Lord's Acre 75th Cookbook Campaign

The Lord's Acre 75th Edition Cookbook campaign is now in full swing. This is going to be a special edition marking our 75th Lord's Acre celebration. It is our hope to bring together the best edition the church has had to date.

I have solicited informational kits from two cookbook publishers that our church has used in publishing earlier editions of our Lord's Acre cookbooks.

I will be holding a campaign meeting in a couple of weeks to begin the process of deciding how this edition will come together, more details to come.

I am also in the process of creating a cost spreadsheet to help us decide on the contents and costs.

We have the opportunity to get a nice coupon savings if we wrap up the project and have it sent to the publishers by early May. This deadline will give us ample time to collect the recipes and initiate a Pre-Cookbook sales campaign to determine how many books we would like to order. We plan to order some extra cookbooks to sell at the Lord's Acre celebration on November 6th. * See more on the other side →→→→→→→→→→→→

Types of Strengths in Kids – Part 4

By Amanda Morin

Children have many different kinds of strengths. Sometimes these strengths are obvious, like when a kid is really good at drawing or playing sports. But some strengths can be harder to notice—like being a good listener or working well in groups.

Recognizing and talking about these strengths can help your child thrive. This is especially true for kids who are struggling in school. Use this list to help identify your child's strengths.

Literacy Strengths

Can rhyme and do other tasks that involve understanding the sound structure of words

Enjoys reading or being read to

Seeks out fun things to read like magazines and comic books

Can sound out unfamiliar words

Can easily recognize sight words

Understands and uses written information (like following written directions)

Can remember details and retell stories after reading them

Can make predictions based on what's happened so far in a story

Can pause when reading and return to that sentence after being interrupted

Reads with expression, like the way an actor talks on TV shows

Can figure out what new words mean by looking at the context or asking questions

Makes connections between reading material and personal experiences

Look for Math/Logistics and Other Strengths in Kids Part 5 in the May PBCC Newsletter.

If you or your son or daughter are interested in seeking support from this ministry, please contact Suzan at pbcc@powellbuttechurch.com, or leave a message with Jeanne at the church office.

THANK YOU!

A HUGE THANK YOU to those who have already asked to be a part of this exciting project.

We will need volunteers in the following areas:

Cookbook design committee (Create, design, and decide on the contents and sub-sections).
(Around 10 members)

Folks willing to manage a section of the cookbook (i.e., Vegetables & Salads, Main Dishes, Desserts, etc.)

People to help with the Pres-Sales campaign

People to canvas and collect recipes

Please email me (Suzan B. pbcc@powellbuttechurch.com) to let me know if you are interested in being a part of the committee or other capacity by January 31st. Start collecting those recipes!

*Jeanne will be sending out periodic emails to our congregation with updates on the status of the cookbook campaign. She will provide a link to the Word document for the Recipe Template for those who would like to download it, and type directly on that document. There will also be boxes with copies of the template in both the church office, and outside the historic chapel. You may turn in your completed recipes to either box or follow the submission instructions on the recipe template.
