

Cleveland Family Center for Missing Children & Adults

The Cleveland Family Center for Missing Children & Adults is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) dedicated to:

- Deterring abduction and trafficking of all ages and genders.
- Establishing a place for families and survivors to come for support and resources.
- Providing prevention training to the community.
- Raising awareness to create a safe and secure community for all citizens.

Gina Dejesus was abducted on April 2, 2004 while walking home from school in Cleveland, Ohio. She was held against her will for 9 years and eventually escaped with two others on May 6, 2013. Gina's powerful story is known around the world.

Impassioned by their own experiences, Gina and her cousin, Sylvia Colon, co-founded the Cleveland Family Center for Missing Children & Adults to provide a support system for families experiencing the difficult time of missing a loved one.

Volunteer

Donate