Saint Augustine, Our Lady of Mount Carmel & Our Mother of Sorrows ~ 'United In The Sacred Heart'

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2021 ~ SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is celebrated on dates that are mutually convenient for Father Nasta and the parents. Before a Baptism date can be set, parents should secure letters of eligibility for their recommended Godparents and present them to the rectory. Parents attendance at our Parish's Pre-Jordan program should be satisfied before a Baptism date is set. Parents are asked not to make any celebratory arrangements until a Baptism date is confirmed by our Rectory staff.

The Sacrament of Confession

Saturday afternoon: 3:15pm – 3:45pm.
By appointment at the rectory anytime.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Please speak to Father Nasta at least six months before your anticipated Wedding date.
Couples should not make any celebratory arrangements until after they have met with Father at our Parish.

The Sacrament of The Sick

Please speak to Father Nasta if you or a family member wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick.

It is always appropriate to receive this Sacrament before surgery, during a serious illness or in the final stages of life.

Our Parish Prayer of Unity

Heavenly Father,
You call us to be Your faith-filled people,
United in the Sacred Heart of Your Son.
Grant us the grace to always respond to
Your call with lives of active faith, firm hope and Christian charity.
Aided by the example of Saint Augustine,
may we always seek to embrace and love
the teachings of Your Church.
Accompanied by Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
may we, in joyful times and in times of Sorrow,
always strive to be faithful followers of Your Son,
Jesus Christ,
for He lives and reigns with You,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever!
Amen!

All things are Possible

Dear Friends,

Most Reverend Michael Fitzgerald, Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia, will be here next Sunday to confirm 7 of our young parishioners during the 10:15 AM Mass. Because the limited seating capacity in our church due to the pandemic will become even more limited, it is suggested for people who usually attend the 10:15 AM Mass on Sundays to come instead to the 8 AM Mass next Sunday.

Pope Francis announced that 2021 is a year to be dedicated to Saint Joseph. To commemorate this observance, we will be having two liturgical celebrations on his feast day, Friday, March 19. Morning Mass at 8 AM will include the praying of Morning Prayer. That evening at 7 PM there will be a Holy Hour consisting of devotional prayers to Saint Joseph, Evening Prayer, and Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Holy Hour will take the place of Stations of the Cross. All are invited.

The next regular parish Holy Hour will take place at 7 PM the following Thursday, March 25, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. All are invited to join in praying the Rosary, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Evening Prayer and Benediction.

As a minimal obligation all persons over the age of 14 are seriously bound to abstain from eating meat on the Fridays of Lent. Stations of the Cross are prayed at 7:00 PM on the Fridays of Lent.

In the event inclement weather causes travel to become dangerous, like it did with the snow and freezing rain we had after Ash Wednesday, morning Mass will be cancelled and the intention for that Mass will be transferred to the next available day. The safety of everyone, particularly our seniors who attend Mass regularly on weekdays, is paramount. Thank you for your understanding.

A letter of thanks dated February 12, 2021 from A Baby's Breath was recently received. It reads in part:

Dear Sacred Heart Church:

On behalf of everyone at A Baby's Breath, I wish to express our gratitude to you for your generous donation of diapers, baby toiletries and gift cards for the Jeffersonville Center in 2020.

Your donation will go a long way in keeping the doors of life open to mothers, fathers, and families who need support in a crisis pregnancy and beyond. A Baby's breath has helped hundreds of babies take their first breath.

Our organization provides free pregnancy counseling, tutoring, prenatal classes, parenting classes, and assistance in setting goals for the mother's future. We also offer support in obtaining resources that will help her and her family. "A Baby's Breath: is a volunteer organization and no money is spent on salaries.

Thanks to your assistance, we will be able to spread the word about our services. May God bless you for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Jodi Kohar, Donations Coordinator

Monsignor George Majoros, former parochial vicar here at Sacred Heart, was appointed by Pope Francis to be the Missionary of Mercy for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. All Missionaries of Mercy, including Monsignor Majoros, are granted permission by the Holy Father to absolve sins that are reserved to the Holy See for forgiveness. Examples of these sins are the desecration of the Blessed Sacrament and the recording of what is said during a Confession, whether real or simulated, and/or disclosing what was said on social media. Monsignor is available for Confession on the first Sunday of each month at 5:30 PM at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, 18th Street and Benjamin Franklin Parkway, Philadelphia, PA 19103.

Sincerely,

Fr. Nasta

A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,

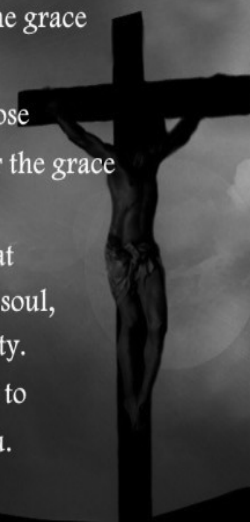

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you.
Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul, remind me of the grace and simplicity.

May this season be grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

Faith Formation

Mater et Magistra ("Mother and Teacher") was promulgated by Pope St. John XXIII on May 15, 1961, the 70th anniversary of the prominent encyclical on social justice issued by Pope Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum ("Of New Things"), the initial papal encyclical to blend social principals of the day with Gospel values. It was the fifth of eight encyclicals John issued during the nearly six years he was the Bishop of Rome.

John begins by detailing conditions of the late 19th century in which laborers lived and worked that led to Leo's groundbreaking encyclical. The era was one of social and economic upheaval which led to open protests, insubordination, and revolts. Some owners of businesses and industry became extremely wealthy. At the same time, their workers often labored for wages insufficient to live and raise a family in conditions considered unsafe and sometimes inhuman.

John then synthesizes Leo's teaching. Private property is a natural right that the State cannot suppress. The State is to encourage, develop, and support the common good of her citizens. It is to ensure that employment terms are regulated in accord with justice and equity. The State is to make sure working conditions are not harmful to the laborers' material or spiritual needs. Workers have a right to enter into associations with other workers to safeguard their legitimate professional interests and to a remuneration based on laws of justice and equity and not on the market. Human solidarity and Christian brotherhood are to form the framework by which workers and employers regulate their mutual relations.

John calls Rerum Novarum the Magna Carta of social and economic reconstruction; it is a compendium of Catholic social and economic teaching. Its directives are so prominent, they will never sink into oblivion. Popes since Leo (and John XXIII) draw inspiration from it to address contemporary situations.

John next summarizes Pius XI's 1931 encyclical, Quadreagesimo Anno ("The Fortieth Year"), by presenting its two main themes. All forms of economic enterprise must be governed by the principles of social justice and charity. The work for social justice is not for merely for private gain, but for the common good. He then offers the teaching of his immediate predecessor, Pius XII, who taught that according to principles of justice and charity, goods created by God for all should flow to all alike. John also notes that Pius XII advocated nations affected by immigration are to seek means to eliminate any obstacles placed in the way.

FIRST SATURDAY

"I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the First Saturday of five successive months, go to confession, receive Holy Communion, say five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary."

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

SIGN UP IN CHURCH TODAY

Today there is a worldwide spiritual and moral famine on earth. Souls are dying because of a lack of spiritual nourishment. Hearts are broken; marriages are ruined; lives are destroyed; children are murdered in the womb; and truth and common sense are in short supply.

Please pray for this situation by joining one of our experienced parishioners for one hour outside Planned Parenthood, 1221 Powell Street, Norristown, PA 19401, located right next to the former Montgomery Hospital.

The day our Parish will be praying there is Tuesday,

March 16, beginning at 8 am. Please use the sign-up clipboard in the rear of the church.

Even if you can only stay a half hour, we are so grateful for the sacrifice of your time,

Please call Barb or Bob Bores at 610-265-4848 with any questions.
