By displaying our policy, Travel with Flair (PTY) Limited (herein referred to as TWF), has agreed to notify you of:

1. What personally identifiable information of yours is collected through the website.
2. Where the information is being collected.
3. How the information is being used and whom we share it with.
4. What choices are available to you regarding the collection, use and distribution of the information.
5. The kind of procedures that are in place to protect the loss, misuse or alteration of information under TWF’s control.
6. How you can correct any inaccuracies in the information you originally gave TWF.

If you feel that TWF is not abiding by its posted policy, you should first contact:

This Privacy Policy (“Policy”) explains in general terms how Travel with Flair (PTY) Limited, Registered in South Africa Reg No is 1996/11361/07 (“TWF”, “we” “our” or “us”) protects the privacy of your personal information. We are firmly committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of personal information and maintain robust physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect personal information in our care.

2. What is personal information?

Personal information is information or an opinion, in any form (whether true or not) about an individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion.

3. How do we collect personal information?

Where practical we will collect personal information directly from you. Generally this will be collected by us when you deal with us either in person, by telephone, letter, facsimile, email or when you visit our website.

We may request information about you when you book a travel package or make enquires about packages or other products and services; or when you request other information.

4. What personal information do we collect?

To gain the full advantage of TWF's services a user must register / login for the Management Information. The TWF profile form will require you to give us certain information. In addition, the personal information that we require is needed to facilitate your travel reservation arrangements and bookings.

We are required by law to obtain your consent to the collection of sensitive information. We will assume that you have consented to the collection of all information which is provided to us for use in accordance with this Policy, unless you tell us otherwise.

Where personal information (such as the user's name, address, telephone number and e-mail address) is submitted to the web site by the user (e.g. through sending an e-mail) the following principles are observed in the handling of that information:

1. This web site collects, processes and stores only such personal information regarding users as is necessary to provide the services offered. The specific purpose for which information is collected is apparent from the context in which it is requested.
2. This web site will not use the personal information submitted for any purpose other than the efficient provision of services, including this web site, without obtaining the prior written approval of the user or unless required to do so by law.
3. This web site will keep records of all personal information collected and the specific purpose for which it was collected for a period of one year from the date on which it was last used.
4. This web site will not disclose any personal information regarding a user to any third party unless the prior written agreement of the user is obtained or the web site is required or permitted to do so by law.
5. If information is released with the user's consent this web site will retain a record of the information released, the third party to whom it was released, the reason for the release and the date of release, for a period of one year.
6. This web site will destroy or delete any personal information which has become obsolete.
7. Note that, as permitted by the ECT Act, this web site may use personal information collected to compile profiles for statistical purposes. No information contained in the profiles or statistics will be able to be linked to any specific user.

The more information we have about you the better we are able to provide you with the best possible service.

5. How do we use personal information?

We will use your personal information to provide you with course and programme related products and services.

We may use and disclose your personal information for the purposes for which it was collected, or for a related or ancillary purpose such as any one or more of the following purposes:

1. Submit to various regulatory bodies and law enforcement officials and agencies to protect against fraud and for related security purposes.
2. Regulatory reporting and compliance.
3. Developing, improving and marketing our products and services.
4. Servicing our relationship with you by, among other things, providing updates on promotions and services we think may interest you or to involve you in market research; and
5. Internal accounting and administration.
6. Where we engage third party contractors to perform services for us those third party contractors may be required to handle your personal information. Under these circumstances those third party contractors must safeguard this information and must only use it for the purposes for which it was supplied, although we are not responsible for ensuring this.

Other than the above, we will not disclose your personal information without your consent unless disclosure is either necessary to prevent a threat to life or health, authorised or required by law, reasonably necessary to enforce the law or necessary to investigate a suspected unlawful activity.

6. Trans-border data flows

In providing our services to you it may be necessary for us to forward personal information to relevant overseas third party service providers.
