Volume 01 Issue 1

African-American Top 20

The list not only represents diversity within the industry as a whole but also highlights the array of talent within the black design community. Each designer featured has a unique style and approach to the interior design process. Blown away by the scope and creativity of their works, we've committed ourselves to emphasizing the brilliance of each designer by celebrating their achievements and promoting their businesses.

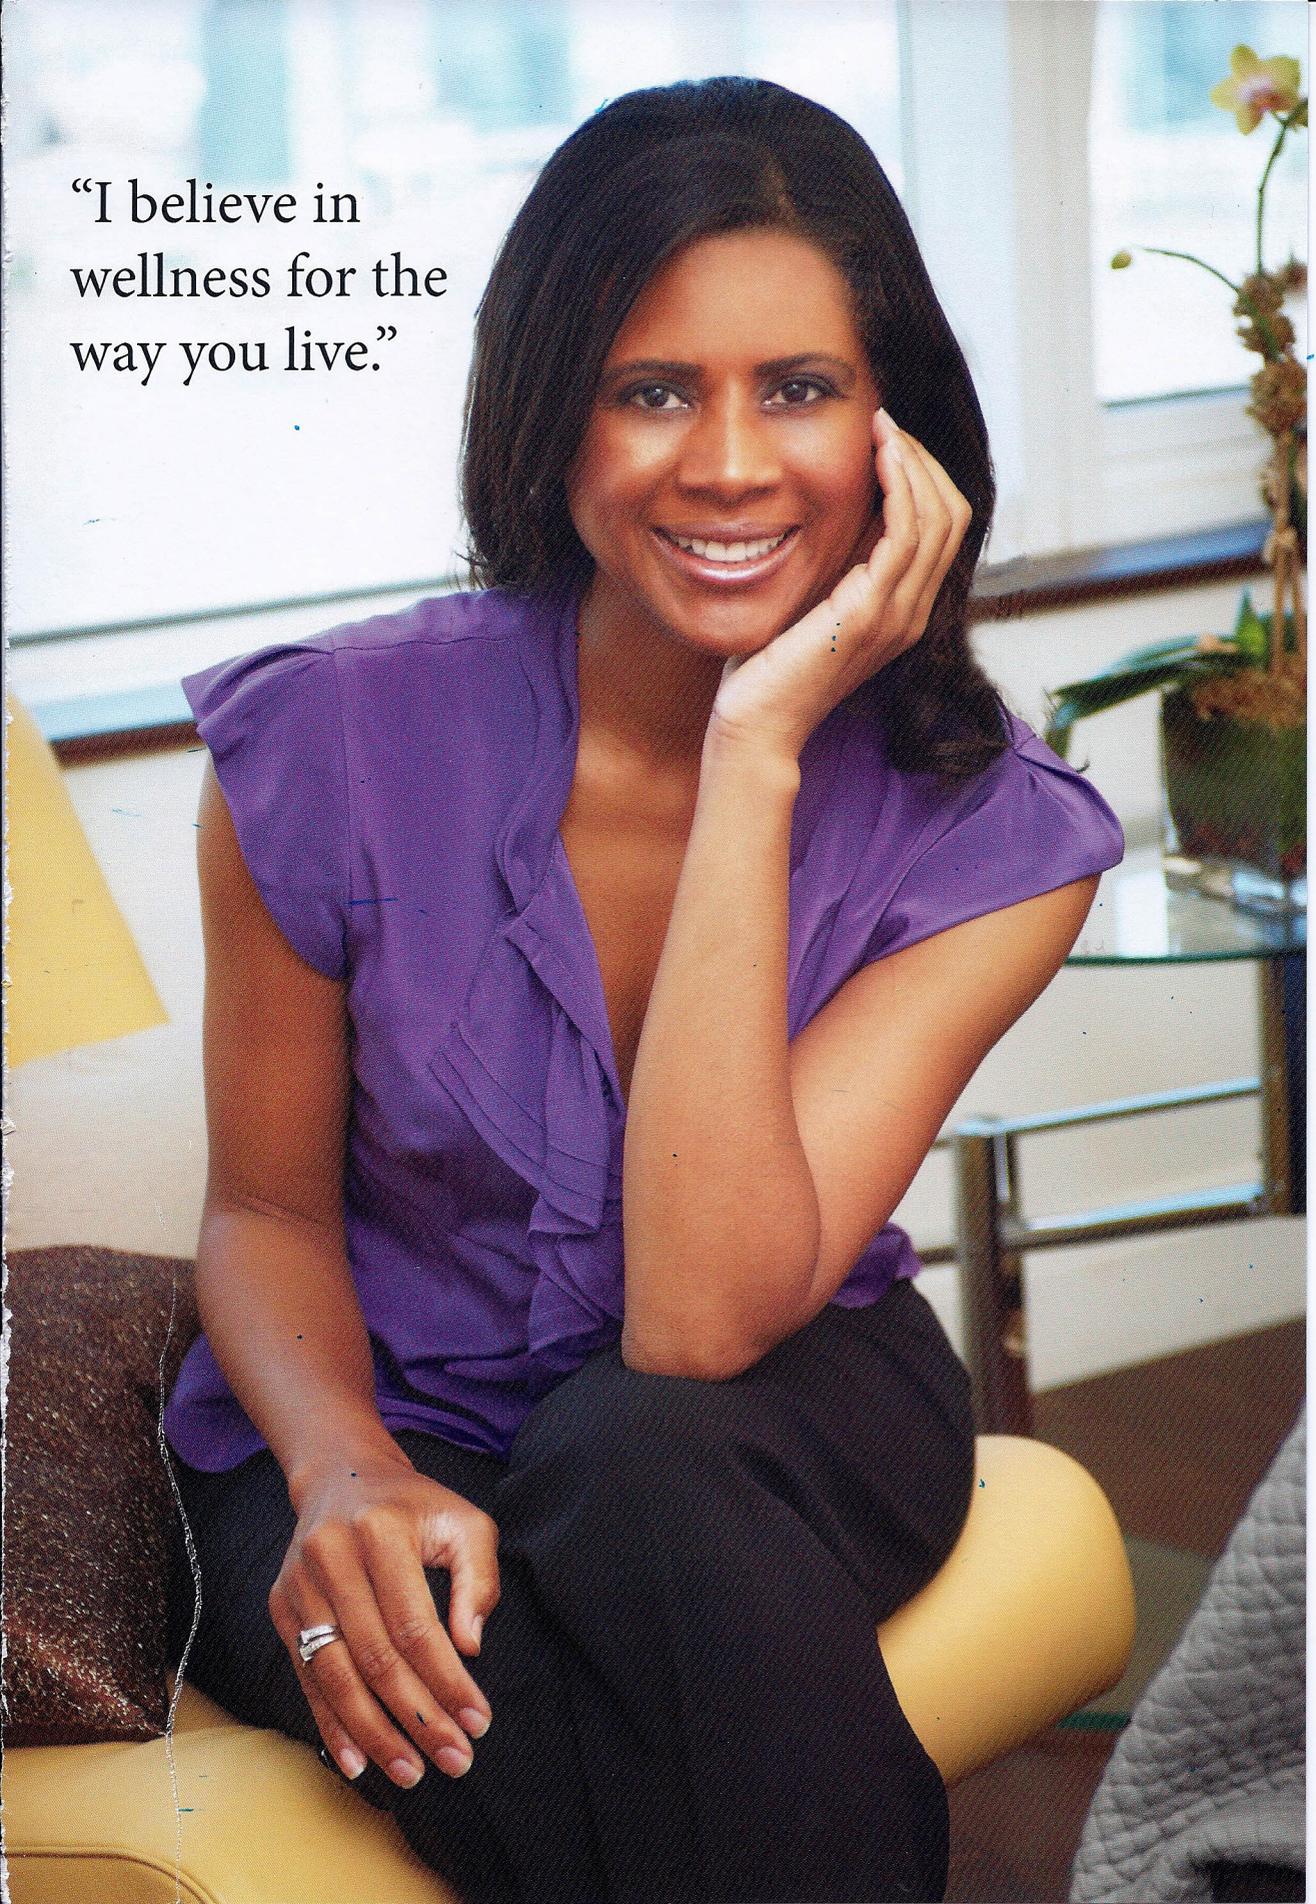

At this pivotal stage in the evolution of black interior designers and as more people of color aspire to become a part of it, African-American culture, style and heritage are finding their way into the hearts and homes of all types of people throughout the world. From the sandy beaches of the Caribbean to some of the most beautiful homes in the priciest zip codes in the U.S., it is beyond question that members of the African-American Top 20 are setting global trends for excellence in interior design.
