

Federal Capital Planning and Investment Control Forum

Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct

The Federal Capital Planning and Investment Control Forum (FCPICF) is committed to adhering to the highest standard of ethics and professional conduct. Capital Planning Professionals who are the facilitators of the Federal Capital Planning and Investment Control (CPIC) process must conform to the accepted ethical practices that are essential in our profession. This Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct applies to members and CPP certification Holders.

FCPICF Members and CPP certification holders shall:

1. Abide by the Federal legislation and regulations that govern budget formulation and the administration of the capital planning and investment control process.
2. Protect the confidentiality and privacy of the information that is entrusted to capital planning professionals during each Federal budget formulation season.
3. Remain abreast of changes in Federal legislation, guidelines, and regulations as well as strive to advance ones own knowledge, skills and abilities in the disciplines that encompass the capital planning and investment control.
4. Maintain high standards of professional conduct and character by not engaging in unlawful acts or behaviors that would bring dishonor to ones self or the profession.
5. Serve as a trusted advisor who provides honest and objective counsel.

I hereby agree to this Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct.
