

Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show Rules & Guidelines

- All rules and guidelines below are for all contestants unless otherwise indicated.
- Must be born and compete as a female.
- Must be a student between the 8th and 11th grades as of January of the contest year.
- Must be a resident of Liberty County.
- May not be married, nor ever married, nor had a marriage nullified or be living with significant other. May not be pregnant, or ever been pregnant, or have been charged with a felony or misdemeanor.
- If the new Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show becomes pregnant or marries during her reign, she will forfeit her title as Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show and return all prizes and money won to the Cleveland Livestock Show Queen's Committee. Title, prizes, money and duties will be awarded to first runner up.
- Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show shall possess good morals and character, set high standards and judgments, serve as a positive role model for all youth and our community.
- No former Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show titleholders are eligible.
- Cannot have won a crown in any other contest in Liberty County.
- Contestants must be currently enrolled in a Texas approved School. Must be in good standing and maintaining passing grades. A copy of the current report card must accompany entry form and will serve as residency and age requirements.
- Check Schedule of Events for date, time and location of Orientation.
- Competition fee of $40 must be made payable to Cleveland Livestock Show.
- Must be in rodeo/western attire with contestant banner on at all Cleveland Rodeo and Livestock Show events.
- No drinking of alcoholic beverages, smoking, public display of affection (kissing, holding hands, sexual contact) during the Cleveland Rodeo or Livestock Show weeks. This behavior will result in immediate disqualification and banned from future queen competitions at Cleveland Livestock Show.
- Only Cleveland Livestock Show related scheduling conflicts approved by the pageant coordinator will be allowed.
- Failure to attend and compete at all judged and required events will result in disqualification and loss of all prizes, money, and competition fee. Promptness and politeness are essential. Remember you are an ambassador for the Cleveland Livestock Show.
- All Judges' decisions are final. Scores remain the property of the Cleveland Livestock Show Queen Committee.
- Each contestant will receive her score and the Queen's score along with any judges notes left for the contestant.
- Any contestant, parent, or guest demonstrating poor sportsmanship, argumentative, etc. Will be asked to leave the event. If it is a contestant, she will be disqualified immediately. This includes wearing shirts disparaging the current or new queen.
- A photographer will be present at orientation to take headshots for the newspaper. Arrive camera ready in western attire (shirt/jeans/hat). This will be the picture that is judges for photogenic.
- ATTIRE FOR ENTIRE COMPETITION: Western attire required. White long sleeve,(or what color we vote on) button up shirt, black pants, hat, and boots. Accessary are optional. Accessary means earrings, necklaces.

Interview

- Western attire required. Long sleeve western button up shirt(color will be decided on by a vote), black pants, hat, and boots.
- Contestant banner must be worn.
- Speech time limit is 3 to 5 minutes.
- Contestant will be given all the information she needs for the contest.
- Prepared speech, interviews and impromptu questioning will all be private. You will be allowed one parent in the room. Absolutely No Videoing or Cameras.

Horsemanship

- Must provide your own horse, saddle, tack. You will ride a reigning pattern on your horse. Competing order will be draw.
- NO STUD HORSES ALLOWED.

- A copy of current negative coggins with a valid date through the complete of the rodeo schedule must be provided.
- Pattern will be provided at orientation.
- At completion of your horsemanship pattern you will ride to judges and ride a “Queen’s Lap”.
- Discussion of any questions on the paper test is an automatic disqualification.
- Only contestants, judges, and committee will be allowed in arena and holding arena. NO parents, family or friends will be allowed in these areas. Only horse owners will be allowed in the arena or holding area in case of a horse emergency only.
- Contestant’s banners must be worn with white long sleeve button up shirt, black pants, hat, and boots.
- There will be NO coaching from the stands or anywhere around the arena while during the contest.

Rodeo

- Must be on the premises and checked in with Queen Committee behind the alley way at set time . Promptness is essential.
- Western style long sleeved shirt, jeans, hats and boots. Contestants Banners must be worn at all times.
- Must own horse that will be able to carry a flag. Horses must be flag broke!!
- Will be required to ride in Grand Entry, Carry Sponsor Flags and be announced during the rodeo as a queen contestant. ALL MONIES COLLECTED FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND ARE DUE BEFORE SET DATE.
- Will be required to ride in and do a Queen’s Lap then line up at the beginning of the arena as all contestants are announced, then ride out in unison completing another queen’s lap.

Coronation

- Western attire, long sleeve shirt, pants, hat, boots.
- Contestant banner must be worn.
- Must be Camera Ready.

Livestock Show

- Western style long sleeve shirt, jeans, hats and boots required. Contestant Banners or Queen Banner must be worn at all times.
- The schedule of events will be provided at the Orientation
- Contestants will sign up to work each livestock show after the interview on the day of the contest. One contestant /Queen per show. Contestants will draw for order of assignments.
- School and work excuses will be available upon request.
- Be Camera Ready.

Buyer’s Dinner & Livestock Sale & Freezer Sale

- Western style long sleeve shirt, jean, hats and boots required. Contestant Banners or Queen Banner must be worn at all times.
- Will be responsible for getting BUYERS drinks, WELCOMING them to the sale, HELPING them with their food and clean up during the buyer’s dinner.
- Will be responsible for assisting the auction committee in getting buyer information and spotting buyers as the auctioneer makes the sale.

Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show Rules

- Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show has the option to represent CLS at the following year’s Miss Rodeo Texas pageant in June. If Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show chooses not to compete; the 1st runner up may compete. Competition fee will not be provided. All costs will be sole responsibility of the contestant. Must be in compliance of rules and regulations.
- Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show and her court (1st through 3rd Runners Up) will be required to attend all selected CLS activities and appearances scheduled throughout the year by the pageant coordinator and CLS Board of Directors. She must be able to return for Orientation, Contest, Parade and Rodeo.

- Failure to comply with all titleholder duties and continue compliance of rules and guidelines during her reign will result in forfeiture of her title and return of all prizes and monies awarded.
- At any time any of the rules listed above are broken it is at the Chairman's discretion to disqualify a contestant on grounds of breaking the rules as provided for them in the contestant packet. Miss Rodeo Cleveland Livestock Show must be in compliance with all rules and guidelines the year she won her title.
- In the event of a tie in any category's the over JUDGES Score will be used for tie breakers and the selling of rodeo tickets are used for tie breakers if there is a tie for QUEEN.

Scholarship Contest and Awards

- Contest is on a Point System.
- If any contestant has done nothing in a category then that contestant gets zero points in that category.
- No awards will be awarded until after the completion of the entire Queens competition, excluding the Queen Crown and Queen Banner.
- All Scholarship money will be paid directly to the school in full at the first semester.
- One part of the contest is getting sponsorships. The money will be turned in by the date of the Queens Coordinator seems deemed.
- Scholarship money is based on how much money is raised. If enough money is raised all contestants should receive a Scholarship. (after expenses)
- "TOTAL MONEY RAISED" IS CONSIDERED TO BE THE TOTAL AFTER EXPENSES.
- If there is a tie for Queens- the sale of Rodeo Tickets will be used as a tie breaker.
- Monies will be raised by selling raffle tickets and fundraising items and collecting sponsorships.

CONTESTANT SIGNATURE _____

CONTESTANT NAME (PRINTED) _____

PARENTS SIGNATURE _____

PARENTS NAME (PRINTED) _____

DATE: _____

