1. Why are you interested in serving on the Board of Directors?

I am semi-retired and have the time.

2. Briefly outline the major goals you feel are important for the Colony in the near future.
Creatively maintaining landscaping without spending money.

Maintaining windows and doors throughout The Colony.

Building community so we know our neighbors, resulting in a safer and more beautiful neighborhood.

Staying on top of proposed governmental changes that can positively or negatively affect us.

3. Briefly outline the major long-term goals you feel are important for the Colony.

Infrastructure including pavement

Build up reserves; build up reserves, build up reserves

4. Please detail your strengths/education/experience that you would bring to the Board.

Minnesota School of Business/successfully owned and operated an environmental abatement company, gift shop, staging business, etc., since 1982. / Wore many hats and had great people working with me through many economic changes. Lots of "pivoting" went on throughout the years in order to stay in business and flourish.
