This documentation is applicable to the services branded as CloudFin, CloudF.in, CloudFinApp.com. Customers may choose to use related products and features; use of these services is subject to this documentation.

Purpose of this Documentation

This documentation describes features, restrictions and notices associated with any:

- information sourced from third parties and provided to users via the Covered Services;
- Covered Services functionality that allows users to interact with third-party products, services or platforms; and
- desktop and mobile device software applications provided in connection with the Covered Services.

Customer Data

This documentation does not modify CloudFin's obligations with respect to any data submitted by customers to the CloudFin covered services ("Customer Data").

Acceptable Use and External-Facing Services Policy

The CloudFin covered services are subject to the Acceptable Use and External-Facing Services Policy, as applicable.

Third-Party Platforms

The CloudFin covered services allow users to interact with third-party products, services and platforms, including Non-CloudFin Applications, websites, products, services and platforms operated by or on behalf of a customer of the CloudFin covered services (collectively "Third-Party Platforms").

- Customers must enable the CloudFin covered services as may be required to access their Third Party-Platform accounts.
- The CloudFin covered services may access, collect, process, and/or store information or content from Third-Party Platform accounts (including information otherwise classified as Customer Data under a customer's agreement with CloudFin).
- Customers are solely responsible for any content their users provide to any Third-Party Platform.
- Customers are solely responsible for any information accessed by their users or any third party from any Third-Party Platform.
- Customers are solely responsible for their users' interactions or communications with third parties through any Third-Party Platforms.
- Customers are solely responsible for any transactions relating to a separate agreement or arrangement between customers or their users and any Third-Party Platform provider or website and otherwise complying with such agreements.
- Customers are solely responsible for ensuring they have the necessary rights from any Third-Party Platform provider to enable the integration between Covered Services and the Third-Party Platform.

Files Upload and Files Send To Email Feature

Customer may integrate the CloudFin covered services with certain Third Party Platforms through use of the Files Upload and Files Send To Email feature. Customers are solely responsible for ensuring they have the necessary rights from any Third Party Platform provider to enable the integration between Files Upload and Files Send To Email and the Third Party Platform, and to allow the use of Files Upload and Files Send To Email Feature by Customer or their users. Customer's use of Files Upload and Files Send To Email Feature with Third Party Platforms must comply with any separate agreement or arrangement between Customer or their users and the applicable Third Party Platform provider(s), and the additional terms and policies as noted below:

- Google Drive: Customer's use of Google Drive must comply with the Google Terms of Service and the Google Privacy Policy;

Send Email through Gmail or Office365

Customers using any send email through Gmail or Office365 feature or integration as part of the CloudFin covered services must ensure they have all applicable license rights from Microsoft or Google to use and enable the send email through Gmail or Office365 feature, integration and related content.

Distributed Software

- The End User License Agreement for the CloudFin covered services desktop and mobile applications listed below can be found on the Agreements and Terms page of the CloudF.in legal website.

Interoperation with Other Services

The CloudFin covered services may interoperate or integrate with other services provided by CloudFin or third parties. The Notices and License Information documentation for services provided by CloudFin is available here.
