

KBK Consulting Group and Brunswick Housing Authority Announce an Innovative Partnership to Improve Resident Experience

For Immediate Release – Press Advisory
August 22, 2022

Contact: Brady Buckner
bbuckner@kbkconsultinggroup.com
Washington, DC

Brunswick Housing Authority Staff and Officers

Today, the KBK Consulting Group (KBK), in conjunction with Brunswick Housing Authority (BHA) in Georgia, announced a new partnership to help improve living conditions and economic opportunities for BHA residents. BHA and KBK have put in motion an innovative plan to restore economic resources to BHA residents and dramatically improve their housing units.

For the past ten years, KBK has been working in communities around the country to help address disparities in employment, small business creation, and health care through community events and workforce and small business support programs. The Brunswick Housing Authority, under new leadership, has a bold plan to improve the quality of life for its residents and restore them to economic independence.

“We are excited to work with the Brunswick Housing Authority to employ innovative solutions to improve the lives of BHA residents,” said Kevin B. Kimble, Esq., Principal of KBK.

About KBK

KBK's mission is to connect its clients to other successful individuals and organizations to help them surpass their goals. KBK believes the right public/private partnerships can help disadvantaged communities build wealth and thrive in the modern economy.

About BHA

The Brunswick Housing Authority strives to provide improved living conditions for very low and low-income families while maintaining their rent payments at an affordable level. BHA's mission is to return its residents to financial and economic independence through impactful and compassionate means. For more information, see <https://www.brunswickpha.org/about-us>.