Shooting Stars Program 2026

The Wonderland Skating School's Little Dippers program is a new type of introduction to Figure Skating course. Focused specifically for children ages 12+. This class will provide young and eager students the opportunity to specialize in figure skating skills. Skaters will also receive the opportunity to learn about choreography, off ice exercise routines, power skating skills, group performances and so much more! Every skater's progress is celebrated with Free Skate pins with the completion of each skating level! Add-on classes are offered as an introduction to interpretive skating, choreography, team events, as well as ice hockey, edge classes and more!

Included in your all inclusive enrolment:

45 minutes of guided instruction, 15 minutes of guided practice time, 60 minutes on the ice!
