THE VALLEY COURSE

The Valley Course with its abundant water features, blending into the delightful natural landscape was designed by Frank Pennink, one of Europe's most prominent and respected golf course architects.

The par 72 course opened in 1977 and within 7 years was staging European PGA Satellite Tour events. Now firmly established on the Norfolk Open rota, its credentials as a tournament course are firmly established.

THE HILL COURSE

The more forgiving par 71 Hill Course, designed by renowned golf architect Donald Steele, opened in 1989 and offers wider fairways with a real links flavour.

As its name suggest, golfers can enjoy fine views over the surrounding countryside while at the same time facing the challenges posed by the strong breezes and carefully placed bunkers.
