Presidents' Message

Hello Cruisers

Well Spring has sprung! Trees and flowers are starting to show their beauty. That means car shows are returning after a very long shut down. So this means "get those hot rods out and start showing them off." Even though the price of gas is ridiculous we still need to enjoy our toys!

We continue to get membership dues turned in. thank you. The club is only as good as the membership. We are still looking for members to organize runs, if you're interested, please contact one of the board members. Also please contact Brad with stories about your cars or projects for the news letter.

As most of you know it seems like every few days we have another car show notice coming in. As events keep coming in we will do everything we can to keep you informed at our meetings and through the club blasts. Kool April Nights will be the last weekend of April. So start making your plans now for a fun get- a - way, Great fellowship, food and plenty of laughter.

Just a friendly reminder, to those who are talented and gifted please remember to donate to the raffle. Items that would be cool, bird houses, wooden game boards, wine racks etc. Yes, we are having our Main Street Reunion!

Keep the rubber side down.

Mike Phillips Sr.

President Napa Valley Cruisers 2022

Just a thought to ponder.....

A Mayo Jar and two cups of Coffee....

When things in your life seem almost too much to handle, when 24 hours in a day is not enough, remember the mayonnaise jar and 2 cups of coffee.

A professor stood before his philosophy class and had some items in front of him. When the class began, wordlessly, he picked up a very large and empty mayonnaise jar and proceeded to fill it with golf balls. He then asked the students if the jar was full. They agreed that it was. The professor then picked up a box of pebbles and poured them into the jar. He shook the jar lightly. The pebbles rolled into the open areas between the golf balls. He then asked the students again if the jar was full. . . They agreed it was. The professor next picked up a box of sand and poured it into the jar. Of course, the sand filled up everything else. He asked once more if the jar was full. The students responded with a unanimous "yes." The professor then produced two cups of coffee from under the table and poured the entire contents into the jar, effectively filling the empty space between the sand. The students laughed. "Now" said the professor, as the laughter subsided "I want you to recognize that this jar represents your life. The golf balls are the important things. Family, children, health, friends, and favorite passions, things that if everything else was lost and only they remained, your life would still be full. The pebbles are the other things that matter, like your job, house, and car. The sand is everything else, the small stuff." "If you put the sand into the jar first," he continued "there is no room for the pebbles or the golf balls. The same goes for life. If you spend all your time and energy on the small stuff, you will never have room for the things that are important to you." "So, pay attention to the things that are critical to your happiness. Play with your children. Take time to get medical checkups. Take your partner out to dinner. Play another 18. There will always be time to clean the house and fix the disposal. Take care of the golf balls first, the things that really matter. Set your priorities, the rest is just sand." One of the students raised her hand and inquired what the coffee represented. The professor smiled. "I'm glad you asked, it just goes to show you that no matter how full your life may seem, there's always room for a couple of cups of coffee with a friend."
