

America needs your vote — and Calhoun County needs your vote.

With many contested races on the March 3, 2026 ballot, every vote truly matters. An informed vote is one of the most important responsibilities we share as citizens.

As voters, it is essential to carefully consider each candidate’s background, experience, and readiness to serve — especially in a judicial race, where fairness, judgment, and experience are critical.

In this election for Judge of the Calhoun County Court at Law, my opponent and I bring very different backgrounds to the table.

	Beeler	Cross
Calhoun County Resident Since	1961	2023
Public Discipline by State Bar	No	Yes
Calhoun High School Graduate	Yes	No
Military Service	Yes	No
Experience with All Cases Before the Court	Yes	No
