World Transformation Meeting

For Future-Minded, Planet-Caring Rotarians, Rotary Fellows, Rotary Action Group Members, Rotaractors & Others

Why Now?

The world is rapidly changing—and Rotary and other NGOs must evolve with it.
Our shared mission of service, peace, and fellowship is more vital than ever, but our methods must transform to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow.

Purpose of the Meeting

- Reimagine Rotary's role in a time of global crisis and opportunity
- Explore transformational approaches to service, leadership, and impact
- Connect across generations to spark new ideas and deeper purpose
- Support planetary healing, social justice, and a culture of peace
- Create pathways for meaningful action and organizational renewal

This is an open, creative, and courageous space

...for those who believe Rotary
can be a beacon of wisdom, unity, and compassionate action in the 21st century.

Let's gather. Let's grow.
Let's rise together.

Visionary Leadership and Trusted Integrity

Dr. Robert Muller

Former UN Assistant Secretary-General; Cofounder, UN University for Peace

“Sandy Hinden is a very exceptional human being, entirely devoted to a better, ideal world. He constantly inspired me for my work and efforts at the United Nations. He had ceaseless, great ideas and encouraged me not to give up. I would support his candidacy with the highest terms.”

Mairuth Sarsfield

Senior Information Officer, UNEP

“On UN projects, we called upon Sandy to provide grassroots thrust and focus, especially with youth and nature. His uncluttered vision contributed to World Environment Day 1983 and International Youth Year 1985. He led Universal Children's Gardens and helped 'For Every Child a Tree' with remarkable reliability under pressure. He is a person to be trusted.”

Collaboration, Wisdom, and Systemic Thinking

Alexander Laszlo

Global Systems Educator

“Sandy is an inspirational actionist who asks the tough questions and explores heartfelt answers. His experience, human kindness, and political savvy make working with him an enriching experience. He brings both joy and clarity to collaboration.”

Ronald Gross

Founder, Conversations New York; Co-chair, Innovation Seminar, Columbia University

“Sanford Hinden is one of the most humane, compassionate, loving human beings I have ever met. He speaks and acts from deep wisdom about what people and the world need. I trust him and have learned immensely from him.”

Meg Rivers

Senior Production Specialist, HBO / HBO Max

“Sandy's whole-systems thinking is empowering and enlightening. I would recommend any educational materials he creates as of superior value.”

From Vision to Action

Barbara Gaughen-Muller

President, UNA-USA Santa Barbara & Tri-counties, Rotarian

“No one on this planet is more efficient or works harder than Sanford Hinden for peace. He helped create peace gardens for children and peace museums worldwide. Sandy uses wisdom and life skills to create the tools for peace that our world needs. Thank you, Sandy!”

Dr. Peter van den Dungen

Founder, International Network of Museums for Peace

“Thanks to Sandy, our network was accepted as an NGO affiliated with the UN. He proposed a visionary communication plan linking Peace Museums via email, websites, and Peace TV. I recommend him as a talented and experienced worker for peace.”

Edward E. Winchester

Founder, Pentagon Meditation Club & PeaceMakers Institute

“Sanford Hinden is a peacemaker. He saw a need for transformation in our club and stepped forward with enthusiasm. He helped spread our message globally and remains a reliable adviser. He touches our minds and hearts as a loving partner and true friend.”

Global Impact and Recognition

Solomon Owiti

Chairman, Lake Victoria Peace & Sustainability Center, Kenya

"We appreciate your concern to create peace in this region and around the world. Your ability to turn ideas into action is unmatched by many and cannot be equaled."

Lesley Vann

United Nations Association, USA

"Sandy Hinden is a visionary in this time of cynicism, a creator in times of apathy, and persistent amidst times of great change."

Tatiana Kesrouani

TKDesign, Lebanon

"My friend Sanford Hinden should be elected President of the Globe."
