They're supposed to... We have a weekly meeting, but again, I don't recall this being discussed. And I definitely have not been receiving can/pans to review...

I know of it. I assume all CAN's follow a vetted process before they come to me for any input.

Did any of you know about this? Granted, I have missed a few of the recent "issues" meetings, but I don't recall ever hearing about this...

I certainly **never** saw this CAN...

In preparation for the upcoming call.

- Below is the CAN that was sent out on 1.16.20
- Yesterday I received news from Nick that Cheryl had additional questions
- Last night I shared with Kate/Cheryl that additional talking points would be coming and shared the list of impacted states Nick had shared with me (same list included in meeting invite)
- Cheryl later reached out saying she had no additional questions if MI was not impacted.
(the Prime is on the price list in MI, but to date no purchases have been made)

Thank you,
