*CALL TO WORSHIP

"When in Our Music God is Glorified"

ENGELBERG

Choir only

When in our music God is glorified,
And adoration leaves no room for pride,
It is as though the whole creation cried
Alleluia! Alleluia!

All

How often, making music, we have found
A new dimension in the world of sound,
As worship moved us to a more profound
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always
Alleluia! Alleluia!

INVOCATION & LORD'S PRAYER

Leigh Baker, deacon

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Part of the reason we use modern forms and folk tunes [for the Psalms] is that they can span [wide-ranging] emotions. You can have changes in tone in a way that you can't with a lot of other song forms.

- Philip Moyer, singer-songwriter, My Soul Among Lions<sup>1</sup>

PRAYER of CONFESSION

Charlotte Craver

Go to the lost, confused people right here among us.
Tell them that the kingdom is here.
Bring health to the sick.
Touch the untouchables.
Share and scatter the blessings you have received.
The seed will grow well.
The vine will yield its fruit; the ground will produce its crops,
And the heavens will drop their dew.
I will give all these things as an inheritance to the remnant of this people.
So I will save you, and you will be a blessing.
Do not be afraid, but let your hands be strong
Freely you have received; freely give.

*HYMN #380

Make Me A Blessing

SCHULER

Around 1944, a friend named Phil Kerr came to visit [Ira] Wilson one day. Both men were gospel musicians and, at Ira’s invitation, the other man sat down at the piano to play. He finished with “Make Me a Blessing.” Wilson listened politely, but it was evident he did not know the song. His eyes widened in astonishment when Kerr said, “You wrote that. That’s one of yours.” The song was being widely used, but its author had long forgotten it.

Caroline Childrey, vocals

I've been involved in songs that were fun little ditties that went up the charts, but the permanent impact of this song has been amazing. The favorite songs that you write aren't always the ones that also become the highest profile, so it was a total thrill for us.
- Jeff Hanna, songwriter<sup>3</sup>

*BENEDICTION

Numbers 6:24-26

Trey Davis

<sup>24</sup> The Lord bless you and keep you;

<sup>25</sup> The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you;

<sup>26</sup> The Lord turn his face toward you

And give you peace.

As we go out into the world, we look for opportunities to share our blessings with others. If you would like to contribute to the ministry here at Ridge Road Baptist Church, offering plates are available on the altar up front for your gifts.
