

Sarah-mari Ramson

Always aspiring, Always Inspiring

Sarah is 17 years old. She started learning music just before she was 4. She has been playing the Harp since she was 6 years old. She currently plays songs on several instruments: the Piano, the Harp, the Flute, the Guitar and the Tenor Steel Pan. She has performed in many prestigious venues from the Strathmore Mansion to the Kennedy Center. She is a home-school student and music is a major part of her lesson plan. Her remaining curriculum consists of studying dance En Pointe at The Washington Ballet, Kumon Math and Reading and an online home-school program that includes Language Arts, Civics, Science and History.

Sarah is currently finishing high school in a dual enrollment program at Prince Georges Community College. In May 2027 she will complete her Associates degree in Music and her high school diploma. Sarah plays Golf. Her personal best is 67 on 5500 yards. She has represented Washington, DC as the Middle School Chess champion and All Girls State champion in the United States Chess Federation's National Tournament of Champions in 2022 and 2023. In June 2019, Sarah earned her Black Belt in Martial Arts. As an Annapolis Yacht Club Scholarship recipient, Sarah participates in the West River high school sailing program. She was recently appointed Co-captain. Sarah is the 2025 recipient of the District of Columbia's Mayor's Arts Awards for Youth Creativity.

Stay connected and inspired by visiting

iamsarahmari.com

Short Bio updated 8/12/2026