October Meeting

Tuesday, October 13th

7:00-8:00 p.m. (PLC)

Stella Maris would like to invite all the ladies of the parish to join them this Tuesday evening. Their speaker, Fr. Petros, assists all the multicultural Catholic communities in our Diocese, including our very own OLOL.

He will share interesting stories that will truly remind us that we are a Universal Church. Doors open for refreshments and fellowship at 6:45 p.m. All ladies are welcome!

STELLA MARIS OUTREACH MINISTRY

Do you have a family member or friend, who is an OLV parishioner, that could benefit from a friendly phone call? If so, please contact the Parish Office at 614-488-2428 with their name and phone number. We have a group of ladies who will call and chat with them, keep them updated on parish news, and offer a listening ear to help pass the time.

— PARENT FAITH ENGAGEMENT SERIES — “THE CREED”

We say the Creed at Mass every Sunday, but how well do we really understand what we are professing?

Parents are invited to join a six-session journey through the Creed, exploring its biblical foundations, historical development, theology, and meaning for our lives today.

Along the way, we will encounter the great questions that challenged the early Church and the Ecumenical Councils that helped articulate the Christian faith.

Come deepen your understanding of the Catholic faith and become better equipped to share that faith with your children.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT FOR OUR CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Our Lady of Victory is Committed to ensuring the safety of all children and vulnerable adults. We truly value all our volunteers! All volunteers who interact with children must complete the Safe Environment process before serving. This includes registering for a VIRTUS account, completing the Protecting God's Children training, and submitting to a background check (renewing this every five years). To complete this process, go to the OLV website – ourladyofvictory.cc. – click on the “Safe Environment” tab. Follow Steps 1 through 4 to complete the Safe Environment Compliance process. For any questions, please contact Pat Fulcher at pfulcher@ourladyofvictory.cc.

“I am pleading with you to become apostles of the Rosary. Promote the Rosary. Urge the Rosary. Teach the Rosary. Shall I say, advertise the Rosary. It is through the Rosary that we can bring countless souls back to Christ from whom they have strayed. It is through the Rosary that we can make them lovers of Christ through the mediation of His Mother, the Mother of Miracles since the marriage feast at Cana even to the dawn of eternity.”

The foundation honors his kind and charitable spirit by helping others who are in need. The Run the Race Club (RTR) was started by Brian's mother, Rachel Muha, and the foundation. RTR offers a safe and loving atmosphere on Columbus' West Side (The Hilltop) where children can go to play, learn and study. RTR provides education, clothing, food, furniture, toys and more to families in our community, at no cost. The Muha Foundation is able to help others continue to 'Run the Race' through its generous donors and fundraising events such as the annual 'Night of Champions'.

New Testament Reading: 1Thessalonians 5:1-11

Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you.
For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.
When they say, "There is peace and security,"
then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape!
But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief;
for you are all children of light and children of the day;
we are not of the night or of darkness.
So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober;
for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night.
But since we belong to the day, let us be sober,
and put on the breastplate of faith and love,
and for a helmet the hope of salvation.
For God has destined us not for wrath
but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.
Therefore encourage one another and build up each other,
as indeed you are doing.

The Gospel: Matthew 24:45-51

"Who then is the faithful and wise servant,
whom his master has put in charge of his household,
to give the other slaves their allowance of food
at the proper time?
Blessed is that slave
whom his master will find at work when he arrives.
Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.
But if that wicked servant says to himself,
'My master is delayed,'
and he begins to beat his fellow slaves,
and eats and drinks with drunkards,
the master of that servant will come on a day
when he does not expect him and at an hour that he does not know.
He will cut him in pieces
and put him with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

St. Philip the Deacon - A Faithful Servant of the Early Church

St. Philip the Deacon was one of the first seven deacons chosen by the Apostles to serve the growing Christian community in Jerusalem. His story, found especially in the Acts of the Apostles, reminds us that Christian service is not simply about holding a position—it is about allowing God to use our gifts to bring His love to others.

As the number of believers increased, the Apostles realized that the needs of the community were also growing. They selected seven men who were known to be faithful, wise, and filled with the Holy Spirit. Philip was among these seven. The Apostles prayed over them and entrusted them with the ministry of service, particularly caring for the practical needs of the Christian community.

But Philip's service did not remain in Jerusalem. God called him to become a missionary and proclaim the Gospel beyond the city. During a time of persecution, Philip went to Samaria, where he preached Christ with courage. The people listened to his message, and many came to believe. Through Philip's preaching and ministry, God brought healing and joy to the people.

One of the most beautiful moments in Philip's life came when an angel of the Lord directed him to take a particular road toward Gaza. There he encountered an Ethiopian official who was traveling home after worshiping in Jerusalem. The man was reading from the prophet Isaiah but did not understand the passage.

Philip approached him and asked whether he understood what he was reading. The Ethiopian invited Philip to explain the Scripture. Beginning with the passage from Isaiah, Philip proclaimed the Good News of Jesus Christ.

As they continued along the road, they came upon some water. The Ethiopian asked, "What is to prevent me from being baptized?" Philip baptized him, and the man continued on his journey rejoicing.

This encounter beautifully illustrates the heart of Christian evangelization. Philip did not force his message upon someone. He met a person who was searching, listened to him, opened the Scriptures, and patiently led him toward Christ.

Philip later settled in Caesarea. Acts tells us that he was known as "Philip the evangelist" and that he had four daughters who were prophetesses. His life shows that the ministry of the Gospel can take many forms: serving those in need, teaching the faith, encouraging others, welcoming strangers, and courageously sharing the truth of Christ.

St. Philip reminds us that no act of faithful service is too small in God's eyes. Whether we serve quietly behind the scenes or openly proclaim our faith, what matters is that we offer ourselves generously to God.

May St. Philip the Deacon inspire us to recognize the people God places along our path. May we have the courage to speak about Christ when the opportunity comes, the humility to listen, and the love to serve without seeking recognition.

St. Philip the Deacon is honored as a patron of deacons, evangelists, and those who proclaim the Gospel. He is also remembered as a model of Christian service, missionary courage, and faithful teaching. His feast day is celebrated on October 11. May St. Philip inspire us to serve others with humility and to share the joy of Christ wherever God calls us.

Prayer to St. Philip the Deacon

St. Philip, faithful servant and evangelist, pray for us that we may be filled with the Holy Spirit and ready to serve wherever God calls us. Help us to recognize those who are searching for Christ, to open our hearts to their needs, and to share the joy of the Gospel with courage and love. May our words and actions lead others closer to Jesus. Through your intercession, may we become faithful servants of God and generous witnesses of His love.
Amen.
