award for Youth Creativity.
