

ISLAY SINGLE MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

THE STORY

Port Askaig is an independently bottled, Islay Single Malt where the family style harks back to some of Elixir Distillers' most loved whiskies of the past – rich fruit flavor, seasoned with herbaceous peat – and drives everything we do. The name derives from the port of the same name which is nearest to the home of our new-make. Over the past 15 years, we have taken young Islay Single Malt and re-rack through our meticulous cask program, where they continue to age in our warehouses until ready to be expertly blended and bottled. Through a deliberate choice in flavor profile driven by our cask program, we have created what we feel is the ultimate expression of Islay – a beautifully curated range of whiskies with a refined balance of fruit and peat. Since 2009 our Port Askaig Whiskies have won 12 Gold+ medals with an average score of 90pts from key global drinks journals.

THE STORY

Sukhinder and Rajbir Singh have been seeking out the finest casks of Scotch whisky since 2002. Their mission is to discover exceptional malts from distilleries across Scotland, carefully selecting each cask for its unique quality and character. Single Malts of Scotland has an untarnished reputation of bottling some of the most exceptional malts from across Scotland. Selecting and nurturing quality casks of outstanding quality. Only those that meet these high standards are bottled, meaning that each bottle is both limited and unlikely to be repeated, offering whisky lovers a truly unique experience

BLACK TOT RUM

THE STORY

Black Tot Rum is an exceptional range of blended Caribbean rums that boldly go beyond the typical expectations of the category. Our approach is driven by a constant obsession with flavor and inspired by the ingenuity of the original navy rum blenders. The origins of Black Tot lie in the particular problem-solving of the British Royal Navy who needed to provide a reliable rum supply for the fleet to maintain crew morale. By blending rums together from across the world they created a global blend before its time and unlocked a greater depth of flavor. When Black Tot founder Sukhinder Singh first discovered one of the original Royal Navy rum flagons and tasted the liquid he was astonished by its depth and complexity. It sparked an obsession with flavor that led to the creation of Black Tot rum. Our own expression of ingenuity combines modern and traditional blending techniques along with decades of experience crafting and selecting quality spirit to create a rum like no other.

ELEMENTS of ISLAY

THE STORY

For over 15 years, we have been bottling the unmistakable characters of Islay – from North to South, East to West – no one has as definitive an understanding of the flavors the island’s distilleries offer as Elixir Distillers. Through this range of bold, blended Islay malts, The Elements of Islay expresses our skill in the art of blending, taking lighter elements from the north and heavier elements from the south of the island to create blends that truly represent the character of Islay. We impart even more character and flavor through exquisite bourbon and sherry casks to for more depth and character into these delicious expressions. These blended Elements of Islay are a true representation of the incredible flavor that can be created from this lauded isle.
