

Did You Know?

- The community became known as WALNUT CREEK for the nearby creek that the first church had been named after, being located one mile north of present-day Rockne.

- The Lehman Post Office was in operation between the years 1900-1904 at which time the community became known as LEHMANVILLE

- Will Hilbig opened a general store and the community became known as HILBIGVILLE.

- ROCKNE was named by the students of Sacred Heart school after the famous football coach, KNUTE ROCKNE, at Notre Dame University during the 1920's, was killed in a plane crash in 1931.
