General rules of use

1. Kitchen

All cooking (including braai) must be done in the kitchen area. No cooking is to be done in the living area.

We provide biodegradable products in the kitchen and disposable "All purpose" cloth rolls. Please do not use any other detergents.

We provide cutlery, crockery, pots and pans for use. An inventory is available, please ensure you leave all items in clean and packed.

There are braai tongs and braai grid cleaning brushes in the kitchen.

Please note - cloths used must be removed from hut.

2. Mattresses

All mattresses are stored on a bed or a deck. Mattresses must not be moved. Please ensure that mattresses are wiped cleaned should they be messed.

3. Toilet

We provide biodegradable toilet paper. There are extra rolls provided in the dispenser, should you require additional rolls these are available in the hut.

Please only use the biodegradable toilet paper in our eco-loo and no other objects to be thrown in toilet.

4. Fires and ash

Fires must only be made in the designated areas. No fires are allowed outside of the hut. Charcoal must only be used in the braai.

Wood and splitting wood axe are located in the entrance area of the hut. No wood must be split inside the living area or kitchen.

The braai and fireplace must be cleaned before leaving the hut. Ash must only be placed in the ash box situated in the living area.

5. Cleanliness

Please ensure that you clean all areas of the hut prior to leaving.

All areas must be swept.

All surfaces must be washed clean.

Do not leave any of your items in the hut. This includes pillows, sheets and sleeping bags. There are no storage areas for your personal items.

All food and leftovers must be removed from the hut. We recommend closing all food at night.

No writing on the walls or furniture is permitted, this includes carvings, graffiti or any other markings.

NO DIRT MUST BE LEFT AT HUT. PLEASE ENSURE ALL DIRT IS CARRIED DOWN.

Note: The hut is not to be used for commercial purposes. It is intended for use by members of the public to experience Table Mountain.
