

Rockne HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION presents HILBIG PARK

The Pioneer Village features the restored Goertz and Lehman Log Cabins, the Hoffman Corn Crib, the Lee smokehouse & more!

The altar and other artifacts from the first Sacred Heart Church built in 1892.

The quilt display features a quilt made from cloth feed sacks and a crocheted baptismal gown crafted from twine.

HILBIG PARK, named after the Hilbig Park School that operated from 1894 to 1900, is a source of pride for residents. The park features a modern museum, authentic log cabins, and various other historical structures, all nestled within a tranquil native landscape. The ROCKNE MUSEUM aims to attract visitors from surrounding communities and tourists alike.

Rockne's Founding Families Display

1885
Wedding
Dress

Instruments played by the Rockne Playboys

Military Display

[illegible]

Bust of Knute Rockne, Coach at Notre Dame University

Discover how the town of Rockne was named.

Our Mission Statement

The Rockne Historical Association (RHA) is a non-profit organization formed to gather, document, foster, develop, encourage, promote, preserve, publish, and protect the history of the Rockne Community and surrounding communities in Bastrop County, Texas.

The RHA annual membership fee is $10.

Please mail your membership and any other donations to:

Rockne Historical Association
P.O. Box 37, Red Rock, TX 78662

At the museum, you can view individual family histories, and we also have several history and genealogy books, and souvenirs available.

- Rockne, Sacred Heart Parish, Bastrop County, Texas 1876-1976, updated 1996, by Rev. Msgr. Alois J. Goertz
- Rockne - Index to Family Trees
- Rockne Region Germans, Immigrants from Wurges 1846-1883 & Their Destiny in Texas by Anni Baithaus, translation by Donald C. Goertz, Ph.D.

Rockne, Texas is a rural German pioneer settlement located in Bastrop County, southeast of FM 20 and FM 535. The early history of Rockne is closely linked to a mission parish in String Prairie, Texas. Both communities can trace their origins back to 1846.

Come on by and see us!

The Museum is open by volunteers on Saturdays from 12 pm until 4 pm and is located at

4065 FM 535, Bastrop, Texas 78662
(in the community of Rockne, adjacent to Sacred Heart Church)

For “Drop by Visits” or to schedule an appointment, please call 512-581-2625, 512-217-5360
or 512-304-8379.

We would love to share this adventure with you!

Visit our new Website at <https://rocknemuseumandhilbigpark.com>

Email: rocknemuseum@gmail.com

Donations are appreciated!

Willkommen

aus
Deutschland nach
Texas

HILBIG PARK
Rockne, Texas

ROCKNE MUSEUM & HILBIG PARK

Rockne Historical Association