Introduction to Our City

Las Vegas and the Metropolitan Area

The City of Las Vegas covers a land area of 135.9 square miles. In addition to Las Vegas, the city's metropolitan region includes North Las Vegas, Boulder City, Henderson, Mesquite and a large number of unincorporated communities.

The downtown area of Las Vegas, known as Glitter Gulch, is characterized by long-established casinos. It is the site of the Fremont Street Experience, a renovation project completed in 1995, designed to revitalize the downtown area and attract more people to the street's casinos. Covering a five-block stretch of Fremont Street, this section is a covered pedestrian mall where thousands of lights play out animated scenes overhead. In addition to the casinos and attractions downtown, more are located on The Strip, a 4.5-mile neon-lined portion of Las Vegas Boulevard, located slightly south of downtown. Some of the extravagant casinos on The Strip play on epic Hollywood themes, while others advertise attractions, such as an Egyptian pyramid, a medieval castle, or an erupting volcano. Ever-grander casinos open each year attracting patrons with such draws as replicas of New York City landmarks or roller-coasters atop towers. Outside the city lies Hoover Dam, a massive concrete dam that was completed in 1936 as part of a federally funded water works project.

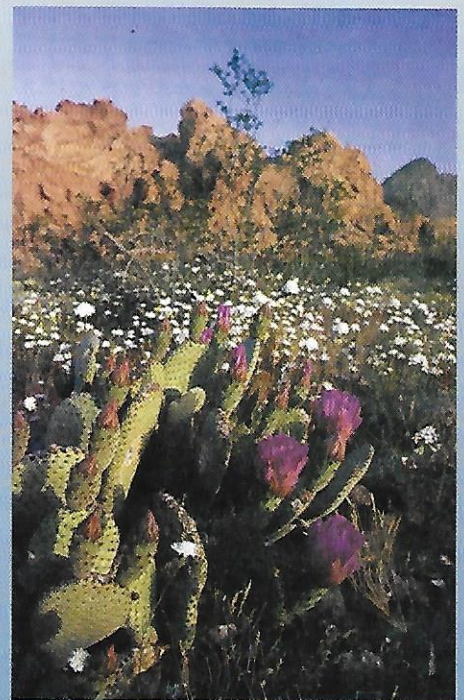

Population Statistics

The population of Las Vegas increased markedly in recent decades, rising from 164,674 in 1980 to 258,295 in 1990. Increasingly, Las Vegas is home to people who have left California for Nevada. California migrants constitute about one-third of newcomers to Las Vegas and contribute to the growth in home construction, landscaping, residential security, and light manufacturing in the increasingly varied Vegas economy. The growth of the Las Vegas metropolitan region was the fastest in the nation in the 1990's, increasing 83 percent between 1990 and 2000. The population of the region jumped from 528,000 in 1980 to 853,000 in 1990. By 2008 the population reached 2,048,700 and is projected to reach 2.7 million by the year 2020.

Climate

While it is hot in the summer, Las Vegas has one of the best climates in the United States. Our summer heat is easier to deal with than the summer heat in most other places including parts of the midwest, east and south. Las Vegas enjoys a low annual humidity with 298 days of sunshine (85%) and a low average rainfall of just 4.05 inches. Since this is a "night-time" 24-hour city, the warm, dry summer nights are outstanding for visitors and locals.

Introduction to Our City

Economy

Las Vegas bills itself as the "Entertainment Capital of the World," with tourism, gaming, and entertainment representing a large portion of the city's revenue. In addition to its renowned casinos, Las Vegas attracts visitors to its outdoor shows, including simulated volcanic eruptions, pirate duels on artificial lakes, laser cannon displays, and the beautiful water shows at the Bellagio. Indoor casino shows with world-famous entertainers, are also popular. Annual events include the National Finals Rodeo and the Las Vegas Motor Speedway which opened in 1996.

The federal government is also a major presence in Las Vegas. Nellis Air Force Base is the city's largest single employer. In addition, there are a number of military bases headquartered nearby, and a permanent nuclear waste site at Yucca Mountain has been approved.

Las Vegas History

Las Vegas was an important stop along the Old Spanish Trail between Santa Fe, New Mexico and southern California for much of the 19th century. The oasis enabled Spanish traders to shorten their route to Los Angeles by cutting directly across the desert. Descriptions of the lush valley, made in 1829 and widely circulated, generated much interest. In 1844 explorer John C. Fremont camped in the Las Vegas Valley and described the fertile landscape in his journals. Missionaries from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (the Mormon Church) began an intermittent settlement of the Las Vegas Valley in 1855. This settlement served as a link to California and the Pacific Ocean. The coming of the railroad in 1905 stabilized the Las Vegas Valley, and an era of slow growth ensued. In the early 1900s Nevada passed laws allowing divorce after only six months' residency in the state. By 1931 the requirement was reduced to six weeks, and Las Vegas gained a reputation as an easy place to get a divorce.

Population growth accelerated in the 1930s with two innovations. In 1931 the Bureau of Reclamation started construction of Boulder (later Hoover) Dam on the nearby Colorado River. It was the largest dam in the world at that time. Dam construction brought job growth, city development, and major federal funds to Las Vegas. That same year, the State of Nevada legalized gambling, facilitating the modern era of Las Vegas, which began with the construction of the Flamingo Casino by gangster Bugsy Siegel in 1945. Other lavish casinos opened soon after, most of which were influenced or owned by criminals.

Hotel and motel construction boomed after the war, with showy new casinos being built. A trend began toward huge resorts and family-oriented theme parks. Las Vegas is home to the largest hotel resort in the world with the building of the Palazzo. Las Vegas also lays claim to 9 of the 10 largest resort hotels in the world and growing larger every day.

Employment in Las Vegas

Relocation to Las Vegas

Low unemployment, an expanding skilled labor force, an exceptional tax structure, a pro-business environment and great climate has helped make Las Vegas the fastest growing metro area in the nation since 1990!

The population explosion has resulted in great opportunities for new businesses and more jobs. Las Vegas ranks among the top cities in job growth; an important factor to relocating individuals and families.

Because tourism adds up to nearly one-third of the state's annual tax revenue, business owners are not subject to corporate income tax or franchise, inventory or unitary taxes. Residents pay no personal income tax. The U.S. Commerce Department's Economic Analysis Bureau ranks Las Vegas as the top metro area for income per capita with an annual growth rate of 2.3%

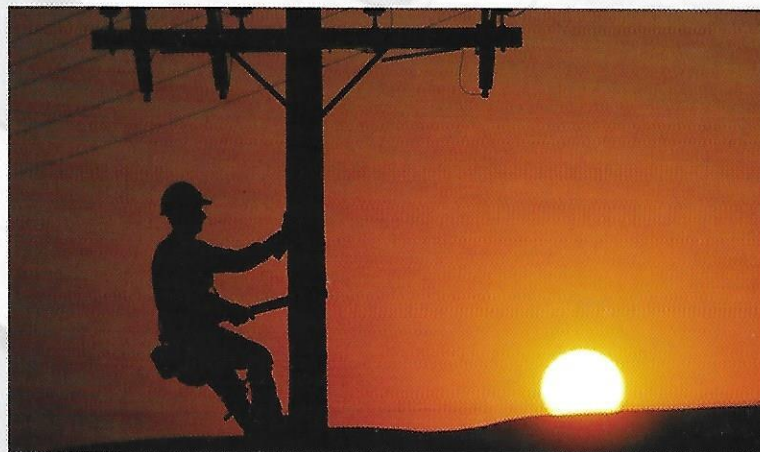

If you are planning to relocate, Las Vegas should be at the top of your list of desirable locations. The Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce extends a warm welcome inviting you to get to know our residents, become involved in commerce and call Las Vegas home.

EMPLOYMENT CARDS / CERTIFICATION

If you are hired in a food and beverage or child care position, you must obtain a health card from the Clark County Health District. If you are hired in hotel or gaming, you are required to have a Sheriff's Work Card. If you handle or work directly around liquor, you are required to have a Total Alcohol Management (TAM) Card. For information about obtaining a Sheriff's Work Card, call (702) 828-3271; a Health Card call (702) 759-1099; or a TAM Card, call (702) 647-1954.

JOB HELPS

The Las Vegas Review-Journal includes a section with employment opportunities. Call (702) 383-0211 to order a newspaper subscription or click on lvj.com or lasvegas.com to get online job listings. Publications such as Employment News are useful in your job search. The major hotels/casinos all have job lines.

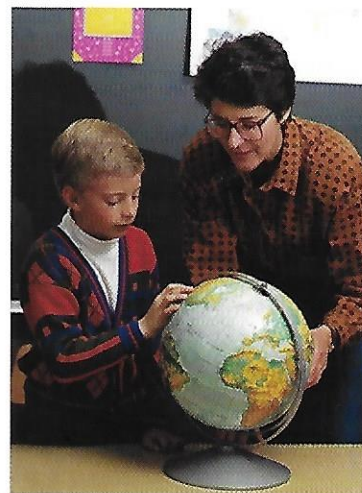

What You Need to Know About School Enrollment

CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Clark County School District (CCSD) has placed a strong emphasis on education, and, today, the CCSD continues to win national recognition for its programs. Current enrollment is 307,059 students. The Clark County School District services Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, Henderson, Boulder City, Indian Springs, Mesquite, Laughlin and Searchlight, as well as all rural areas in the county. It is the 5th largest school district in the nation according to Educational Research Service, with 216 elementary schools, 63 middle schools, 51 high schools, 28 alternative, 12 rural, for a total of 370 schools.

Children between the ages of 6 and 17 years old are required by Nevada law to attend school. Under a new state law, to enter first grade, a child must either attend a state-approved kindergarten program or pass a development test. Picking the right school for your child is of utmost importance. From kindergarten through college graduation in Las Vegas, here are some valuable tips and needed information for every parent and student.

ENROLLMENT

Children must be five years old on or before September 30 to enroll in kindergarten in the Clark County School District. When enrolling your child in school, you must have two forms of proof of residence (utility bill, lease or rent receipt, sales contract) child's identification (original certified birth certificate, passport or certified birth card) and immunization records. If you have previous school records showing placement in any special classes or programs, a recent report card showing the name and address of their former school, their most recent achievement test scores and/or any information about special health conditions will expedite the enrollment process and ensure proper placement.

IMMUNIZATIONS

Painful as it may be, all school-age children must be up to date on all of their immunizations in order to enroll in Las Vegas area schools. Kindergartners need five DPT (Diphtheria, Pertussis and Tetanus) vaccinations, four Polio vaccinations and two MMR (Measles, Mumps and Rubella) vaccinations. For students new to Nevada schools (whether entering school for the first time, or transferring from another state), the requirements are: • Two Hepatitis A Shots (2nd dose must be given at least 6 months after the 1st dose.), Three Hepatitis B Shots (Must have a minimum of four months between 1st and 3rd dose.), and two Chickenpox (Varicella) shots (2nd shot only required if 1st shot given after the age of 13 years. Minimum of two months spacing between shots required.) The Health Department also offers Hepatitis A and Chicken Pox vaccinations for a $15 administration fee. Parents of all school-age children can take advantage of these two opportunities anytime, not just during the back-to-school rush. Matriculating college freshmen also need to make sure to get Tetanus and MMR boosters.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The Clark County School District offers a wide range of specialized programs to meet the diverse needs of its student body. Bilingual and English as second language programs are available, as well as reinforced reading, gifted and talented programs. Every high school has an honors program and offers Advanced Placement classes. Valley and Green Valley High Schools also offer International Baccalaureate classes, which give students the opportunity to receive both high school and college credit for elective courses taken on the CCSN campus.

Over seventeen magnet schools are offered in addition to the regular curriculum including a performing arts high school, international studies, travel and tourism, math, science and communications and aerospace technology.

Relocating to Your Oasis in the Sun

Moving can be an exciting experience.... It is also ranked among life's most stressful events. Whether you are relocating across town or across the country, with the proper planning and preparation, your move can be smooth. Local Realtors® can also be of invaluable assistance.

A good way to reduce stress is to develop a calendar that starts six weeks before your move. This calendar will serve as the "countdown" to moving day.

Six weeks before the move

- Take an objective look at what you own and decide what must go and what can be left behind.
- Contact moving companies to get estimates. Be aware of cost, but also ask them what they'll do to make your move as smooth as possible. Get an estimate from your mover on the cost of letting the company professionally pack all or part of your belongings. The time and effort you save may be worth the cost.
- Organize a garage sale if you have a lot of things worth selling.
- If you've decided to let your mover pack for you, separate what you plan to sell, give away, throw away and keep.
- Contact your Realtor, Chamber of Commerce or Visitor's Bureau of your new town for information on schools, parks, maps, etc... (You've already got the information you need in this Relocation Guide!) or contact your Realtor for a Ticor Title Seller/Buyer Handbook.
- Start a central file for all of the details on your move. Keep receipts for moving-related expenses; you may be entitled to a tax deduction.
- Create a floor plan of your new home and begin thinking about where you'll want to place furniture. Mark and label specific pieces of furniture on your diagram and put it in your moving folder.

Five weeks before the move

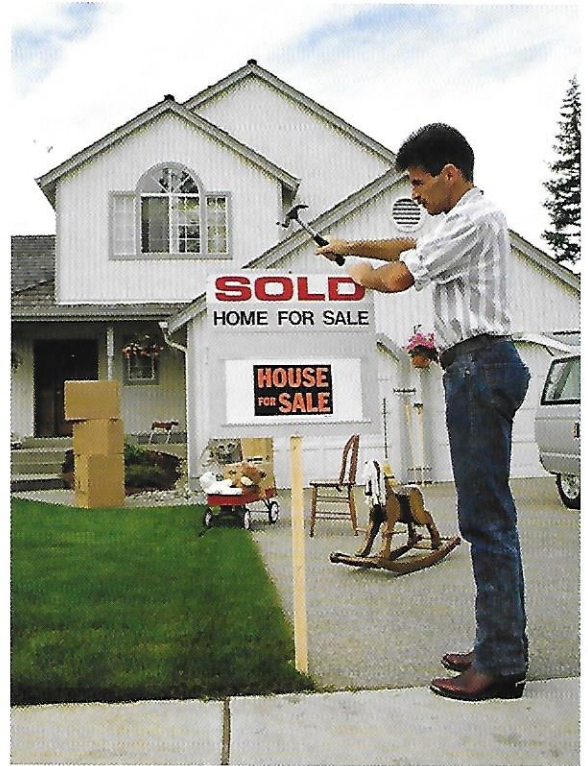

- Select your mover and meet to discuss dates and costs.
- If you've decided to pack yourself, you'll need to start gathering boxes. Your mover can provide boxes best suited for moving, including special purpose containers for clothing on hangers, lamp shades, mirrors, etc.

Four weeks before the move

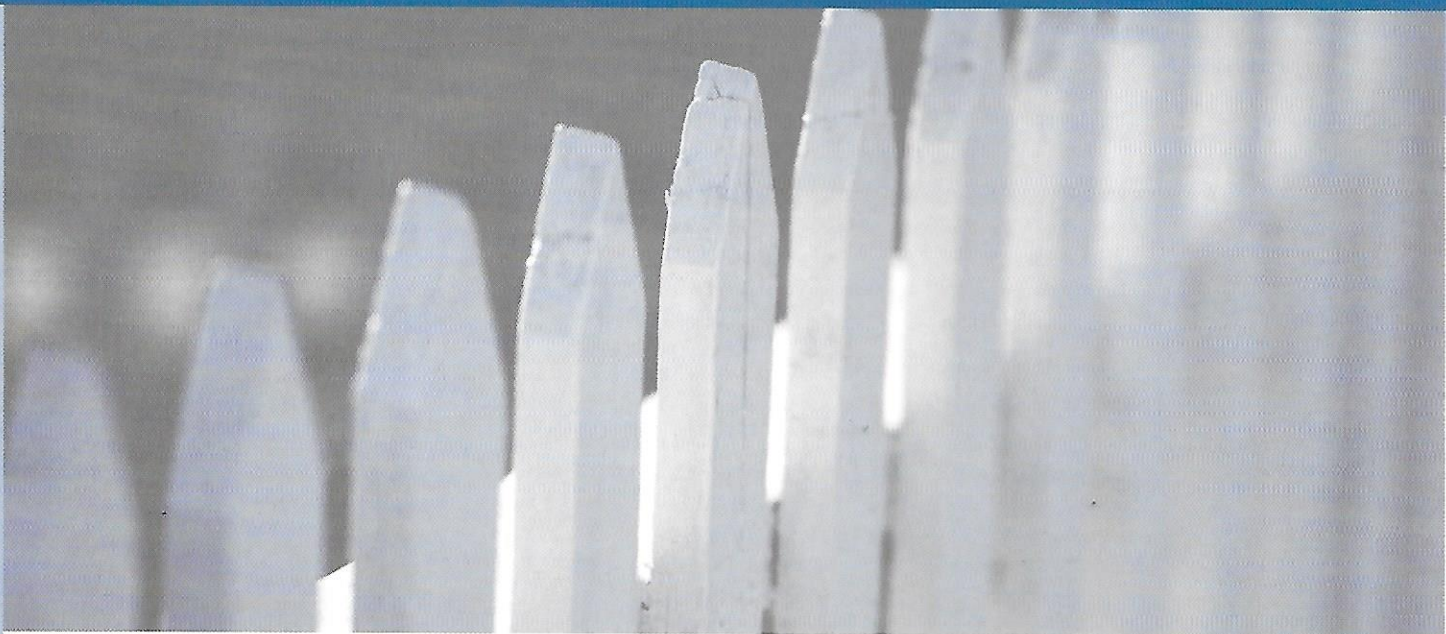

- Notify the post office, magazines, credit card companies and friends and family of your change of address. The U.S. Postal Service offers a kit to make this process easier. You can obtain a change of address kit online at www.usps.com.
- Contact utility companies to schedule disconnection of services on the day after your move.
- Call the utilities to arrange for service to start the day before your move so you have service at your new home.
- If you're planning to move major appliances, talk with your mover to schedule disconnection and servicing a few days before the move.
- If packing yourself, start packing seldom-used articles. As you pack, remember to keep each box light enough to be handled by any family member. Heavy items go in small boxes, light items in larger boxes.
- If you are planning a garage sale, pick a date at least a week before the move and advertise it locally.

Three weeks before the move

- Take inventory of your everyday household goods. Decide which items you will discard or store.
- Self-packers should start serious packing. Label the contents of all boxes and pack carefully.
- Don't forget your driver's license, auto registration and insurance records.
- Contact your doctors, dentist and veterinarian for medical records.
- Pack phone books.
- Plan food purchases to have as little as possible in the refrigerator by the time you leave.
- Arrange to have your new home cleaned thoroughly.
- Contact your children's schools and arrange for records to be forwarded to the new schools.
- Make new bank safe deposit box arrangements, if necessary.
- Hold a garage sale.

Moving Tips

Two weeks before the move

- Contact your insurance company to cancel current coverage and/or transfer coverage to your new home.
- Make arrangements for transporting pets and houseplants.
- Meet with your bank to change account information.
- Transfer current prescriptions.
- Cancel any delivery services.
- Have your automobile serviced.
- Empty secret hiding places to remove valuables and spare house keys.

One week before the move

- Mow your lawn for the last time.
- Dispose of toxic or flammable items that can't be moved. Drain fluids from gas-powered tools.
- Pack your "trip kit" of necessary items that should go in your car and not the moving van.
- Plan to take important papers, jewelry, cherished family photos, mementos and computer files with you.
- If you have young children, make arrangements for a babysitter on moving day; also, arrange for a babysitter to be available when you arrive at your new home.
- Pack your own suitcase of clothes for the move.
- Pay outstanding bills; be sure to indicate your new address on payment receipts.
- Remove fixtures you are taking with you and replace if required in your contract.

One to two days before the move

- Empty and defrost your refrigerator and freezer.
- Arrange for payment to the moving company.
- Leave a forwarding address and phone for the old home's buyers.
- If your old house will be sitting vacant, notify police and neighbors.

Moving Day

- Remove linens from the beds and pack in an "open first" box.
- Review details and paperwork with the movers when they arrive.
- Give home a final cleaning or arrange for someone to perform this service the day after moving out.

When you arrive at your new home, unpack only what you need for the first day or two. Give yourself a minimum of two weeks to unpack and get organized.

Transportation

Las Vegas is centrally located in the Southwest quadrant of the United States. It is partly because of this that Las Vegas was destined to become a distribution and transportation center. Easy access to California, Arizona, Utah and many other places in the west has helped make Las Vegas a primary warehousing point for several large, nationally-based corporations.

Las Vegas is a hub for airlines, railroads, trucking and highways. Major and regional airlines find Las Vegas to be one of their most popular destinations. Las Vegas was founded as a railroad city. Because of its central location, it is still a principal on-route destination for the railroads. McCarran International Airport is the 11th busiest airport in the world. Private aviation is serviced at McCarran, the North Las Vegas Air Terminal and Sky Harbor Airport in Henderson. Limousine and taxi service is available 24 hours. The Las Vegas Citizens Area Transit (CAT) services the residential routes of Las Vegas and Henderson in addition to the "Strip".

Driver's License and Vehicle Registration

To get a Nevada driver's license, you must relinquish your out-of-state license, take an eye exam, pass the written exam and pay a $21.75 fee ($16.75 if you are 65 or older). If you are over 25 and your current license has no outstanding violations, the written exam is waived. New residents have 30 days to transfer out-of-state licenses.

There are four full service DMV offices in Las Vegas. ➔

Registering Your Car

To register your car in Clark County you must have a smog check exam done from a certified inspection station. New cars are exempt. Documents necessary for registration include the vehicle's current registration certificate, title (unless held by lienholder), vehicle inspection certificate done at the DMV, smog certificate, Nevada evidence of insurance card, an odometer reading and your out-of-state license plates.

Insurance Information

Nevada law requires drivers to carry vehicle insurance that is written by a state-licensed insurance agent.

The minimum coverage requirements are:

$15,000 bodily injury, $30,000/person/accident, and $10,000 property damage.

It is mandatory that a proof of insurance card be kept in your vehicle at all times. The fine for driving without proof of insurance can be as high as $500.

Voter Registration

Nevada is a closed primary state, which means voters cannot vote for partisan offices in the primary election unless they are either registered with the Democratic or Republican parties.

To register to vote in Clark County, applicants must be a U.S. citizen, 18 years old by the election date and have lived in the state and county for at least 30 days and within their precinct 10 days prior to the election.

To receive an application by mail, call, write, or fax a request to the Clark County Election Department at 455-VOTE. Mail-in applications are available at the LVCC and all libraries and post offices. You may also register to vote at the Clark County Election Dept. or any of the Department of Motor Vehicle Offices.

Las Vegas offers many opportunities for getting involved, from joining one of the nearly 450 houses of worship to volunteering at senior citizens' groups or youth organizations. Area residents have been exceedingly generous in donating both time and effort to help others.

Getting involved is not only a way of helping improve the community, but it's also a great way to meet other residents with common interests and needs. There are interesting possibilities for young and old alike, so everyone can find their niche.

Senior Citizens.... What a Wonderful World We Have For You!

Since the early 1980s, Southern Nevada has become one of the leading sunbelt retirement destinations. The Las Vegas area offers some of the best weather available in the United States, 24-hour entertainment, low cost of living, a very favorable economic base, a wide variety of recreational opportunities, quality health care and a location with easy access to the Southwest and the World. With this steady growth of new senior residents, there have been a number of organizations and programs designed with the senior in mind. The latest census survey showed there were more than 188,000 retired persons living in Southern Nevada. Fifty-One percent (51%) have lived here for 11 years or more.

The AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF RETIRED PERSONS (AARP) is a valuable source of information and resources for members and the community.

A smaller properties -- Peppermill Resort Hotel & Casino and Falcon Ride Hotel are also located in Mesquite. Activities include golf, tennis, sporting clays, health spa, and western ranch.

PRIMM - Three major casinos, Whiskey Pete's, Prim Valley and Buffalo Bill's. The three resorts are linked by monorail. Buffalo Bill's features the world's steepest, fastest roller coaster. Primm is the last chance for motorists to gamble in Nevada. Shopping is also available at the Primm Fashion Outlets located just off Exit 1 on I-15.

JEAN - Two major casinos, Gold Strike Casino and Nevada Landing, flank Interstate 15 approximately 25 miles south of Las Vegas; rooms from $25 a night during the week; 5 cent arcade for children; RV park.

HACIENDA - This major casino is just three miles west of Hoover Dam and is the first gaming enterprise travelers encounter after driving to Nevada from Arizona across the dam. Features a 17-story hotel with 378 rooms.

Lakes

There are only two lakes of note in Southern Nevada, Lake Mead and Lake Mojave. Both lakes have excellent fishing, and the marinas provide boats, fishing equipment and gear for other water sports. Some of the nation's best fishing is available within two to three hours from Las Vegas in southern Utah. The Pacific Ocean is only 320 miles away, where ocean fishing trips are common occurrences.

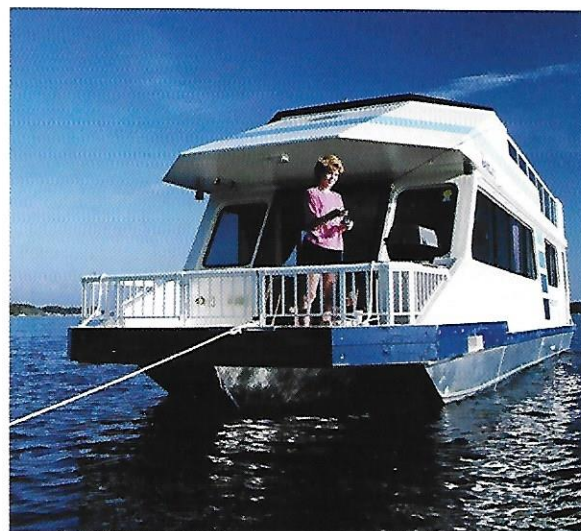

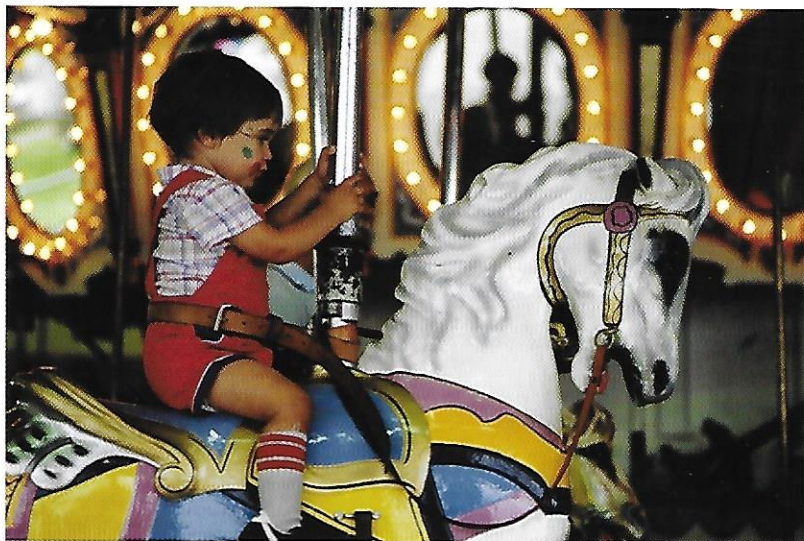

Fishing/Hunting/Trapping
