Be sure to read the full job description before deciding the position you wish to hold. Elections will be held in this order:

- 1. Senior Patrol Leader*
- 2. Asst. Senior Patrol Leaders (2)*
- 3. Patrol Leader(3)*

Leadership appointments will then be made by the above for the following:

- 4. Scribe*
- 5. Quartermaster*
- 6. Troop Guide*
- 7. Chaplain Aide
- 8. Librarian
- 9. Historian
- 10. Asst. Patrol Leaders (3) - if needed

These positions are appointed by the SPL with consultation with the Scoutmaster: Den Chief*, OA Representative* and ASPLs

*** Starred (*) positions must attend monthly Patrol Leader Council Meetings.

Positions you are being nominated to:
List only the positions you are willing to hold if elected. You may list more than one position. You may hold only one Troop wide position. Once you are elected to a position, your name will be removed from all subsequent ballots. If you list SPL, name your 2 desired ASPLs.

Select the position you would most like to hold. Give your reasons why you want this position and why you think you will do a good job. You may not be elected to this position. You may be elected to another position.

Troop Positions

All elected leaders are expected to be active in our Troop, set a good example in behavior, attend Troop meetings and wear our uniform properly. SPL, ASPL, Scribe, Patrol Leaders and Troop Guides must attend the PLC. Leaders who cannot do their job must find another Scout to do the job.

1. SPL: The Senior Patrol Leader is in charge of troop meetings. He chairs meetings of the Patrol Leaders' Council. The PLC plans troop activities and programs. The Senior Patrol Leader's job is to see that the troop runs in an orderly and timely manner according to BSA rules and regulations. Requirements: Preferred 14 years old or older and Star rank or higher. 2. Assistant Senior Patrol Leader: The ASPL helps the senior patrol leader lead meetings and activities. He runs the troop in the absence of the SPL. He helps train and supervise the troop scribe, quartermaster, librarian, historian and chaplain aide. Requirements: Preferred 14 years old or older and Star rank or higher. 3. Patrol Leader: The Patrol Leader is the elected leader of his patrol. He represents his patrol at the Patrol Leaders Council. He plans and leads patrol meetings, helps members of his patrol advance and keeps patrol members informed about Troop activities. 4. Assistant Patrol Leader: The APL assists the Patrol Leader in all of his jobs. If the Patrol Leader is absent, the APL serves in the Patrol Leader's place. (This position doesn't count toward advancement leadership credits.) 5. Troop Guide: The Troop Guide is a "mentor" to the new Scouts. He helps the new Scouts earn First Class. He works with the new Scouts providing direction, coaching, and support. Requirements: 1st Class rank or higher. 6. Scribe: The Scribe is the troop's secretary. He attends the Patrol Leaders' Council and keeps notes of the discussions. He is not a voting member of the PLC. During Troop meetings he records attendance.	7. Quartermaster: The Quartermaster is responsible for Troop supplies and equipment. He keeps a current inventory of troop equipment and makes sure it is in good condition. He works with Patrol QMs as they check out and return equipment. He reports to the Patrol Leaders' Council on equipment needing replacement or repair. He works closely with a member of the Troop Committee. 8. Chaplain Aide: The Chaplain Aide assists the troop in religious services. He says grace at meals. He plans and leads Scouts Own service on camp outs. 9. Librarian: Maintains the troop library of merit badge books and other material. He advises the Scoutmaster of new or replacement items needed. He checks out literature, such as merit badge pamphlets, to the Scouts and ensures that the pamphlets are returned in good condition. He makes sure all merit badge pamphlets are the most current editions and he recycles any that are outdated in material. 10. Historian: Maintains troop photos and history of Troop 66. Creates a 3 to 5 minute video presentation for each Troop COH. The SPL &amp; Scoutmaster Appoints these Leaders: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• OA Representative: must be an active OA member. He keeps the Troop informed about OA activities and encourages Troop members to participate in OA.</li> <li>• Den Chief: works with Cubs, Webelos and Den Leaders in the Cub Scout Pack. He must attend Den Chief training. He helps Cub Scouts advance in rank and encourages Cub Scouts to join a Boy Scout troop.</li> <li>• ASPLs</li> </ul>
