Blest Be the Tie
Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love

Is like to that above.

*INVOCATION & LORD'S PRAYER

Sandra Jolly, deacon

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

MORNING LITANY

Isaiah 42:1-4

Suzanne Lorentzen

The Lord says "Here is my servant, whom I uphold,

My chosen one in whom I delight;

I will put my Spirit on him,

And he will bring justice to the nations.

He will not shout or cry out,

Or raise his voice in the streets.

A bruised reed he will not break,

And a smoldering wick he will not snuff out.

In faithfulness he will bring forth justice;

He will not falter or be discouraged

Till he establishes justice on earth.

In his teaching the islands will put their hope."

*HYMN of PRAISE #149

RESPONSE

from Life of the Beloved
H. Nouwen

Dick Heidgerd

Isn't a meal together the most beautiful expression

Of our desire to be given to each other in our brokenness?

The table, the food, the drinks,

The words, the stories:

Are they not the most intimate ways in which we give our lives to each other?

In "breaking bread together," the breaking and giving are so clearly one.

When we eat together, we are vulnerable to one another.

Eating from the same bread,

Drinking from the same cup,

Call us to live in unity and peace.

Our desire to eat together is an expression of our even deeper desire,

To be food for one another.

We give of ourselves as a source of physical, emotional, and spiritual growth.

Our fulfillment lies in becoming bread for the world.

Trey Davis

As we go out into the world, we look for opportunities to share our blessings with others. If you would like to contribute to the ministry here at Ridge Road Baptist Church, offering plates are available on the altar up front for your gifts.

*CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

Blest Be the Tie
When we asunder part
It gives us inward pain
But we shall still be joined in heart
And hope to meet again.
