| Everyone will need to bring one bag that closes (backpack, duffle bag). Personal items must be only carried in this one bag. Everyone needs to have a mask and personal hand sanitizer. You must have your own makeup and brushes. We can no longer share makeup and hair supplies. You will need to wear unders just like always on shoot days. We will use black jazz shoes, please bring those. Or all black tennis shoes will work too. All participants will need to have a current Consent Form on file. |                               |                                | Three friends find a trunk of photographs in an attic. As photographs are viewed and captions are read, the friends are magically transported to significant events in America's history. Suddenly, cannon balls drop around them and they find themselves on a ship with European immigrants who want to reach Ellis Island. They continue transporting through time visiting places like the 1930s Depression, the Radio Era, the end of World War II and the Civil Rights movement. They are trapped in the attic until they can unravel a mystery. Snapshots of Freedom was written by Rob and Ria Kroff in 2007 containing original songs and American classic popular music. The November Movie Project will be a revival of the original musical. |                                |                                |   |
