Hickory Nut Gorge Outreach, (the local charitable organization that provides food and other needed assistance to folks and families in the “Gorge” area) is holding its 2020 Spring & Autumn Arts and Crafts Festivals in beautiful downtown Lake Lure, NC across from the beach surrounded by the scenic Blue Ridge Mountains. These festivals started over 30 years ago and have become major, signature community events that showcase the cultural heritage of “mountain art and fine craft making.” The Vendor Terms & Conditions are detailed in a separate document, which is located on the website. Please read and understand before signing the Vendor Application. Application details information on booth size and fees along with the required input fields. We hope you’ll join us as a vendor for these wonderful events!

General Release and Acceptance of Terms and Conditions: I/We agree to abide by the Festivals Terms and Conditions. The Festival may use vendors’ photos for publicity purposes only, and will not return any photos submitted unless requested. Permission is granted to the Festival Committee to use my/our name, business name, contact information, images taken of me/us or my/our items for any and all purposes unless expressly restricted by checking the statement below.

Responsibility and Liability: The vendor agrees to hold harmless Hickory Nut Gorge Outreach and its volunteers and the Town of Lake Lure and its employees, elected officials and volunteers from any damage or loss to vendor’s property or any personal injury she/he or helpers may sustain during the Festival. Hickory Nut Gorge Outreach reserves the right to cancel the Festival due to acts of God, weather, or unforeseen events out of its control, in which case, Hickory Nut Gorge Outreach will not be liable for refunds or other liabilities. Vendors should purchase their own insurance to cover their personal property, personal liability and artwork or food.
