Kohler Is "At Home with Town&Country"

Cocktails and gorgeous home design joined forces in October when Town&Country and Kohler co-sponsored an exclusive book signing of At Home with Town&Country with editor-at-large Pamela Fiori. The event was hosted at the stunning 2010 Designer Visions apartment at The Setai in New York City. Guests, including leading designers and architects, enjoyed the cocktails and light fare while taking in the dazzling panoramic views of New York City. Please visit designervisionsonline.com.
