GLOBAL SECURITY

MODUS OPERANDI

We made a detailed assessment of the client's requirement before we delve into the job. We do not believe in being mere labor suppliers and end up being a white elephant to our client. The client has a free hand to choose from the service and proposed personnel for the job. This not only nourishes the confidence in client but also bridges the gap between the two, thus contributing directly to the growth of the company.

COSTING AND CONTROL

We believe in quality control by minimizing the expenses on the company and maximizing the returns by making an immaculate mélange of force cum technique. We work on system based security, where the system is self propelled and we ensure to update are systems regularly.

Since physical security is a costly affair, we believe in intelligent inputs to not only contain the peripheral costs, but also to stop theft at site and concomitantly monitor against any system failure. Our intelligence wing takes credit for this.

INVESTIGATION

We attribute our success to our seasoned experience in this field. Our wide network in the field of Investigation and Law makes us an acclimatized group in the field of Litigation and Justice, and disposal of theft and speedy recovery is assured given the past cases that we have been instrumental in solving.

DEPLOYMENT

After the mandatory training is complete, the security personnel are made to undergo a study of the functions of security guards at the companies where they are proposed to be posted. This is done under the supervision of experienced guards to foster the novice to gain experience and confidence This exercise, we assure you, makes all the security personnel, to adapt to the real time duties and actions and would make them action ready before being deployed at an establishment.

As the change of guard takes place at an establishment, we ensure that the security personnel are placed on duty, well in advance, along with the outgoing personnel for the purpose of assimilate.

GLOBAL SECURITY

CUSTOMER SERVICE AND RELATION

We have a well experience, well connected fleet of diligent Area Officer(s) network panning the nation. We conduct day and night visits to ensure optimum levels of efficiency in the performance of our personnel deployed at your establishment. There is a regular drill comprising to all.

FEMALE SECURITY GUARD

FEMALE SECURITY GUARD In many situations, a female security guard is essential for securing the site. A woman is often seen as a friendly face and as such tends to portray a different image to that of the stereo-typical male security guard. Due to this, what could at first be seen as a hostile situation, often has the opposite effect when dealt with by a female security guard. In recent times, there is spike in demand of lady searcher in Mumbai as frisking has become core part of security at many places. Role of Female Guard A lady security guard is ideal for places where visitors are mostly female and children. But, role of Female Security Guard is not limited to frisking female visitors, they can undertake almost all the security related task that a male security guard does with equal efficiency and dedication. Presence of lady guard gives a sense of security to woman patrons.

ESCORT GUARD

ESCORT GUARD BPO's or MNC's or any other workplace where female employees are working till late evening or in night shifts, are mandatorily required to be provided with pick up and drop facility, with an escort guard in each vehicle, for the safety of female employees. As per the Shop and Establishment Act of various state, it is a mandatory requirement. For instance, as per Gujarat shop & Establishment Act, a female employee working beyond 9:30 PM till 7 AM must be provided with cab facility with escort guard in many cities of INDIA. In metro cities, it is not uncommon for female employees to work late at night, therefore, our escort security service in Mumbai is one of the most sought-after service by the MNCs. An Escort Guard requires special skills as the threat in this case is different than faced by a security guard stationed at office, factory or malls, as he is required to guard female employees at night while in transit.
