About Us

Al-Kaws is a Saudi-based contracting company and a leading organization in various market segments. Since it was founded as a radiation protection and shielding company two decades ago, Al-Kaws was keen on growing and expanding on the basis of delivering the best quality in a timely and professional manner. Now, with gratitude to our trusting Clients and the support of our proud Nation, we can keep on delivering promises and maintaining the quality standards and business ethics to keep your cherished trust.

Our top priority is patient's safety. We do everything possible with flexibility and discipline to respect the sensitivity and hygiene during the work to ensure infection control for the well-being of the patients, doctors and hospital staff.

With Loyalty, Honesty, Teamwork and Clarity as values, Al-Kaws Company succeeded in the Saudi market with the vision of providing complete-solution healthcare services with high quality standards and the vision of keeping up with state-of-the-art technologies and providing the perfect mixture of work experience and scientific knowledge, in order to provide the best experience for our partners.
