

Subject: July 2022 Newsletter – Happy Birthday!
Date: Tuesday, July 26, 2022 at 11:20:41 AM Eastern Daylight Time
From: The Resilience Collaborative
To: Brianna Graham

Johnson & Johnson Center for Health Worker Innovation

The Resilience Collaborative

Equipping Health Workers to Recover, Adapt & Grow

Hello members,

Happy Birthday to The Resilience Collaborative! It's officially been a year since we launched. We're privileged to have approximately 600 members from 300 organizations located in 40 countries around the world.

Stakeholders for health worker resilience span many different professions, many of which are represented through our members. Here's a breakdown of the professions represented in The Resilience Collaborative:

- Frontline health workers—22%
- NGO and foundation workers—22%

- Business, social enterprise, and social impact investors—10%
- Advocates—6%
- Policymakers—2%
- Other—32%

As a result of the varied experiences members bring to The Resilience Collaborative, we've had the opportunity to host several different virtual events and webinars. We facilitated orientation sessions for the Resilience Message Program and several planning sessions, as well as a monitoring and evaluation case study session in partnership with The Foundation for Professional Development. We even started a LinkedIn group that already has over 50 members!

To celebrate The Resilience Collaborative's birthday, we're featuring a few noteworthy events and opportunities hosted by members in lieu of a spotlight. These events are a great opportunity to learn more about health worker resilience, partner with other members and provide helpful feedback. We highly encourage you to attend if you're able.

We'd like to keep The Resilience Collaborative going for many more years! Help us improve health worker resilience across the world by curating a newsletter or hosting an event in partnership with The Resilience Collaborative. If you're interested in contributing, contact us at resilience@its.jnj.com.

The Resilience Collaborative is seeking a new host organization

Are you interested in facilitating The Resilience Collaborative's efforts to reach its goal of advancing learning and driving the adoption of evidence-based strategies for health worker resilience, particularly in low-resource settings?

As a host organization, you would serve as a coordinating body focused on sustaining, evolving and evaluating The Resilience Collaborative. The host organization would also guide the vision and objectives, support aligned initiatives for knowledge sharing/development, and establish shared measurement practices for ongoing evaluations.

Opportunity for funding for the continued growth and development of The Resilience Collaborative is also available. If you are interested in learning more and applying, click here.

Partner with Jhpiego

Jhpiego is looking for an organization to co-develop an event at the first biannual International Maternal and Newborn Health Conference (IMNHC2023)! The global maternal and newborn health community will gather in Cape Town, South Africa for the conference from May 8-11, 2023.

Jhpiego would like to propose an interactive, engaging Satellite Event on Provider Resilience to share our collective experience/learnings and disseminate resources (applications due September 2022). If your organization is interested in collaborating, please email Anne Hyre at anne.hyre@jhpiego.org.

Dimagi Working Group Webinar

Dimagi hosted a Working Group from March through May 2022, providing a collaborative space for organizations to learn about and participate in a human-centered approach to content adaptation. Through regular meetings, knowledge sharing and structured prompts for conducting user-centered activities, the participating organizations were guided through the process of translating and adapting resilience message content into a local language.

This webinar is an opportunity for members of the The Resilience Collaborative to learn from the experiences of the participating organizations and gain insights into the best practices on the process of content adaptation. The Institute for Healthcare Improvement (IHI), Africa Youth Growth Foundation (AYGF) and TIP Global Health will share their learnings from the Working Group and more about their organization's work on health workers resilience.

You don't need to register—you're invited as a member of The Resilience Collaborative. Join us on Zoom on Thursday, July 28, 2022 at 9:30am EST/2:30pm BST/4:30pm EAT.

Tell us about your experience!

The Resilience Collaborative strives to provide useful resources, professional development and creative ideas that help advocate for and improve health worker resilience. We'd love to hear your thoughts about how we're doing.

Please take 15 minutes to fill out our survey so we can learn what you value most about The Resilience Collaborative and how we can improve to meet your needs. Your feedback may be featured in reports, publications or presentations to demonstrate the impact of communities like The Resilience Collaborative. We won't share your personal information with any outside parties.

Does your organization go above and beyond to promote health worker resilience? We would love to feature it in an upcoming newsletter. Please send a short description and health worker resilience materials you have to resilience@its.jnj.com.

Events, Offerings & Webinar Recordings

American Hospital Association Leadership Conference July 17-19, 2022, San Diego, CA, United States

The American Hospital Association (AHA) is hosting its Leadership Conference in San Diego, California this year. This is a great opportunity for senior health care executives, clinicians and other health experts to network and discuss the latest advancements in high-quality, high-value models of care. Participants also learn leadership skills to develop partnerships, navigate crises and strengthen their own resilience.

Register for the conference HERE. Discounted rates are available for AHA members and individuals from nonprofit organizations

ACU 2022 Annual Conference: Resilience & Transformation in Care

July 31-August 2, 2022, Washington, DC

The Association of Clinicians for the Underserved (ACU) is hosting its annual conference in Washington, DC. It's a great opportunity for public health professionals and leaders in healthcare to network and learn about the latest just, equitable, diverse, and inclusive (JEDI) approaches to healthcare. Participants may choose between three conference experiences: Supporting a Thriving Workforce, Healthcare Delivery Reimagined and Emerging Issues in Care for Marginalized Populations.

Register for the conference HERE. ACU members, students and virtual attendees are all eligible for discounted registration. There's also an opportunity to register for a pre-conference JEDI workshop, as well as to attend the National Health Service Corps 50th Anniversary Gala.

Workplace Mental Health Symposium

August 22-24, 2022, Gold Coast, Australia

The Australia and New Zealand Mental Health Association is hosting the Workplace Mental Health Symposium at the Sea World Resort Conference Centre in Gold Coast, Australia. Its focus is developing workplace culture and systems that support mental wellness. This is a great opportunity for people across many different industries to explore ways to prevent and resolve burnout, stress, and other symptoms of mental health distress among employees.

Click HERE to register for in-person attendance. You can also register to attend virtual sessions. Please note that the program for virtual attendees is one day shorter.

In case you missed them, you can find recordings of past events related to health worker resilience below:

1. AKDN: Protecting the well-being & strengthening the resilience of frontline health workers (June 28, 2022)
2. Aspen Ideas: Health, Aspen Institute (June 22-25, 2022)

Looking ahead, some other key global community moments

include:

1. International Self Care Day (July 24, 2022)
2. National Schizophrenia Awareness Day (July 25, 2022)
3. World Hepatitis Day (July 28, 2022)
4. International Day of Friendship (July 30, 2022)
5. Minority Mental Health Awareness Month (July 2022)

Please email resilience@its.jnj.com if you would like to feature an upcoming event.

Know someone who is interested in improving health worker well-being?

Tell them about The Resilience Collaborative and encourage them to join.

Not a part of The Resilience Collaborative?

Visit us to learn more about our work to equip health workers to recover, adapt & grow.

Sign up to receive ongoing email communications from The Resilience Collaborative.

Follow the link to opt out of future emails:

Click here to unsubscribe

