

The Seven Mountains: A Call to Prayer and Action

A Teaching & Sermon Framework

Introduction: Why the Seven Mountains Matter

God's intent has never been for His people to retreat from culture, but to disciple nations. Scripture reveals that influence flows through identifiable spheres of society—what we call the Seven Mountains. Each mountain shapes values, behavior, and future generations. The battle is not against people, but against spiritual strongholds that seek to distort God's design. Victory comes when prayer births action and obedience releases authority.

1. The Mountain of Media – The Hittites

Teaching Focus

Media shapes fear, truth, and perception. What is amplified becomes reality for societies. This mountain has been overtaken by fear-driven narratives, distortion, and division. Scripture tells us that fear is not from God, yet it dominates headlines and airwaves.

The enemy uses media to normalize anxiety, weaken faith, divide communities, and suppress hope. But God is raising a new breed of evangelists—voices called to release truth, hope, and righteousness through modern communication channels.

Prayer Strategy

- Pray for discernment, courage, and protection for righteous voices in media
- Intercede for those spreading fear and distortion to encounter truth and repentance
- Ask God to awaken and call believers into media as a divine assignment

Action Strategy

- Enter media fields with a clear Kingdom identity, not as neutral professionals
- Produce content that reflects truth, hope, excellence, and righteousness
- Establish faith-driven platforms in journalism, digital media, film, and broadcasting
- Support and amplify Kingdom-centered media initiatives

2. The Mountain of Government – The Gergashites

Teaching Focus

Government determines laws, justice, and national direction. Though often avoided due to corruption, God never surrendered this mountain. The ruling spirit operates through pride, power, and self-glory. Yet God is positioning His people to lead with humility and righteousness.

God raises apostles—men and women carrying authority from heaven—to confront systems and bring order aligned with His purposes.

Prayer Strategy

- Pray for those in authority, regardless of personal agreement
- Establish prayer coverings over governmental offices
- Intercede for righteous decrees, wisdom, and restraint of corruption

Action Strategy

- Train and support believers called to public service and leadership
- Engage in policy, advisory roles, and governance with integrity
- Educate and disciple leaders to govern with justice and humility
- Raise reformers who bring Kingdom order into civic systems

3. The Mountain of Education – The Amorites

Teaching Focus

Education shapes worldview and future leadership. Once rooted in biblical truth, this mountain has been overtaken by humanism and godless ideologies that elevate human reasoning above God's wisdom.

God is calling His people to re-enter education as influencers, teachers, and reformers—restoring truth at the foundation of learning.

“Your Kingdom come. Your will be done—on earth as it is in heaven.”
