WINERY OVERVIEWS

(Alphabetical Index - not exhaustive - of our Portfolio's PHILOSOPHY + Producers' STORIES!)

ADAMI

www.adamispumanti.it

ITALY - Veneto

The Adami brothers, Franco & Armando (referred to locally as "The Prosecco Brothers"), are small producers with some of the best vineyard sites in the esteemed Valdobbiadene area. Franco leads the Prosecco marketing consortium. Elegant "bubbly" wines: aromatic, deliciously dry, delicately soft yet crisp, & versatile.

BUONDONNO

BUONDONNO

www.buondonno.com

ITALY - Tuscany

Gabriele Buondonno's certified organic Chianti Classico production respects traditions & reflects his unique terroir (a historic domain once owned by Michelangelo's nephew). He severely restricts the vineyard yields (he does all of the vineyard & winery work himself). Seductive, lush fruit... bounded by solid structure.

CARRAU -- incl. "CERRO CHAPEU"

URUGUAY - Cerro Chapeu

9 generations in wine (with roots in the Cataluña region of Spain since 1752), the Carrau family - in Uruguay since 1930 - were first to export their wines & in 1973 introduced the idea of using the country's typical grape, Tannat, to make top reserve reds. Francisco Carrau's innovative winery in Cerro Chapeu region is built inside a hill, practicing minimal manipulation. Vineyards located in the highest Environmental Sustainability Index of the world (per a 2005 Yale study).

CASAS DEL MAR

SPAIN - Catalonia

Importer Bob Shack met Pedro "Cointreau" Freixas while working for Remy/Cointreau. Later, Pedro married Nuria Alsina, who inherited her family's Cava

NOTES

In the village of Forst, home to some of the most prestigious sites in the renowned Pfalz region, Lucashof vineyards lie on the gentle slopes of the Palatine Hills overlooking the Rhine River. Brothers Klaus & Hans Lucas employ environmentally sound viticultural techniques for their Riesling, using only organic fertilizers. In the cellar they minimize intervention "to allow common sense, intuition & nature's way to guide the winemaking process."

MARTUSCIELLO

www.salvatoremartusciello.it

ITALY - Campania

The Martusciello family's focus on "tipicità" (authenticity) highlights the traditions of the long-ignored Campania region (including an official feature of their "Grotta del Sole" wines at the G-7 meeting in Naples). Now son Salvatore offers a select line under his own name, including intriguing fizzy dry red Gragnano.

MAZZOLINO

www.tenuta-mazzolino.com

ITALY - Lombardy

Oltrepò-Pavese has always felt French influence & for centuries has excelled in cultivating native French varieties (Chard, Pinot Noir) alongside interesting locals (Bonarda). The Braggiotti family calls upon top Burgundian winemakers; their "Noir" is considered one of Italy's best Pinot Neros, repeatedly recognized by Tre Bicchieri.

ORSOLANI

www.orsolani.com

ITALY - Piedmont

In the Piedmont town of Caluso, Gian Luigi Orsolani follows his family's tradition (since 1894!) of making wines that restore & elevate the ancient reputation of now-rare, indigenous Erbaluce (which he produces in a range of sparkling, still, & dessert versions). Multiple recipient of Italy's highest "Tre Bicchieri" award.

PUNSET

www.punset.com

ITALY - Piedmont

Marina Marcarino, forerunner in Italian organic production (strictly certified), founded the Vintesa Italian Wines Consortium to promote an organic philosophy, stating: "I wish to confront with the world of conventional wine, and show that we can become great while respecting nature, the environment and ourselves."

RAMPOLLA

www.castellodeirampolla.it

ITALY - Tuscany

Since 1739, the Di Napoli Rampolla family has owned this historic, prestigious estate in the southern valley of Panzano. One of the 1st Tuscan estates to grow Cabernet Sauvignon, Rampolla helped create the "Super-Tuscan" category & also led the Biodynamic movement.

ROCCA DEL PRINCIPE

www.roccadelprincipe.it

ITALY - Campania

Nearby Picentini mountains peak Tuoro (1400 m) works as a heat-regulator & emphasizes the temperature range at night and in winter, near the town of Lapio.

SANTA BARBARA

www.santabarbara.it

ITALY - Marches

When Stefano Antonucci's father needed a larger winemaking facility, the only suitable building available in the town of Barbara was the old abandoned convent (named Santa Barbara after an early Roman Christian martyr). Hence the winery's name -- No connection with California! (Instead, discover their famed Verdicchio.)

SCACCIADIAVOLI

www.cantinascacciadiavoli.it

ITALY - Umbria

Founded in 1884, Scacciadiavoli's name ("cast out the devils") comes from a 19th century exorcist who lived near the vineyard & used those wines to rid souls of demons. The hillside estate (built by Roman Prince Boncompagni-Ludovisi; now owned by Pambuffetti family) lies in the Montefalco appellation, known for indigenous Sagrantino.

SULIN -- incl. "ANTICHI GIOCHI PIEMONTESI" + "TERRE D'ALERAMO"

www.sulin.it

ITALY - Piedmont

Brothers Mauro & Fabio Fracchia, 4th generation winemakers, produce unique wines such as the inimitable fizzy Casorzo "Voulet" (from red Malvasia). "Sulin" means "sunny" in Piedmont dialect -- describing their hilltop vineyards. "Terre d'Aleramo" is named for the legendary founder of the Monferrato area (the label illustrates Aleramo's fateful horseride that defined this zone) & presents classic Barbera in a fresh, approachable style - at an unrivaled value.

NOTES

VERBENA

Their "Antichi Giochi Piemontesi" line's labels depict "ancient Piemontese games" & playful traditions such as "Voulet."

www.aziendaverbena.it

ITALY - Tuscany

The Nanetti family produces a distinctive Brunello, with a uniquely herbaceous nose while retaining the typically powerful nature of the Sangiovese Grosso grape. Wine Advocate declared: "elegant Brunello & Rosso di Montalcino from the eastern part of the zone."

VIETTI

www.vietti.com

ITALY - Piedmont

Vietti

In the late 1950s, Alfredo Currado made the innovative decision to produce only "Cru" wines at Vietti. His love of fine art also led him to create striking labels showcasing Piedmontese artists (another industry innovation which spawned many imitators). The Currado-Vietti family (now c/o Alfredo's winemaker son Luca) remains a leading, internationally-acclaimed proponent of Piedmont tradition -- having resurrected the rare white Arneis & giving equal care to their Barbera & Dolcetto, alongside blockbuster Barolo.
