educate. lead. inspire.

Overview

Eli Camps invites juniors and seniors aged 12-17 from around the world to experience the vibrant city of Montréal through our top-tier programs. We seamlessly blend immersive language courses with unforgettable cultural adventures. Our all-inclusive package covers every detail, from airport pickup to final farewells. Choose between our immersive residential/live-on-campus option or flexible day-only format.

Language Component

Senior Students (Ages 14–17)

Study English or French through 20 weekly lessons, with five levels and classes averaging 15 students. Written and spoken placement considers proficiency, age and language mix. Four daily classes cover grammar, listening, speaking, reading and writing, plus an elective. Journalism and Debate Club connect language learning to practical projects and global discussions.

Junior Students (Ages 12–13)

Juniors study English or French through 15 weekly lessons with qualified teachers, five levels and classes averaging 15 students. A first-Monday written and spoken assessment guides placement. Three daily classes, Monday-Friday, combine practical learning with educational visits throughout Montréal.

Trips

Experience Montréal like never before with our interactive after-school trips and excursions. Discover the city's rich history in Old Montréal, enjoy panoramic views, explore world-class art, dive into nature and savor local flavors. Eli Camps offers a deep dive into local culture, ensuring an unforgettable adventure through Montréal's iconic landmarks.

Our Campus

Our summer home is McGill University in downtown Montréal. Students enjoy campus life, university facilities and easy access to the city.
