John Tudor has performed Library / Reading shows for over two decades, for groups as small as a handful, to as large as 2000.

"The children were not just entertained, but were left with opened minds as to what they could do and experience for themselves."

– Lorene Dennis, Orangeburg Co. Library

Adult Literacy Programs • Staff In-Service Programs

A motivational show designed to uplift and entertain. Teaches magical communication, stress reduction, ongoing inspiration; and John teaches some simple tricks. (45 min., 9 min, 3 hour formats).

"John, your script reflected time, effort, and interest in the persons in attendance. I have witnessed magicians before but but I have never experienced a program with such specific content. Sometimes the adults watched with such intensity that they forgot where they were and squealed with delight."

-Dorothy Reese, Adult Literacy Program, Richland County, SC

THE MAGIC OF John Tudor

Biography

John Tudor's heartwarming magic has been enjoyed across North America for over two decades. He's performed at a wide variety of venues, including The Breakers, in West Palm Beach, The Riviera, in Palm Springs, and The Glenn Gould Theatre in Toronto. He performs for Fortune 500 companies like Morgan Stanley, Google, and Boeing.

Coming from a professional acting background, John brings a theatrical touch to his performances, while keeping the hilarity flowing. His dramatic manner and powerful voice captures the audience, and his storytelling style has invited comparison to Garrison Keiller and Orson Welles. For years he performed in schools and educational conferences; and he won a First Place Silver Telly Award for his magic video "The Magic Is In You!"

John's magic is born out of passion and theatre, by pulling rabbits out of hats, he seeks to bring out the magic in everyone.
