

CCBC News: The Branches

July 2024

Welcome! We hope you find this newsletter informative and encouraging. If you have any needs that we can help you with, please reach out to us!

We hope to see you at CCBC in person very soon!

Deacon of the Week:

7th: Gary Wells
14th: Evans Duren
21st: Steve Abrahamson
28th: Joe Clay

What a tremendous month June has been. To get to celebrate Mother's Day, Dedication of little Woody, Kaitlyn and Darrell Wood, a great gathering at the Farm to Table Fellowship, a full week of VBS, and then Father's Day almost caused us to have a celebration overload.

To every person who participated in VBS, God bless you for every effort. I am not about to try and name all who helped and worked and gave food and prepared food and on and on. It took a lot of people, but I have to mention Dianne Clay because I am not sure anything would have happened if she had not pushed us to action. Again, just a super thanks to everyone who worked so hard.

Continue to pray for God's direction, the sweet spirit of cooperation that we are experiencing, the Pastor's Search Committee, the prospective pastor and his family, and the outreach ministries of Cedar Creek.

We are very thankful for our new Administrative Assistant, Anna Stalnaker. Look at the website, <https://ccbcworship.org/> for many updates and be sure to click on the Linktree link for EVERYTHING that is happening in church life.

Thank you all for your faithfulness. May God honor every effort to His great glory.

Pastor Jerry

Are you grieving a loss?

Find hope and healing at our Grief Share group. Grief Share is the #1 grief recovery program in the world where you will find a safe, comforting place to talk with others about your grief. Each of the 13 sessions will include a video seminar and group discussion. Every participant will also receive a personal workbook. Sessions will be held on Thursday evenings at CCBC from 6 – 8 PM from August 8th through October 31st. Register now via the CCBC website or through the Linktree at <https://linktr.ee/ccbcworship>

Sunday Night Forum

We have had great discussions at our last 2 Forums about our real and aspirational values at CCBC. We start back with our next Forum this month! Check the calendar for upcoming dates!
