Mental Health News Radio Network (MHNR) and The Global Touch Foundation have come together to create a series designed to further Mental Health conversations so they become an accepted and healthy part of every culture. This series pilot will include interviews with mental health experts, including some of MHNR's podcasters, participating in roundtable discussions on topics such as:

- Addiction
- Trauma
- Suicide and depression
- At risk teens
- Social Media's impact on mental health (special focus)
- PTSD
- Bullying
- Psychological abuse
- Autism Awareness

Your sponsorship will allow this project to reach people all over the world and continue to break down the barriers to open and honest conversations about mental health.
