Introduction

World Systems Improvement

For a Thriving Planet and Future Generations

Dear Changemaker,

We live in a time when small efforts are not enough. The challenges facing humanity—climate breakdown, social fragmentation, economic inequities, and threats to peace—are systemic in nature.

They require us to think in systems, act with wisdom, and collaborate at unprecedented levels.

The World Systems Improvement – Wise Systems Design program was created for this very purpose: to empower citizens, educators, Rotarians, leaders, and lifelong learners with the tools to understand and improve the systems shaping our lives and our planet's future.

This program is not just education—it's preparation for a new kind of service: systemic service that uplifts people, regenerates the Earth, and supports future generations.

We invite you to join us in co-creating a world where service becomes systemic transformation, and where leadership emerges from compassion, insight, and collective responsibility.

With vision and respect,

Sanford Hinden

Founder, Wisocracy

World Systems Improvement

Wise Systems Design

World Systems Improvement - Wise Systems Design

In today's culture, many feel overwhelmed, disconnected, or caught in cycles of superficiality, competition, and distraction. This can lead to denial—ignoring the need to change the systems that are failing people and the Earth.

The World Systems Improvement – Wise System Design Program was created to help the public grow in awareness of the systems they live within—systems that, unless transformed, will continue to degrade life on our planet.

Through a 20-month program—including an Introduction to Systems Thinking, 18 monthly Systems Design sessions, and a Concluding Wise Leadership System session, participants learn how to evaluate and redesign systems for a better future.

WSI - WSD operates entirely online.

Learners and changemakers across the world can connect, explore, and co-create solutions.

Our World Systems Improvement Report Card tracks progress in 16 core systems—locally and globally—supporting informed, measurable change.

Most importantly, WSI-WSD is a growing community of committed individuals who believe systems thinking is not just for experts—it's for everyone who wants to make a difference.

We invite funders, partners, educators, and citizens to join us.

Together, let's evolve how we live, work, and serve—through systems that support all life.

“There is no power for change greater than a community discovering what it cares about.”

Margaret J. Wheatley
