PARENT FAITH ENGAGEMENT SERIES "THE CREED"

We say the Creed at Mass every Sunday, but how well do we really understand what we are professing?

Parents are invited to join a six-session journey through the Creed, exploring its biblical foundations, historical development, theology, and meaning for our lives today.

Along the way, we will encounter the great questions that challenged the early Church and the Ecumenical Councils that helped articulate the Christian faith.

Come deepen your understanding of the Catholic faith and become better equipped to share that faith with your children.

New Testament Reading: Philippians 3:17-4:1

Join in imitating me,
and observe those who live
according to the example you have in us.
For many live as enemies of the cross of Christ;
I have often told you of them,
and now I tell you even with tears.
Their end is destruction;
their god is the belly; and their glory is in their shame;
their minds are set on earthly things.
But our citizenship is in heaven,
and it is from there that we are expecting a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.
He will transform the body of our humiliation that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, by the power that also enables him to make all things
subject to himself.
Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for,
my joy and crown,
stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

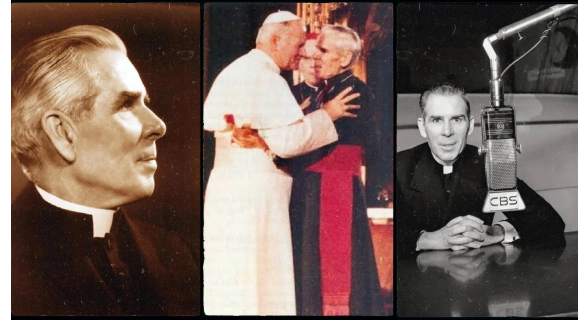

The Gospel: Matthew 24:23-31

“If anyone says to you, ‘Look! Here is the Messiah!’
or ‘There he is!’ — do not believe it.
For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and produce great signs and omens, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.
Take note, I have told you beforehand.
So, if they say to you, ‘Look! He is in the wilderness,’ do not go out.
If they say, ‘Look! He is in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.
For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.
Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.
“Immediately after the suffering of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven,
and the powers of heaven will be shaken.
Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven,
and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see ‘the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven’
with power and great glory.
And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call,
and they will gather his elect from the four winds,
from one end of heaven to the other.”

Blessed Fulton J. Sheen - A Life Given to Christ

Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to all creation.” — Mark 16:15

On September 24, 2026, the Catholic Church celebrated a beautiful and historic moment with the beatification of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen in St. Louis, Missouri. He is now known as Blessed Fulton J. Sheen, a title that invites us not only to remember his remarkable life, but also to learn from his deep love for Jesus Christ and His Church.

“A Child Called to Serve

Fulton Sheen was born Peter John Sheen on May 8, 1895, in El Paso, Illinois, to Newt and Delia Sheen. He grew up in a loving Catholic family and was deeply devoted to the Blessed Mother from an early age. His mother's maiden name was Fulton, and as a child he began to be called by that name.

One of the most touching stories from his childhood happened when Fulton was only eight years old. While serving Mass, he accidentally dropped a cruet, which shattered on the floor. Frightened and embarrassed, the young boy was comforted by Bishop John L. Spalding of Peoria. The bishop told him that one day he would study in Belgium and would become a bishop himself. Those words remained with Fulton throughout his life.

Fulton attended Catholic schools, graduated as valedictorian of his high school class, and continued his education before entering the seminary. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Peoria on September 20, 1919. His love of learning led him to pursue advanced studies in the United States and Europe, eventually earning a doctorate in philosophy from the Catholic University of Louvain in Belgium.

A Voice That Reached Millions

Father Sheen became a gifted teacher, preacher, author, and evangelist. In 1930, he began his famous radio ministry, The Catholic Hour, eventually reaching millions of listeners.

In 1951, he was consecrated a bishop and began his celebrated television program, Life Is Worth Living. His warm personality, intelligence, humor, and ability to explain the Catholic faith in simple and beautiful ways brought the Gospel into millions of homes. His television audience eventually reached an estimated 30 million viewers each week, and he received an Emmy Award for his work.

Yet behind the television cameras was a man devoted to prayer. Blessed Fulton Sheen was especially known for spending a daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament. He understood that his ability to speak about Christ had to come from first spending time with Christ.

The Final Years of His Journey

Bishop Sheen served the Church in many ways, including as Bishop of Rochester and later as Archbishop of the titular See of Newport, Wales.

Even after leaving Rochester, he continued to write, preach, teach, and encourage people to return to God.

On December 9, 1979, at the age of 84, Archbishop Sheen died in New York after suffering from heart disease. He had spent his final hours in prayer and had celebrated Mass earlier that day. His earthly life had come to an end, but the message he preached continues to touch hearts.

A Legacy That Continues

Blessed Fulton J. Sheen reminds us that evangelization is not only for priests, bishops, or famous speakers. Each of us can bring Christ to the people around us.

In fact, he used the communication tools of his time to bring Christ into people's homes. Today, we have even more ways to share the Gospel. His life asks us a simple question: Are we using the gifts God has given us to bring others closer to Him?

May Blessed Fulton J. Sheen teach us to love Christ deeply, to remain faithful to the Church, and to place prayer at the center of our lives.

Prayer Through the Intercession of Blessed Fulton J. Sheen

Blessed Fulton J. Sheen, faithful servant of Christ and joyful preacher of the Gospel, pray for us.

Teach us to love Jesus more deeply, to trust Him in every circumstance, and to share His light with courage and compassion. May our words, our actions, and our lives lead others closer to God.
