SUNDAY, AUGUST 1, 2021 ~ EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is celebrated on dates that are mutually convenient for Father DiMaria and the parents. Before a Baptism date can be set, parents should secure letters of eligibility for their recommended Godparents and present them to the rectory. Parents attendance at our Parish's Pre-Jordan program should be satisfied before a Baptism date is set. Parents are asked not to make any celebratory arrangements until a Baptism date is confirmed by our Rectory staff.

The Sacrament of Confession

Saturday afternoon: 3:00pm – 3:45pm.
By appointment at the rectory anytime.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Please speak to Father DiMaria at least six months before your anticipated Wedding date. Couples should not make any celebratory arrangements until after they have met with Father at our Parish.

The Sacrament of The Sick

Please speak to Father DiMaria if you or a family member wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick. It is always appropriate to receive this Sacrament before surgery, during a serious illness or in the final stages of life.

Our Parish Prayer of Unity

Heavenly Father,
You call us to be Your faith-filled people,
United in the Sacred Heart of Your Son.
Grant us the grace to always respond to
Your call with lives of active faith, firm hope and Christian charity.
Aided by the example of Saint Augustine,
may we always seek to embrace and love
the teachings of Your Church.
Accompanied by Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
may we, in joyful times and in times of Sorrow,
always strive to be faithful followers of Your Son,
Jesus Christ,
for He lives and reigns with You,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever!
Amen!

FATHER CHUCK'S CHALLENGE

Next weekend Fr. Charles Kennedy will be speaking at our Masses for the annual Mission Appeal. He represents Father Chuck's Challenge, an initiative celebrating the memory and ministry of Father Charles Pfeffer, a deceased beloved priest of our Archdiocese.

Over the last fourteen years, donors to Father Chuck's Challenge have provided more than 1,400 homes for desperately poor beneficiaries, previously living virtually homeless, in plastic and plank shelters, in an area frequently ravished by tropical storms – in the Northern Highlands of Nicaragua and in hurricane ravaged Haiti. But hundreds more need help of all kinds.

Information is available on our website www.fatherchuckschallenge.com.
This includes a video on our trip to Haiti .

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

These are difficult times and issues for our country. Are you asking yourself what to do? Prayer is always a good answer. The Sacred Heart Pro Life Holy Hour at 12:00 noon each Wednesday is an opportunity to come together in prayer to ask for God's help on issues affecting our nation and families. All are Welcome!

We are happy to keep your loved ones on our Parish prayer list for four weeks. If they would benefit from remaining on our prayer list after this period of time, please call the rectory and we will happily keep them on our prayer list.

Guardian angel, watch over those whose names you can read in my heart. Guard over them with every care and make their way easy and their labours fruitful. Dry their tears if they weep; sanctify their joys; raise their courage if they weaken; restore their hope if they lost heart, their health they are ill.

ETERNAL REST, GRANT UNTO THEM O LORD!

"May His soul and all the souls of the faithful departed Rest in peace"

Beginning last week and continuing now for the next four weeks, the sixth chapter of St. John's Gospel will be proclaimed at the Liturgy. This sixth chapter, beginning with the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fish and concluding with our Lord's discourse on the Bread of Life, shows the centrality of the Holy Eucharist in the lives of all sincere Christians. Truly the Lord has given us His Flesh and Blood to eat and drink so that we may have eternal life and rise with Him on the last day. The Eucharist becomes available to us through Holy Mass. Please ponder the following essay by Msgr. Pope and ask the Lord to strengthen and anchor your life in the worship of Him who created you.

God love you!

Fr. DiMaria

How the Liturgy is Healing Medicine for Strident Times – Msgr. Charles Pope

One of the most concise and cogent descriptions of these often-strident times came from Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger in 1986. It is contained in, of all places, his treatise on the theology of sacred music in a book called The Feast of Faith (Ignatius Press, 1986). His comments have been republished in a larger compendium of his works, Collected Works: Theology of the Liturgy (Ignatius Press, 2014, Vol 11).

It is hard to describe our times as anything but contentious. Loud, strident protests often predominate over reasoned discourse and thoughtful argumentation.

To be sure, every era has had, and has needed, protest and public opposition to injustice. There is a time and a place for loud protest and the use of memorable sound bites.

However, it is the predominance of loud protest and civil disobedience that stands out today. Sound bites, slogans, and simplistic "war cries" have to a large extent replaced thoughtful, reasoned discourse. Volume, power, and visually flashy techniques are prized; they are being used more and more. Such approaches too frequently produce more heat than light.

Consider, then, this remarkable analysis by Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, written back before the Internet and social media had turned up the volume even more. Ratzinger paraphrased an insight of Gandhi's, applied it to his analysis of our current times, and then proposed a healing remedy to restore balance:

I would like to note a beautiful saying of Mahatma Gandhi ... Gandhi refers to the three habitats of the cosmos and how each of these provides its own mode of being. The fish live in the sea, and they are silent. The animals of the earth scream and shout; but the birds, whose habitat is the heavens, sing. Silence is proper to the sea, shouting to the earth and singing to the heavens. Man has a share in all three of them. He carries the depths of the sea, the burden of the earth, and the heights of the heavens in himself. And for this reason, all three properties also belong to him: silence, shouting, and singing.

Today – I would like to add – we see only the shouting is left for the man without transcendence, since he only wants to be of the earth....

The right liturgy, the liturgy of the Communion of the Saints, restores totality to him. It teaches him silence and singing again by opening him to the depths of the sea and teaching him to fly, the angels' mode of being. It brings the song buried in him to sound once more by lifting up his heart. . . .

Right liturgy ... liberates us from ordinary, everyday activity and returns to us once more the depths and the heights, silence, and song ... Right liturgy ... sings with the angels ... is silent with the expectant depths of the universe, and that is how it redeems the earth (Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, Collected Works, Vol 11, Theology of the Liturgy, Ignatius Press, p. 460).

This is a remarkable analysis and an insightful application of liturgy and cosmology to the issues and imbalances of our day! It is in the vein of "Save the liturgy, save the world." For indeed, only in the worship of God do we find our true selves. Only in the liturgy is our true personality formed. The human person in his glory unites the material and spiritual orders. We are capable of pregnant, expectant silence; of the joyful shout of praise and the Gospel going forth; and of the song of Heaven.

As Ratzinger pointed out, though, we too often are preoccupied with and value only one aspect: the shouting of the earthbound creatures of this world. But the liturgy – good and proper liturgy – trains us in all three and accomplishes the balance that is so often lost today. The liturgy is a training ground, not only for our heavenly destination, but also in what it means to be truly human.

Read and carefully consider Cardinal Ratzinger's reflection. It will bless your soul; I know it has blessed mine.

Heat and Humidity doesn't stop this gang! On Wednesday evening, July 21, thirteen members of Caring for Friends Ministry met and assembled 259 breakfast bags! Father DiMaria was among those attending and he shared some great news: we will begin meeting back at our Parish Hall in September.

This month we collected 73 toothbrushes and toothpaste, 78 Ensures and 52 packages of feminine hygiene products.

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!
