Saint Augustine, Our Lady of Mount Carmel & Our Mother of Sorrows ~ 'United In The Sacred Heart'

SUNDAY, MARCH 21, 2021 ~ FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

The Sacrament of Baptism

Baptism is celebrated on dates that are mutually convenient for Father Nasta and the parents. Before a Baptism date can be set, parents should secure letters of eligibility for their recommended Godparents and present them to the rectory. Parents attendance at our Parish's Pre-Jordan program should be satisfied before a Baptism date is set. Parents are asked not to make any celebratory arrangements until a Baptism date is confirmed by our Rectory staff.

The Sacrament of Confession

Saturday afternoon: 3:15pm – 3:45pm.
By appointment at the rectory anytime.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Please speak to Father Nasta at least six months before your anticipated Wedding date. Couples should not make any celebratory arrangements until after they have met with Father at our Parish.

The Sacrament of The Sick

Please speak to Father Nasta if you or a family member wish to receive the Sacrament of the Sick. It is always appropriate to receive this Sacrament before surgery, during a serious illness or in the final stages of life.

Our Parish Prayer of Unity

Heavenly Father,
You call us to be Your faith-filled people,
United in the Sacred Heart of Your Son.
Grant us the grace to always respond to
Your call with lives of active faith, firm hope and Christian charity.
Aided by the example of Saint Augustine,
may we always seek to embrace and love
the teachings of Your Church.
Accompanied by Our Lady of Mount Carmel,
may we, in joyful times and in times of Sorrow,
always strive to be faithful followers of Your Son,
Jesus Christ,
for He lives and reigns with You,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
One God, forever and ever!
Amen!

Dear Friends,

The next regular parish Holy Hour will take place at 7 PM the following Thursday, March 25, the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord. All are invited to join in praying the Rosary, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Evening Prayer and Benediction.

As a minimal obligation all persons over the age of 14 are seriously bound to abstain from eating meat on the Fridays of Lent. Stations of the Cross are prayed at 7:00 PM on the Fridays of Lent.

Last weekend's second collection for the Church in Latin America was $586. Thank you for your generosity.

In addition to the regular times on Saturday afternoon for Confessions, I will be available this Tuesday, March 23 at 1 PM and 7 PM and Friday, March 26 at 6:30 PM and then after the praying of the Stations of the Cross which begin at 7 PM. To assist you in making an examination of conscience before receiving the Sacrament of Penance, here an aid based on the 10 Commandments:

1. I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods besides me.
Do I stand up for my faith in God and my Church? Does the attention I give to social media and my cell phone outweigh my desire to develop a relationship with God through prayer?
2. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
Have I used God's name disrespectfully? Do I curse or use vulgar language?
3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day.
Do I attend Mass regularly on Sundays and Holydays? Do I make the Lord's Day a day of rest?
4. Honor your father and your mother.
Do I honor and care for my parents? Do I respect proper and lawful authority? Have I kept the laws of fast and abstinence during Lent?
5. You shall not kill.
Do I give in to excessive anger, hatred, or vengeance? Have I exhibited elements of racism? Have I aided in an abortion? Do I use artificial contraception? Do I use or distribute illegal drugs? Do I abuse alcohol?
6. You shall not commit adultery.
Do I engage in reading or viewing pornography? Do I engage in conduct of a sexual nature with one whom I am not married in the eyes of God and the Church?
7. You shall not steal.
Have I willfully destroyed property? Do I refuse to share with the poor? Do I give my employer an honest day's work?
8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
Do I spread gossip and false rumors? Have I used social media to speak ill of another? Do I make rash judgments?
9. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife.
Do I willfully harbor lustful desires or fantasies?
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.
Does the sight of another's riches, good fortune or happiness fill me with envy?

Sincerely,

Fr. Nasta

These are difficult times and issues for our country. Are you asking yourself what to do? Prayer is always a good answer. The Sacred Heart Pro Life Holy Hour at 12:00 noon each Wednesday is an opportunity to come together in prayer to ask for God's help on issues affecting our nation and families.

The Miraculous Medal Novena is prayed on Saturday mornings following the 8:00 AM

Annunciation to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Annunciation of Our Lady or Annunciation of the Lord, is the Christian celebration of the announcement by the angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary that she would conceive and become the mother of Jesus, the Son of God, marking his Incarnation. Gabriel told Mary to name her son Jesus,

A Prayer for Lenten Grace

Loving God,

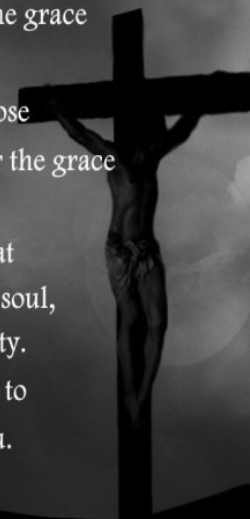

During the sacred season of Lent, bring me closer to you.
Prepare a place in my home and heart for silence and solitude, so that I may re-discover the grace of a prayer-full life.

Enlarge my heart so that I give to those in need and, in so doing, re-discover the grace of gratitude and generosity.

Help me to fast from those things that threaten the well-being of body and soul, remind me of the grace and simplicity.

May this season be grace-filled time to rekindle my love for and faith in you.

Amen.

Novena Prayer for the Year of Saint Joseph

O Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Foster Father of the Divine Child, Jesus, you were entrusted as the protective guardian of the Holy Family in Nazareth.

Give today this same protection to the family of the Church in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Intercede with Christ before the Father of us all:

- For the clergy and faithful,
- For married couples and single men and women,
- For all those in the consecrated life,
- For families and young people,
- For the poor, the lonely and neglected,
- For all the sick, suffering and dying.
- For a deepening of our spiritual life,
- For a strengthening of the moral life,
- For a bolder witness to the truth of the Gospel.

For all of us, Saint Joseph, with you as our firm example, may we remain confident in the plan of the Father for us, with lives of faith rooted in the saving death and resurrection of his Son and ever faithful to the demands of the Christian life with the grace of the Holy Spirit. Through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

Leader: Saint Joseph, patron and protector of the Universal Church.

All: Pray for us!

Faith Formation

This is the second of a four-part summary of Saint John XXIII's encyclical on social justice, Mater et Magistra ("Mother and Teacher"). John began the encyclical with a review and summary of church teaching on this subject from previous popes, which was presented a few weeks ago in the first summary. John spends the rest of the encyclical applying church social teaching to the contemporary day, the early 1960's.

John points out the various advancements taking place in science, chemistry, transportation, agriculture, radio and television, social security systems, and education. At same time, he laments the lack of balance between agriculture and industry as well as the disparity in economic wealth possessed by different countries. Another sign of the times John notes is the peoples of Asia and Africa attaining political independence from their once colonial occupation.

John advocates a wage be paid to workers that enables them to live truly human lives and fulfil their family responsibilities. He gives these factors in determining a fair wage: the financial state of the company for which one works, the effectiveness of the worker, and the common good of all. Remuneration for workers is to be based on justice and charity, and not the marketplace or the whim of the powerful few.

The right of private ownership of goods is asserted, for it is a right clearly sanctioned by the Gospel. At the same time, John reminds us that Jesus incessantly invites the rich to convert their material goods to spiritual ones by conferring their material goods to the poor.

John has a special place in his heart for the farmer and laments the loss of farming as a major driving force in the world's economy. Two main factors causing this shift are the attractive prospect of easy money and a sense of greater freedom and enjoyment of all the amenities town and city life offer.

He therefore proposes a solution. Consideration is to be given to suitable development of essential facilities in county areas, such as roads, transportation, means of communication, drinking water, housing, health services, education, religious and recreation facilities. Public authorities, for reasons of the common good, ought to develop a special credit policy and to form credit banks which will guarantee capital to farmers at a moderate rate of interest. John recommends two forms of insurance for agriculture: for the product being produced and for the workers and their families

So that farmers receive enough income for their families to avoid bankruptcy, John advocates farmers be given up-to-date instruction on the latest methods of cultivation, and have the assistance of experts at their disposal. Farmers should also organize themselves professionally to take an effective part in public life, both on the administrative and political level. As all other classes of workers, agricultural workers must always be guided by moral principles and respect for the civil law.

On Wednesday evening, March 10th, 15 members of Sacred Heart's Caring for Friends ministry gathered and enjoyed an evening of fellowship outside on the Pagnotti driveway!

Our tally for the evening was:

256 Breakfast Bags
4,108 Baby Wipes
140 Bottles of Ensure

Thank you, to all who gathered and to all who donated the items for Martha's Choice Marketplace!!!

The following are items Martha's Choice Marketplace is in need of:

- Baby Wipes
- Ensure
- Feminine hygiene products.

Please bring any donations with you to our next Gathering, Wednesday, April 14 at 6:00 PM.

If you can't join us please leave your donations in the back of church.

Can't get out to shop, consider giving a monetary donation (make checks payable to Elisa Pagnotti). Please put your donation in a separate envelope marked "Caring For Friends Donation" and place in the collection basket, mail it to or drop it off at the rectory.

Thank you in advance for your Generosity!
