FEBRUARY NEWSLETTER 2020

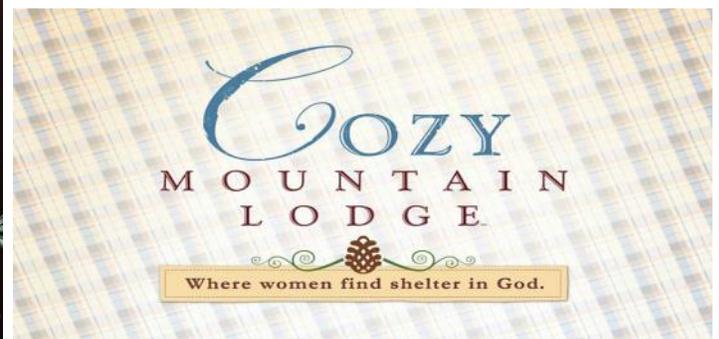

Cozy Mountain Lodge Women's Retreat

Our retreat is fast approaching and our plans are coming to fruition. Our time together will bring us closer to God and each other.

We have a few more kits left so if you could not go earlier, but you might be able to go now, please contact Denise B. as soon as possible.

Please keep us in prayer that our plans and our retreat will glorify our Father.

MEN OF ACTION (MOA)

The Men of Action ministry's success is only due to our fine PBCC Men who are willing to make personal sacrifice. They give their time, talents, equipment, fuel, etc. to serve those in need. Rom. 12:1, calls us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice. This is why our Church is growing in Christ!

January Men of Action newsletter mentioned plans to move the Pregnancy Resource Center in Prineville. Those plans have been postponed due to delay in building permits. Looks like a March date is probable. My wife Cindy and I had a great visit and toured the new location. Also reviewed plans for the move and adopting a room. PBCC is adopting the ultrasound room, where expecting mother's decide hopefully to keep their child. If your interested in helping either with the move or decorating the room please let me know. Thank you!

Rick F.

Women's Tea

Plans for our Women's Annual Tea are in the early stages still! We are beginning to approach businesses for our Auction. Please prayerfully consider donating this year.

We so appreciate all who have donated in the past.

We have secured our speaker. Her name is Cecile Kaiser, a Christian entertainer, from the Sacramento area, she has dedicated more than 33 years of ministry to not only entertaining people but telling them of God's goodness, faithfulness and saving grace. Lastly, we still need help with women to head our Food and Hostess committees! Please email pbcc@powellbuttechurch.com with questions or wanting to help.

We'd love for you to join our Tea Leadership Team!!

Be looking out for planning meetings in the Bulletin, later in February and early March.

THE WELL

PBCC has launched a new service, especially geared towards young adults and couples who are seeking a more interactive style of worship. The sermon is the same as the Sunday service, and all the elements we enjoy on Sunday morning will be included each week. "The Well" is the chosen name for this service, and that name serves the purpose well: significant events happened in the Bible around wells.

Community was built around wells, people were refreshed at wells, and Jesus went to Samaria to meet with the woman at the well (rather than requiring her to come to Him). So, this service is to connect with a sub-culture and community that is longing to be reached. Please pray for this endeavor. If you would like to check it out, or know of some young people (18-30-ish) who would enjoy this kind of church service, see Pastor Ethan for questions.

"The Well" will meet in Prineville at The Hub on the Madras Highway on Sunday evenings from 5:30-7:00, with after-glows encouraged.

Types of Strengths in Kids – Part 2

By Amanda Morin

Children have many different kinds of strengths. Sometimes these strengths are obvious, like when a kid is really good at drawing or playing sports. But some strengths can be harder to notice—like being a good listener or working well in groups. Recognizing and talking about these strengths can help your child thrive. This is especially true for kids who are struggling in school. Use this list to help identify your child's strengths.

Study Skill Strengths

- Understands and sets goals
- Can plan ahead
- Is a self-starter
- Can ignore distractions and stay focused on tasks
- Can think about something in more than one way (flexible thinking)
- Keeps information in mind long enough to use it in some way (working memory)
- Organizes thoughts and physical items like a backpack
- Follows rules and routines well
- Can keep track of time and obligations
- Can recognize and try to control “big feelings”
- Can pause to think through decisions or choices
- Can learn from mistakes and solve problems
- Self-advocates/asks for help
- Can work or play independently
- Works well/gets along well one-on-one
- Works well/gets along well in groups
- Has a growth mindset and believes skills can improve with effort

Look for Language Strengths in Kids Part 3 in the March PBCC Newsletter.

GriefShare is a special weekly seminar and support group designed to help you rebuild your life after losing a loved one. The group is facilitated by caring people who have experienced grief and want to help you through the difficult days ahead. We know it hurts and we want to help! This is a separate class from the Loss of a Spouse, but those who have lost a spouse would gain more insight by taking this class. All Are Welcome!
